Today's Menu

Family Dinner
Split Pea Soup with Croustons
Potato-Stuffed Frankfurters
Buttered Carrots
Cole Slaw
Bread and Butter
Lemon-flavored Applesauce Beverage

Potato-Stuffed Frankfurters
Ingredients: 1 pound (3 medium - size) potatoes, ¼ cup very hot milk, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, ¼ to ½ teaspoon salt, pepper, 4 frankfurters, paprika.

Method: Boil potatoes in salted water until tender; drain and put through ricer or food mill. Beat in hot milk, butter, salt and pepper to taste. (There will be about 2 cups mashed potatoes.) Split frankfurters in two lengthwise, but do not slit through bottom. Flatten frankfurters and pile ¼ cup of mashed potato on top of each frankfurter. Run sharp three-tined fork lengthwise over potato to score; sprinkle with paprika. Place several inches from source of moderately high broiler heat; broil until hot through and lightly browned—5 to 10 minutes; watch carefully. Makes 4 servings.

Miss Chittick Is Bride-Elect

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Chittick of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Doris Laurene Chittick, to Gordon E. Allemann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Allemann of Clarksburg, Ohio.

Both young people attended Salem schools. Mr. Allemann recently completed two years in the armed services.

No date is set for the wedding.

Miss Fry, Mr. Kowitz Engaged

A surprise announcement for friends attending a party Saturday evening was that revealing the engagement of Miss Joanne Fry, daughter of Mrs. Violet Fry, to David Kowitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris J. Kowitz, Sr.

Candy hearts in paper dollies were passed to guests by Larry Zivkovich, nephew of Mr. Kowitz, and Kathleen Folk, young niece of the bride-to-be, to reveal the news.

No date is set for the wedding. Both young people are graduates of Salem schools. Miss Fry is employed by the state highway department and Mr. Kowitz is employed at the Oregon state penitentiary.

The party Saturday was given at the First Christian church by a group of friends to honor Miss Beverly Roberts, who is to be married next Friday to David Dezotell.

Legislators To Address WV League

Rep. Maurine Neuberger

Rep. Dorothy Wallace

First general meeting of the year for Salem unit of the League of Women Voters is slated for next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Baker school. Mrs. Richard Barton is arranging the program as the legislative chairman for the unit.

Two women legislators, both of whom have been Portland League members, will speak. Rep. Maurine Neuberger will discuss items on the legislative calendar of interest to the league members because of the state league platform. Rep. Dorothy Wallace will speak of items of personal interest to her in the way of youth welfare, the aged and handicapped. This is Mrs. Neuberger's second legislative session and Mrs. Wallace's first. Both women have had a wide experience serving in civic and community organizations in Portland.

Concluding the evening will be a report on a tax meeting attended in December by Mrs. E. B. Daugherty and Miss Eleanor Stephens of the local league. League members, their husbands and friends are invited to this meeting.

Patriotic Event For Star Meeting
A patriotic program arranged by Mrs. Joe Brooks was featured at the Saturday evening meeting of the Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star. The original Oregon state flag presented to Governor Walter M. Pierce in 1925 was displayed and Mrs. Pearl Cleaver related highlights of Oregon historical events. Visitors were Mrs. Harry Williamson, Milwaukie; Mrs. Virgil Greer, Medical Lake, Wash.; and Miss Loris Merritt, Woodburn.

Valentine decorations were arranged by Mrs. Melvin Kelley, Mrs. Frank North and Mrs. Henry Medinger. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Espin, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rasmussen, Mrs. John Fletcher and George Edwards.

Mrs. Phillips Is Dance Sweetheart
Mrs. Walter Phillips was chosen sweetheart of the Valentine dance given by the Junior Woman's club on Saturday evening. Mrs. Wesley Goodrich presented her with a bouquet of red roses. Special prizes were presented to Mrs. Jack Childs, Foch Symmonds and Robert Price by Mrs. Richard Lankow.

Mrs. Goodrich and Mrs. Lankow were co-chairmen for the elaborately decorated affair which attracted more than 100 couples to the Capitol room of the Senator hotel that evening.

Miss Schwabbauer Bride At Ceremony on Saturday

A pretty wedding took place in the First Congregational church Saturday evening when Miss Gloria Joan Schwabbauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Schwabbauer, was married to Henry A. Froehlich, Arcata, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Froehlich of Salem. Baskets of dark pink plum blossoms, ivy, blue irises and blue candles decorated the front of the church and there were white ribbons at the pews. The Rev. H. W. Gross read the vows at 8 o'clock. Soloist was Billie Oliver and Jean Hobson Rich played the organ.

The bridal dress was of ivory satin. It was designed with a nylon net yoke set off with a deep satin ruffle, pointed sleeves with tiny buttons, a tight bodice and a full skirt. On the skirt was inset a wide band of lace that ended in a court train. The fingertip illusion veil was arranged from a jeweled band of orange blossoms. The bride carried a semi-crescent of garnet roses and violets, white ribbons in a cascade.

Mrs. Eric Carlson was matron of honor. She wore a royal nylon net over light blue taffeta frock, made ballerina length and with a taffeta cummerbund in contrasting blue. She carried a nose of violets with garnet roses in the center.

Mrs. Herbert Hunt and Miss Myrtle Mae Robb were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were made alike, but Mrs. Hunt's was the royal nylon net over royal blue taffeta, and Miss Robb wore one with the royal blue nylon net over light blue taffeta, and the cummerbunds were in contrasting blues. Both carried nosegays of violets and garnet roses.

The flower girls, Nancy Bailey of Portland, cousin of the bride, and Sandra Klug, niece of the bridegroom, both wore frocks of royal blue nylon net over light blue taffeta, ballerina length, and carried baskets of garnet rose petals.

Roland Lee of Corvallis was best man. Ushers were James Hilborn, Donald Davis, Kenneth Miller.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schwabbauer wore a French lilac taffeta dress with embroidered fitted bodice, a tiny crown covered with lilac and purple flowers, and a corsage of yellow cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother was in gray with black accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Ralph Hensley, the bride's grandmother, was in navy blue with corsage of red roses.

The reception also was at the church. Pouring were Mrs. Warren Baker, Mrs. Fritz Levin of Lindsborg, Kans.; aunt of the bride and Miss Amanda Schwabbauer, aunt of the bride. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Clinton Standish, Mrs. Vern Robb, Mrs. Eugene Hamrich, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Raymond Warner of Independence. At the punch bowl were Mrs. E. J. Kenney of Portland and Mrs. Leslie Inglis of Vancouver, B. C. Others assisting at the reception were Miss Elaine Standish, Miss Jeannette Warner, Miss Jane Baker, Mrs. Marvin McClain, aunt of the bride; Mrs.

Marvin Hageman, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. William Brunckal, Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. Jason Ashford, Miss Mary Lou Nix of Siletz, Mrs. Robert Stevenson of Dallas, Miss Norma Gaylord of Portland, Mrs. James Sampson of Portland, Mrs. Frank Bakley, cousin of the bride, Portland, Miss Johanna Aaron, Mrs. Allison Klug, sister of the bridegroom. The bride's table was set with a light blue satin cloth. Dark blue candles were in crystal holders and nosegays of violets were at the base of the candelabras. A wreath of ivy with nosegays of violets and blue hyacinths encircled the cake.

For traveling the bride wore a gray wool suit with gray and white pill box straw hat, trimmed with a red feather; white and black accessories, a powder blue topper and corsage of red roses. Following a trip to Arizona, the couple will be at home in Arcata, Calif.

Hostess to Club
