

Conference Planned By YWCA

Plans for a regional YWCA conference to be in Portland on April 23 and 24 were discussed at a planning meeting at the Salem YWCA on Monday. Mrs. C. A. Barnes of Eugene, a member of the national YWCA board was in charge of the discussion.

YWCA representatives who were present included Mrs. E. E. DeCou, president of the Eugene YW board, and Mrs. Harold O. Schneider, president of the Salem board; executive directors, Miss Hazel Bell Withrow of Vancouver, Mrs. Mary Newcomb of Eugene and Miss Gertrude Acheson of Salem; Miss Margaret Cuenod, assistant executive director at Portland; Mrs. Blanche Proctor, Willamette university student board adviser; Mrs. Leavitt O. Wright, University of Oregon board adviser; Mrs. Allen Thompson, Vancouver board member, and Mrs. R. L. Gibbs and Mrs. L. W. Shields, Portland board members.

Astoria and Tacoma were unable to have representatives present, but they will take part at the Portland regional conference.

Classes to Start At YW This Week

YWCA classes in intermediate bridge and millinery will conduct their first meetings this Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Registration may be made by telephoning the YW (3-9187) immediately.

Intermediate bridge, Gordon method, is taught by Mrs. James Webb. Men are welcomed to this class, which is designed to improve playing technique for those who know the fundamental rules.

Millinery, taught by Miss Marie Baker, will feature remodeling of old hats as well as fashioning of new ones. An extra class meeting during the last week of March will insure completion of all Easter bonnets.

Registrations are still being accepted for the foods class, at 7:30 p.m., beginning Wednesday, March 4. Mrs. Earl Hampton will begin the series of cookery lessons with a demonstration of party foods. Other classes will feature quick breads and foreign foods.

For further information, those interested may telephone the YW (3-9187).

At Star Event

Dancing and refreshments followed the short business meeting of Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple on Saturday evening.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Burt and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Henn of Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelly and Mrs. E. Potter of Salem; Mrs. Martin C. Munson of Redondo Beach, Calif.; Mrs. George E. Stanton of Salem chapter No. 98 of Salem, Mass.; Mrs. Dorothy Ciancy of Peoria, Ill.; Mrs. Henrietta Galloway and Mrs. Lois Schleicher of St. Paul, Minn.

Decorations were in charge of Mrs. Charles Boyer, Mrs. Lottie Howe and Mrs. Sophie Mull. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Swigart, Mrs. Walter Sogge and Mrs. Robert H. Keudell served refreshments.

At Rebekah Lodge

The United Nations pilgrimage contest highlighted the meeting of Salem Rebekah lodge on Monday evening. Three contestants from Salem high school gave five-minute talks and winning the contest was Miss Kay Bergberg who will compete in the finals at a special meeting next Tuesday with winners from other lodges in this district. The district winner will be awarded a trip to the United Nations later this year.

Rebekahs working with members of the Odd Fellows lodge on this project are Mrs. Gus Erickson, Mrs. Harold Corwin, Mrs. Merritt Brown, Mrs. Belle Carter and Mrs. Frank Saunders.

Refreshments were served following the short business meeting by Mrs. Lawrence McClure, Mrs. Clifford Chaffee and Mrs. Joe Madison.

Past Presidents Meet

Silverton—Mrs. John Demas was hostess to members of the Past Presidents Parley of Leibert Reeves unit No. 7 American Legion auxiliary, Friday evening.

Preceding the social hour, Mrs. Roscoe Reeves, president, conducted a brief business session. The group decided to announce the time and nature of the annual fun program and jitney supper, at the March meeting.

The only financial obligation of the parley is the gift to their incoming past president member of her past president's pin. All other activities of the parley are under the jurisdiction of the auxiliary members.

Miss Thompson's Lecture Here Wednesday Night

Several are assisting at the lecture to be given by Dorothy Thompson, widely read columnist and journalist, on Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in Salem high school auditorium.

Miss Thompson's topic is "These Crucial Times." In this her only appearance in the northwest she will be introduced by Charles A. Sprague, former alternate delegate to the United Nations.

Miss Thompson is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority and members of the Beta Chi chapter of Willamette will serve as ushers. These will include: Miss Carol Emerson, Miss Marilyn Merz, Miss Nancy Lumjarvi, Miss Mary McLaughlin, Miss Pat Williams, Miss Joyce Foster, Miss Marie Corner, Miss Jean Kyle, Miss Judy Fullager and Miss Marjorie Leonard, president of the chapter.

Last year at this time Miss Thompson was on a tour of the middle east which included the Sudan, Lebanon, Syria, Israel, Iraq, Iran, Kuwait, Jordan and Saudi Arabia. She was received by every head of state in the countries visited except the now ex-King Farouk of Egypt. King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia almost never receives foreigners at all, even more rarely foreign women. However, Miss Thompson became the first woman journalist to have seen him. Her comments on this turbulent area alone prove authoritative and informative. The Salem lecture is sponsored by the American Association of University Women. Tickets for the lecture are on sale at Wills Music store and Stevens & Son Jewelers. They also will be sold at the door.

Soap Box Derby Boys to Get Pictures Taken Free

Hey Kids! Add to the things the Derby brings you — your picture taken free.

Yep, Bob McEwan says he will take the pictures of any and all Salem Derby entrants free of charge again this year just as he did last year. And, of course, the Capital Journal is going to run them again in the paper.

But don't rush down to McEwan's photography studio just yet. It'll be a little while yet before the studio and the Capital Journal are ready to start on that project but we wanted you to know about it ahead of time. We'll let you know when you are to drop in to get "mugged."

Another big reason to get busy on your Derby plans is more prizes being offered in the All-American Derby in Akron of Miss Gladys Adams. Mrs. Walter Taylor is chairman of the program committee in charge which includes Mrs. O. J. Adkinson, Mrs. Raymond Equall, Mrs. Leon Graham, Mrs. Clara Stange and Miss Marie Thompson.

Mrs. Adkinson, the president, will give a report on the state board meeting she attended in Salem, February 14.

PTA at Monmouth Will Study Children

Independence—The PTA of the Monmouth elementary schools will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 3, in the school auditorium. The subject to be discussed will be "What are our children doing?"

Miss Florence Beardale, director of elementary education of the state department of education, Miss Jean Spaulding, principal of the state department, and Miss Elsie Bolt, elementary superintendent of the Corvallis public schools, will speak for the education department on the panel which will be held at the meeting.

Mrs. Howard Morgan, Mrs. Keith Tow, and another member to be chosen will represent the parents.

Dr. William Wagner will be moderator, and will assist on the question, "Why and what we are doing in the public schools."

The present British Crown colony of Sarawak in Borneo was ruled from 1840 to 1946 as an independent country by "white rajahs" of the Brooke family.
