Dorothy Thompson, noted woman journalist and lecturer, will be in Salem on the evening of Wednesday, March 4, to give a lecture on "These Crucial Times."

The program is to be at Salem high school auditorium that evening, the lecture sponsored by Salem branch of the American Association of University Women. Proceeds from the lecture will go toward the fellowship and scholarship program of AAUW.

To Speak Here — Dorothy Thompson, journalist and speaker, will be in Salem the evening of March 4 to give a lecture at Salem high school auditorium, sponsored by the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women.

Boys' School Jaycee's Topic

Woodburn — The regular meeting of the Woodburn junior chamber of commerce was held Tuesday night at the library club rooms with L. H. Hildebrandt presiding.

Speaker of the evening was John Hounsell, state senator, representing Wasco and Hood River counties. He talked on the problem of an intermediate institution for boys of the MacLaren school and the state penitentiary.

The membership drive, which has been in progress for some time, closed with a number of new members added to the roll. The report was given by Robert Sawtelle, chairman.

Vernon Eaden, sports chairman, gave a report on the basketball season which closed with four wins and two losses. On Saturday night, February 21, the Woodburn town team is scheduled to play the OCE freshmen at Monmouth in a preliminary game starting at 6:15 p.m.

Gilbert Ramage, chairman of the blood bank, reported 94 pints of blood contributed last week at the American Legion hall. Due to flu and colds the amount was below that of last year.

Announcement was made of the concert to be given by the "Cabin Boys" Negro male quartet, as a benefit for the local library sponsored by the Jaycees. The concert will be Feb. 26 at the high school gymnasium at

School Carnival Friday Evening

Arrangements for the Englewood grade school carnival, to be held at 7:30 Friday night, Feb. 20, have been completed by the Englewood P.T.A. Numerous committees have been designated to handle the various activities. The activities will include TV show, bazaar, side show, beauty parlor, merry-go-round, corn, fish pond, magician, fortune telling, spook house and cake walk.

The money realized from the carnival will be used by the P.T.A. to purchase items of equipment not furnished by the school board and to help sponsor youth organizations connected with the school, such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Brownies, 4-H and Bluebirds.

Farrell High On Timber Bid

Three tracts of salvage timber under the jurisdiction of the bureau of land management, and having an aggregate volume of 2,030,000 board feet and an appraised value of $29,804.50, were offered for sale on February 16. It was announced today by Acting Forester G. F. Horne.

A high sealed bid of $7,698.25 was submitted by Jack P. Farrell, Jr., of Foster for 265,000 board feet of wind-thrown Douglas fir appraised at $5,300. Other bids were received from Wilson's Logging and Sawmill of Sweet Home and Fred Kyriakos, also of Sweet Home.

A second tract consisting of 1,335,000 board feet of salvage timber and appraised at $14,671, after spirited bidding by E. J. Jungwirth of Lebanon and Shelton and Hutchinson of Scio, received a high bid of $30,543. The bid was submitted by Shelton and Hutchinson. The bidders also included Wimer Logging company of Albany.

A third tract consisting of 430,000 board feet of wind-thrown timber was bid in at the appraised price of $9,833.50 by Stevenson Logging company of Dallas.

The conference will discuss and recommend methods of increasing trade within Southeast Asia, with Europe and the United States.

Bomb Shelter Buried Deep Under the White House

Washington (AP) — House members revealed today that the long secret White House bomb shelter is buried three stories deep under steel and concrete and is big enough to house "maybe a hundred people."

They said it comprises several good-sized rooms, bare of furniture but equipped with first aid supplies, utilities and radon-proof air conditioner.

Some of the lawmakers who inspected the shelter after a luncheon with President Eisenhower yesterday, thought it odd that the shelter is located not under the west wing of the White House, where the president works, but near the junction of the mansion itself and the east wing, where most of the 250-odd White House employees work.

Even so, they figured it would take the president only a few seconds to race to the shelter in event of an unexpected air attack.

Once inside the shelter's bank-vault doors, they said, there won't be much question of the president's security. Rep. Albert Thomas, D-Tex., told a reporter it was built with atomic bombs in mind and was plenty

Keizer

Keizer — Members of the Keizer Grange will attend the morning service at the Keizer Community church on Sunday, February 22. After church services members of both the Grange and the church will have a pot luck dinner at the Grange hall on Chemawa road. Everyone is to bring a pot luck dish and table service for their family.

Miss Phyllis LeRud visited her parents, the Nick LeRuds at 590 Chemawa road over the week-end. Phyllis is a student at Cascade College in Portland.

Mrs. Richard Sears has been appointed head of the Red Cross drive in this district.

Roy Mogster, 605 Chemawa road left by plane Saturday night for Sioux City, Iowa, to visit an aunt, Mrs. R. L. Mogster, who is very ill.

Mrs. P. O. Payton received word from her brother Saturday of the serious illness of her father in Payette, Idaho, and left Sunday to be at his bed side.

Hazel Green

Hazel Green — The Boy Scouts of Troop 57 will hold their Blue and Gold banquet at the Brooks school gym on Friday, Feb. 20, at 6:30 p.m.

Marvin Klampe is now receiving treatment and is still in the hospital, although he is beginning to use crutches.

Glenn Looney is in the General hospital and will submit to surgery Thursday.
