

Repair Church At Butteville

Butteville — While the Aurora Presbyterian church basement was moving toward completion, some of the men of the Butteville church began work on finishing the interior of that church's basement. Under the leadership of Fred Dentel, chairman of the building committee, Will Gooding, Robert Hampel, Phil Yergen, Will Dentel, Ed Miller, Carl Peterson, Ed Harnack and Lars Nelson have been busy tacking on ceiling, tile wallboard and arranging for the new kitchen.

The nursery facilities in the Butteville church, recently organized, are being conducted under the supervision of Mrs. F. E. Weinert.

The Butteville Women's Fellowship has elected Mrs. Dan Clark as the new president. Other officers recently elected are: Mrs. Ray Yergen, vice president, Mrs. Erven Miller, secretary, and Miss Louise Austin, treasurer. Hostesses at the Feb. 13 meeting were Mrs. Sidney Graham and Mrs. Carl Peterson.

The Butteville church is now free of debt. A loan, obtained a few years ago for the new church building, has now been completely repaid.

New Congregational church officers elected in Butteville are: Mrs. Hartwell White, Sunday school superintendent; Mrs. Charles Westcott, treasurer; and three trustees, Mrs. W. O. Lindquist, Mr. Lon Stewart, and Mr. Ed Miller. In addition, Mrs. Cecil McCarty has been appointed Christian World Mission representative for the Butteville church.

The Butteville church school teachers and officers met at the home of the superintendent, Mrs. Hartwell White.
