Home Rebekahs North Marion In Spelling Bee High Activities

Woodburn—The regular meeting of Home Rebekah lodge No. 58 was held Tuesday night at the IOOF hall with Mrs. Dorothy Garrett presiding.

The unwritten work of the lodge was given by Elizabeth DeHaan, Coral Gay and Laura Livesay. Mrs. Garrett expressed the thanks of the lodge to the Noble Grand club for the work done in the kitchen since the last meeting. The Past Noble Grands will put on the program at the next meeting, March 17, and serve refreshments in honor of the members who are not Noble Grands.

After the meeting, games and a spelling bee were enjoyed. Mrs. Addie Doud won the prize in the spelling bee and in games the members were divided into two sides, the red and blue, with the red side winning with Mrs. H. A. Lohse as captain. Mrs. Clara Stange was captain of the losing side.

Refreshments were served by Joanna Breuninger, Emma Weber, Mabel Sporalsky, Blanche Granner and Leota Porter.

ENVOY TO SWAP JOBS?

Tokyo, (AP)—Kyodo news agency today said Robert D. Murphy, U. S. ambassador in Japan, will leave for Washington in April to swap jobs with John M. Allison, assistant secretary of state in charge of Far Eastern affairs.

Kyodo said Allison would arrive here in May.

Hubbard—The board of education of North Marion union high school monthly meeting will be held Monday evening, March 9, at 8 p.m. at the school.

A national school assemblies program will be present Wednesday, March 11, at 9 a.m.

The Yawama League officials will hold a meeting on Wednesday evening in McMinnville. Pat Beal, principal of North Marion, is president of the group.

The Future Farmers of America annual father-son banquet will be held Thursday evening, March 12, at the school.

The Band-Parent club of North Marion high school is sponsoring a fun night and carnival at the school Friday evening, March 13. A dance, stage show, wrestling match and various games will help comprise the evening's entertainment.

Proceeds will be used for a majorette's uniform. The chorus will make and sell home-made candy and use the proceeds to start a choral robe fund.

Keith McNary, an apprentice seaman in the submarine division of the U. S. navy reserve, is on two weeks active duty at Hunter's Point, San Francisco. McNary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. McNary and a senior at North Marion Union high.
