Pink Applesauce
Bread and Butter

Pink Applesauce
Ingredients: 3 pounds (11 to 13 medium-size) red apples, 1 1/2 cups water, 1/4 cup sugar, dash of salt, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg.
Method: Wash, quarter and core apples, but do not peel. Cut away any blemishes. Put in saucepan with water. Bring to a boil rapidly, cover and reduce heat to medium. Cook until apples are mushy, stirring several times — about 10 minutes. Put apples through food mill or sieve. Return to saucepan, add sugar, and stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved. Stir in salt — a generous dash so applesauce will not taste "flat" — and nutmeg. Cool at room temperature, then chill. Makes about 5 1/2 cups.

Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

Mrs. Charles Woodring, secretary to Congressman Walter Norblad, writes from Washington, D.C., it was like "old home week" one day this last week . . . Meeting for luncheon together in the Senate dining room in the capitol were Mrs. Woodring, Major General and Mrs. Thomas E. Biles, Mrs. William Hugh Adams of Salem and Miss Grace Townsend, secretary to Senator Guy Cordon of Oregon . . . Also in the dining room at the same time was Rufus Helman, former senator from Oregon . . . At a nearby table beaming at the Oregon group, Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee . . . The Bileas and Lt. Col. and Mrs. Adams were in the capitol following attending the national adjutant general's meeting in White Sulphur Springs, W.V., and were due back in Salem today . . . With her letter, Mrs. Woodring sent a stack of clippings from papers in the national capital about Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay, former Oregon governor . . . Oregon people are very happy over all the nice publicity the new interior secretary is receiving, editorials, columnists' comments and other articles all being complimentary . . .

Miss Alice Cray Brown, who attended the Portland Symphony orchestra concert in Portland Monday evening, reports the audience was wildly enthusiastic over the program given by the orchestra and Rudolf Firkušny, noted pianist who was soloist . . . The orchestra comes to Salem this Tuesday evening, Firkušny as soloist, the program to be in Salem senior high school at 8 o'clock . . . "The pianist's technique is of dazzling brilliance, his tone color exquisite," reports Miss Brown who went on to say the flexibility of the artist and orchestra was remarkable, revealing Firkušny as not only a great artist but the fact that James Sample, conductor, has remarkable control over the orchestra to produce the results of the Monday concert . . .

Announced for Thursday, April 30, is the annual silver tea given by West Salem Parent-Teacher association, the event to be at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Willard Thompson on Orchard Heights . . . Mrs. Harold Elbert is president of the PTA, Mrs. John Carr the chairman for the tea . . .

The Madrigal Singers of University of Southern California school of music have received invitation to represent the United States in European concerts this next summer . . . Miss Nevada Smedley of Salem, daughter of the H. E. Smedleys and doing graduate work at USC, is a member of the 15-voice ensemble which is directed by Dr. Charles C. Hirt, professor and head of the department of church music in the USC school of music . . . Dr. Hirt was in Salzburg last summer demonstrating American choral techniques at the Mozart festival . . . The USC singers are being asked to sing at the International Music festival in Brussels in July, then at the International Congress for Music Education in Salzburg, later at Bad Ischl in Austria . . . The French Radio Broadcasting system also has invited the singers to take part in a network program originating in Paris on July 4 . . . The only hitch so far seems to be the matter of raising $17,000 to help finance the trip for the chorus, but interested groups are doing their best to attain the goal for the ensemble to go abroad . . .

Tana Bawden, junior artist, who is appearing in piano concert in Waller hall on Williamette university campus next Monday evening, won the junior contest of the State Federation of Music Clubs in Portland recently . . . She is to represent the district at Seattle on March 8 in the class of student musicians . . . Miss Bawden comes to Salem under the auspices of the Salem Federated Music clubs next Monday evening, the proceeds from the program to go to augment the fund of the federation for the Mrs. Walter A. Denton memorial award . . . Many reviews of Miss Bawden's musicianship have been very laudatory . . . Ronald Biggs of the B.C. Musical Festival said of her program: "She has vitality and power and a sense of lyricism that has much subtlety. She is a really fine and musicianly player of great gifts." . . .
