

DeShazer Film Offered Here

The Evangelical Foreign Missions conference, currently underway at the First Baptist church, will hear three speakers and view the sound motion picture film "The Life of Jake DeShazer" during Wednesday night's session. The main missionary address will be given by Rev. John Schlosser, who, until the Communist occupation of China, was superintendent of the Free Methodist mission in that country. Other speakers will be Miss Rosaline Rinker on behalf of Inter-varsity Christian Fellowship and Rev. Phil Armstrong, executive director of the Far Eastern Gospel crusade. During Wednesday afternoon

Nut Growers To Visit Plant

Filbert and walnut growers who are members of the Oregon Nut Growers, Inc. will attend a plant inspection tour of Northwest Nut Growers new packaging and shelling plant in Portland beginning Wednesday, March 4 and running through Saturday, March 7. Hours will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Northwest Nut Growers, which is the central selling organization for five grower units, began construction of the new plant early in 1952 to provide space for modern shelling and packaging facilities and to be able to reduce the number of days shipping time to eastern markets.

"Faster time to markets will mean much to grower-members of our local association in the years ahead," John E. Trunk, general manager of Northwest Nut Growers stated. "In some years with large crops and difficult harvesting conditions, it may mean the difference between marketing a small or large portion of our nut crops in the favorable holiday selling period."

The new plant is located on North Columbia Boulevard near Interstate avenue in Portland. Guided tours of packaging and shelling lines will be conducted for all grower members and their families during the four-day opening.

a forum on India was held. A near capacity crowd attended the Tuesday night session when brief missionary reports were brought by Rev. Mr. Bolin of the American leprosy mission, and Rev. John Trachsel, missionary to India under the National Holiness Missionary society.

Rev. Donald Fairley, pioneer missionary of the Christian and Missionary Alliance in Gabon, Africa, gave the main address. He related the romantic history of his discovering pygmy tribes in the jungles of Gabon. The conference, attended by more than 20 missionaries will continue throughout the week.

General Mark Clark Flies into Korea

Seoul (AP)—Gen. Mark Clark flew into Korea today for high-level talks with his field commanders, South Korean President Syngman Rhee and U. S. Ambassador Ellis O. Briggs. Clark said he would "cover the waterfront" in an inspection tour lasting several days. He plans to visit several front-line units.
