Rumors report that in Albany a firm is using a coaxial cable to pipe in the Portland TV channels when they all get on the air. This project will eliminate the use of antennas for everyone who ties onto this cable.

The cost is rumored to be a flat fee of $125 to hook up to the cable and a $5.00 fee monthly or $60 per year. According to our source work has already begun on the project and will be finished in the near future.

Sunday listening and TELE-VIEWING is packed with outstanding items for both.

Radio offers top variety in programs in various programs which include: AMERICA CALLING, Rebel Randall's special Valentine's Day show on her KOIN Radio program at 3:00 p.m. will be star studded with top flight guests Peggy Lee, Rosemary Clooney, Margaret Whiting, Jo Stafford, the Andrews Sisters and Vic Damone. The program will salute the women in the services. The Mills Brothers will be the guests of the "EDGAR BERGAN-CHARLIE McCARTHY SHOW" Sunday afternoon at 5:00 p.m. McCarthy without benefit of any of the required licenses, takes it upon himself to become orchestra leader Ray Noble's manager.

Laughs will no doubt be a dime a dozen when Bing Crosby will be the guest on Jack Benny's program at 4:00 p.m. Sunday on KOIN. Benny will present his version of the "Bing Crosby Story".

Some of the movie studios are getting very strict with their stars working on TV. Gordon MacRae is a good example. MacRae's popular program, THE RAILROAD HOUR, may become a television show and Gordon won't be able to appear on it. His contract with Warner Bros. says in Big Bold and Ugly letters, "No TV."

If you're a little short of the moola for that new TV set, you might drop in on the annual Firemen's Ball at the Crystal Gardens Saturday night and possibly walk off with the set they are giving away to some lucky dancer. Mitchell's Radio, 1880 State street, is providing the 17-inch-screen Motorola.

Patient Didn't Pull Dentist's Tooth
Yukon, Okla. (AP)—An old Oklahoma law making it a crime for a patient to pull a dentist's tooth was discovered yesterday—and just in time.

Dr. David Harris was about to let the highest bidder do the thing everyone has thought of at one time or another—give the dentist a taste of his own medicine. He would have allowed the bidder to yank his ailing wisdom tooth—for charity.

He was saved from the ordeal—the result of a rash Christmas promise—when someone dusted off the old statute.

U.S. Officials Doubt Blockade Could Cripple Chinese Reds

Washington (AP)—A successful blockade of China would cut off an estimated 30 to 40 per cent of its imports, U. S. officials said today.

The bulk of these imports, however, are considered neither strategic nor essential to China's domestic economy. For that reason, these experts feel that a blockade in itself could not force Communist China to pull her troops out of Korea.

Furthermore, observers said, a blockade probably would have the effect of driving the Communist closer to Russia because they would then have to rely more heavily on overland transport to get supplies now arriving by sea.

Most Trade By Land
Communist China is believed to import about 600,000 tons of goods annually from all over the world. Roughly one-third of that is moved by sea and about two-thirds by land.

Officials said there is no indication that very many military weapons arrive by ship. Sea borne petroleum shipments are believed much smaller than those carried overland because there is a shortage of tankers available to the Reds.

Officials said Poland Ocean Lines, operating about a dozen 7,000 to 10,000-ton cargo vessels, make a trip to Red China about once every two weeks. Russia has two vessels available for such use and Czechoslovakia and Red China sometimes charter a ship to carry goods to the Chinese mainland.

Hong Kong Loop-hole
The bulk of sea-borne imports are carried by Western ships, most of which refuse to carry war-making products embargoed by the United Nations since May, 1951.

Western ships which trade with the Chinese mainland are mostly British, Greek, Pakistani and Scandinavian. U. S. vessels have been barred since December 1950, from going to Communist China.

There would be a good chance of at least one big loophole in a blockade, at British-controlled Hong Kong.

About $100,000,000 worth of goods flowed through Hong Kong into Communist China in 1952, including such items as fertilizer, machine tools, textile machinery, dye stuffs, pharmaceuticals and medicals.

Fruitcake Bandit Nabbed

New York, (AP)—Police said today they have nabbed the fruitcake bandit.

Alonzo Curry, 28, admitted he was the gunman who held up a woman in the Manhattan garment district last Dec. 26 and ran off with a brown paper package she was carrying.

Curry said he believed the package contained a large payroll. It contained a Christmas fruit cake.
