

Boots and Spurs

By CHARLEN WOODS

Friday night fun night was put on by Mrs. Marie McKinney. Burt Karr announced and 32 members rode in the games. The posse drilled, as usual, and following the show, coffee was served for them by Mr. and Mrs. Youngquist.

Monday night, after the drill of 26 called by Graham Sharkey, Wanda O'Brien served the coffee.

The drill team practiced Wednesday night. There were quite a few absent and there haven't been very many places assigned. The drill team meeting was called to order by Ervin Ward and the group discussed buying new shirts and hats. An invitation to Prineville was read and accepted. Coffee was served by Mr. and Mrs. Southwick.

Miss Laura Karr has recently purchased a chestnut horse named Sundown. Back in the saddle again after a long absence is Mrs. Earl Murray. Cecil Moller is also back after having recovered from the flu.

The Valentine dance was a success. The hall was decorated with big red hearts, cupid and arrows and valentine candy boxes. A no-host supper was served at midnight. In charge of this affair were Eileen Stangby, Ella Durkee, and Rodney Hofstetter. Two of our most active riders were married on Valentine's day in Albany. They are Miss Myrtle Christman and Don Kuhl. They are now honeymooning on the coast. A reception was held for them at the home of Lou Wilson in Albany and she was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Mike Southard.

We want all members to turn out for the big fun night tonight which is going to be put on by the calf ropers. There ought to be some new and different games and you are guaranteed to have a good time.

Light-a-Bumper Drive Goes on

The Light-a-Bumper campaign, sponsored by the Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce, will continue this week-end with Jaycees stationed at the Capitol Shopping Center parking lot to install the red Scotch-Lite tape on auto bumpers.

Additional days have been set for applying the reflecting tape for those motorists who are not able to visit the installation stations on Saturdays, committee chairmen George Dunsmoor and Dale Dorn announced.

Monday and Friday evenings, Jaycees will be available at the shopping center lot to aid the safety-conscious car owner, they said. In addition, men will man a downtown station Friday evenings, if enough manpower is available.

Despite inclement weather the past two Saturdays, about 250 drivers have already had their bumpers marked with the one-inch reflector tape, Dunsmoor added.

The Light-a-Bumper plan has received approval of automobile and law-enforcing agencies all over the nation.
