

Instructor in Ballet Dance Arrives Here From Germany

New ballet instructor for the Jon-Mar Studio is Miss Ulla Flemming, who arrived here from Europe in December. She has had six years professional experience as ballerina with leading German opera companies.

Miss Flemming conducted children and professional classes in ballet in Leipzig and Munich. In addition to performing her dancing roles in numerous operas and operettas. In July, 1950, she left the Leipzig Opera, in East Germany, unable any longer to bear growing communist rule over private and professional life. She had begun dancing with the Leipzig Opera Company in 1946, after completing a difficult three-year course in the Leipzig School of Theatre Dance. In Leipzig, she danced in such operas as Aida, Tales of Hoffman, Julius Caesar, Rigoletto, The Magic Flute, and Carmen. Ballets in which she participated were Scheherazade, La Boutique Fantasque, Gajaneh, The Devil in the Village, Bolero and The White Cylinder. In Munich, for the opera season 1950-1951, she danced with the Corps de Ballet, Munich

State Operetta. During this time, Miss Flemming undertook lessons with the famous Russian-French ballet master, Victor Gsovsky. She danced solo roles in the operettas, Country of Smiles, Giuditta, Circus Princess and Wiener Blut.

Accepting a solo contract with the Frankfurt City Opera in 1951, she danced with that company until last summer, when she began preparing for her immigration to this country. In Frankfurt, she danced, sang and acted a leading role in the opera "Die Fledermaus," performed the solo dance role in "Carmen" and danced leading roles in "The Bartered Bride" and "Giuditta-Girolia."

Miss Flemming came to the United States with her husband, a former officer in the Air Force who was stationed in Germany for several years. The new instructor hopes to become an American citizen "just as soon as possible."

FU Juniors Will Assemble

Juniors of the Oregon Farmers Union will open the 43rd annual convention week of the organization with the junior meeting and banquet Saturday at the Gold Arrow cafe, Salem.

The three day convention of the state organization and insurance delegates will start Tuesday morning, February 24, at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall, Salem.

The junior meeting will start Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Miss Elizabeth Krautscheid of Washington county, state junior president, will preside. Mrs. Percy Lamb, state junior leader, is in charge of arrangements. More than 100 juniors from Willamette valley counties and Wasco county are expected for the one day session.

Mrs. Flossie Harris of Denver, a member of the National Farmers Union educational staff, will be the principal speaker at the convention session. There will be election of officers. At 8:30 the annual junior banquet will be held with Dr. Dan Poling of Oregon State college as principal speaker. A number of juniors and junior leaders are slated to receive special awards. Following the banquet, there will be a program consisting of skits and musical numbers, concluding with square dancing.

Bandit Robs Boy, 5, Of His Dollar Bill

Los Angeles (AP)—Mama sent Danny Bailey, 5, to the grocery store with a dollar bill and two quarters.

While he was doing his shopping, a bad man with a gun came in and held up the proprietor, Rand Hill. The robber took an undetermined sum from the till and on the way out saw Danny grasping the dollar bill tightly in a frightened fist. The gunman snatched that, too, and ran.

But little Danny just laughed when he told mama Thursday night: "Look, I still got the quarters. I hid 'em under the bread."

Law Students Hear Geddes

Senator Paul Geddes of Roseburg, who received his LL.B. from Willamette university in 1930, was the principal speaker during an awards luncheon early Friday afternoon for Willamette college of law students.

Dr. G. Herbert Smith, president of Willamette, presented the awards and certificates to outstanding law students and Keith Evans, Independence, past student body president of the law school, presented the gavel to Paul Dally, Longview, Wash., newly elected president.

Guests included Deans Robert D. Gregg, March O. Hatfield, and Melvin E. Geist; Dr. Robert W. Fenix, Charles Paeth and Harold B. Jory.

Ruth Elder Too Old For Husband No. 6

Los Angeles (AP)—Ruth Elder, who failed in 1927 in her attempt to fly the Atlantic, has obtained a divorce from her sixth husband, Ralph King.

"He said I was too old for him—that he wanted a young chick," she testified yesterday. "He called me a gray-haired old bag."

King did not contest the action. He is 54, Miss Elder 47.

Miss Elder's Atlantic flight ended in a forced landing in the Azores.

Junior Red Cross Teachers Will Meet

Teacher-sponsors in Junior Red Cross are to meet Saturday for a luncheon and program at 1 p.m. at the Golden Pheasant.

Mrs. Beatrice Peterson, director in Junior Red Cross for Multnomah county, will be speaker. Miss Margaret McDevitt of the Salem schools will discuss the Junior Red Cross art project and will show slides of exchange projects in the art field with other countries of the world. Mrs. Charles Richard Rogers is to sing.

Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Friday, February 20, 1953—9
