

Couple Wed February 14 At Sublimity

The marriage of Miss Dolores Joan Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Watts of Sublimity, to Joseph T. Hallam, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Hallam, Sr., of Canby, was solemnized Saturday morning at a ceremony in St. Boniface Catholic church, the Rev. Robert O'Hara reading the 9 o'clock service. White stock, daffodils and red tulips decorated the church for the service. Miss Marilyn Minden played the organ.

The bride wore a white satin dress made with train, sweetheart neckline and a row of self-covered buttons down the back. The short veil was held in place with orange blossoms. The bride carried a mother of pearl prayer book with white orchid on top arranged with streamers. Mr. Watts gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Annette Ripp was maid of honor. She wore a blue frock and her flowers were a nosegay of pink and white carnations. Miss Dorothy Frank was bridesmaid and Miss Rita Watts, sister of the bride, junior bridesmaid. Both wore pink dresses fashioned identically to that worn by the honor attendant and their flowers were nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Delbert J. Ditter was best man. The groomsmen were Gary Ward, cousin of the bridegroom, and Richard Hartman. Ushering were Rodney Watts, brother of the bride; Richard Boedighelmer.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose pink suit with navy accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dusty rose fallie suit with pink accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white hyacinths and feathered carnations.

The reception following was in the parish hall. Mrs. J. D. Bruce cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Emma Weckensky and Mrs. Loyd Wallace. Assisting were Mrs. William Duchateau, Mrs. Delbert J. Ditter, Miss Betty Ann Hallam, Miss Mary Weckensky, Miss Christine Weckensky, Miss Kathy Hartman, Miss Mary Jean Ditter, Miss Geri Hartman, Miss Marlene Heuberger, Mrs. Cecilia Ditter, Mrs. Amelia Wolf. Blue and white were the colors for the reception decorations.

The couple will be at home in Stayton, Mr. Hallam being employed with the bank there.

Miss Kelley Is Wed To Delano Dalesky

The First Christian church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Marlene Loretta Kelley, daughter of Mrs. Wendell W. Gilbert and H. E. Kelley, to Delano Dalesky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dalesky of Albany, on Saturday night. The Rev. Dudley Strain performed the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock before a setting of pink and white snapdragons.

Miss Janice Taylor and Miss Patricia Collins, who wore pink and green net frocks, lighted the tapers. Mrs. E. O. Meola was the soloist and Mrs. J. M. Cracraft the organist.

The bridal dress was of lustrous satin fashioned with sheer yoke edged in a nylon pleated bertha with a seed pearl trim. The full skirt terminated in a sweeping train and was designed with two panels of applique down the front. The fingertip veil cascaded from a crown of seed pearls and the bride carried a heart of American Beauty roses centered with white carnations. Mr. Kelley gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Ronald Whitworth was the matron of honor and wore a sea green net ballerina gown. The bridesmaid was Miss Dorothy Kilnefelter, whose dress was of pink net with ballerina skirt. They carried nosegays of roses, hyacinths and violets.

Sam Dalesky, brother of the bridegroom stood as best man. Groomsman was Ronald Whitworth. Ushers were Norman Walkup and Fred Garcia.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit with red accessories and corsage of red carnations for the wedding. Mrs. Dalesky wore a beige suit with brown accessories. Her flowers were pink carnations.

A reception followed at the Salem Woman's club house. Mrs. Terry Clifton cut the cake and Miss Macye McKinney assisted. Mrs. Ryan Buck-out, aunt of the bride, presided at the coffee urn. Miss Dorothy Meyers presided at the punch bowl. Miss Marjorie Gundron passed the guest book. Miss Marlys Taylor took care of the gifts.

The couple have gone south to Los Angeles on a two weeks honeymoon and for traveling the bride wore a white knit dress with green accessories. After March 1, the couple will be at home in Albany.

Miss Kremer Is Bride, Feb. 14

Turner—Valentine's Day was chosen by Miss Bernice Kremer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kremer of Marion, for her marriage to Carl Wesley Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graves of Turner. The double-ring ceremony was solemnized at 9 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception church of Stayton, the Rev. M. Jonas officiating.

Baskets of pink carnations, white stock and calla lilies decorated the church. Miss Josephine Brand played the piano. Mr. Kremer gave his daughter in marriage. Her wedding dress was of satin and lace designed with a full train. Seed pearls were worked in the design on a crown holding the finger length veil in place. The bride carried a white prayer book edged with lace and topped with a white orchid.

Miss Mary Lou Kremer was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a dress of lace and tulle. The bridesmaids, Miss Patsy Graves and Mrs. Leonard Kremer, wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor only they were of aqua color. The attendants carried nosegays of red carnations. The brides' brother, Elmer (Sonny) Kremer, was the ring bearer and Jeanie Graves, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with red and beige accessories and a corsage of red carnations. Mrs. Graves chose for her son's wedding a gray suit with red accessories and a red corsage. Leonard Kremer was best man. Rexford Oakes and Clifford Gunderman were groomsmen. The ushers were uncles of the bride.

At noon, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kremer were hosts to a large family dinner. Assisting Mrs. Kremer were Mrs. Clarence Gavette, Mrs. Louis Scofield, Carol Gavette and Mary Scofield.

The reception for the newlyweds was held at the parish hall between 2 and 4 o'clock. The decoration carried out the Valentine theme.

Mrs. Minnie Etzel, grandmother and godmother of the bride, cut the cake. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Mary Sampson, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Evelyn Miotke, another aunt, poured punch. Assisting were Misses Carol Kirsch, Delores Maertz, Ostrid Severin, Rita Phillips, and Alice Graves.

For traveling, the bride wore a rose colored suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple are spending their honeymoon in Canada. When they return they will make their home in Salem where Mr. Graves is employed with the state tax department.
