Silverton

Silverton—Volunteer firemen were called to the Sorenson home on Steelhammer Rd., Sunday forenoon, to stand by a flue fire, with "no damage" reported.

A recently installed TV set at the fire hall for the volunteers' club room has helped to solve the problem of having continual vigil to report any emergency, explained the fire chief, Larry Carpenter.

Receiving initiation and rank-of-esquire honors by Knights of Pythias, from Silverton Wednesday night at Salem Beaver hall, were Carl Lorenzen, Stewart Leek, Lee Tanner and Glenn Jones.

Changes in the personnel of the First Silverton bank includes the transfer of Lois Hartvickson Roisen to Corvallis; June Elliott to succeed Mrs. Roisen; Howard Peterson is to be with the state banking service in Salem; and two former employees returning for local positions are Frank Wallace of Marquam, and Mrs. Peter Olson (Edna Borland), Silverton.

Charles Seivers, Silverton, husband of the late Mrs. Seivers who was fatally injured in an automobile accident, is bringing suit against a Salem woman, driver of the second car involved, asking $15,000 damages.

Entered at the Silverton hospital as an accident patient over the weekend was Mrs. Ben Kylio, Rt. 3, Canby.

John Demas, surgery patient plans to return to the family home Tuesday, to complete convalescence.

Mrs. Isaac Olson is remaining at the hospital for several days, convalescing from an appendectomy to which she submitted a week ago.

Amos Furnue of Rt. 3, Silverton, was able to return home Saturday, following convalescence from major surgery at Silverton hospital.

Mrs. Lela Malloy of Portland was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Burson of North Silverton from Wednesday through Saturday.

Mr. Burson submitted to major surgery at Silverton hospital Thursday. He is reported as improving normally.

ACORNS FROM THE Oak Rooms
WITH DEL MILNE

"Hi Del, if you do not see me in the Oak Room for a little while don't think I'm off you for life, it's just that Lenton starts Wednesday and we're going to have to forgo those big luscious charcoal barbecued steaks for awhile"

"Now wait just a minute Charlie, I'm away ahead of you, not so fast—I'm going to let you in on a secret, that is, it was a secret until now. All during Lent we are going to serve in the Oak Room, wonderful juicy barbecued Salmon . . . the good Oregon Coast kind that's as fresh as the little school boy who tried to date his teacher. And that's not all, Charlie, you will not have to eat Salmon all the time because we will also have French fried Prawns, Fish 'n' Chips, big Crab Cocktails with Seltzer wafers and I would be surprised if our chef would hesitate a minute to make up a big Crab Louie for you. So Charlie, you and all your friends just remember that during Lent or any other time the folks in the Oak Room will see to it that you get plenty to eat."
