Hopewell

Hopewell—Mrs. John Geisler, Mrs. J. D. McKenney and Mrs. George McKinley are the Red Cross solicitors for the Hopewell district this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loop called on the Guy Freshour family in Pleasantdale Sunday afternoon, and Cary Gilson of Perrydale, uncle of Mrs. Loop, was a visitor at the Loop home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Dorn and children and Mrs. Ed Nelson motored to Holley, Ore. to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Braat and family Sunday. Mrs. Nelson stayed for a longer visit with her daughter, Mrs. Braat.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McKenney and family visited her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin England and family of Albany Sunday.

Mrs. Ellen Crockett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kusti Setala, is recovering at the Setala home following minor surgery last week.

County school superintendent Lynn Gubser and the state inspector of rural schools visited the Hopewell school Thursday.

William Perry, 4-H agent for Yamhill county, was also a visitor last week.

Mrs. N. O. Pearce surprised the upper grades with two decorated birthday cakes in honor of Robert Pearce's birthday, Thursday afternoon.

The fifth grade had county tests Friday and the eighth grade visited the legislature, with Mrs. J. D. McKenney and George Fraundeneier furnishing transportation.

March 3 was test day for the seventh and eighth grades, so the fifth and sixth had vacation. Robert Pearce visited Amity high school as a guest of Dean Brown.

The Hopewell Community club meets Thursday evening, March 5, with a program and refreshments. The state fire chief will be present to continue the discussion of Hopewell joining the fire district, which was started at the last Community club meeting.

Mrs. Thelma Van Dorn is chairman of the committee to present a play April 2 at the Hopewell Community club.

The Cotton Dress Workshop of the Hopewell Home Extension unit meets Friday afternoon with Mrs. Mildred Gilkey for the final meeting, in charge of Miss Virginia Magness and Mrs. Lenna Wilson.

The Missionary society of the Hopewell EUB church will hold an open meeting at the church Tuesday evening, March 10, at 8 p.m., with Mrs. Wakeman of Amity as the guest speaker.

There will be a short business meeting for election of officers, with the report of the nominating committee, Mrs. H. E. Widmer, Mrs. Marvel Brown and Mrs. Kusti Setala.

Mrs. Ida Humble of Pomona, Calif., who has been a house guest of the Pearce family for the past four months, returned to her home on the Shasta Daylight from Salem, on March 2. On Sunday, she was honored with a potluck dinner at the Pearce home by Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce and family of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Waller and Dean Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Kindred of McMinnville. Afternoon callers were Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Widmer, Mrs. Marvel Brown and Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Timm and Mrs. Martha Nogosek of Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Rogers made a business trip to the coast Friday, and spent Friday night with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Baker of Corvallis.

Mrs. Lawrence Imlah, sister of Mrs. Ross Rogers, is now at her home in West Salem following surgery, and is recovering satisfactorily.

Charles Stephens, who was injured in a logging accident Feb. 19, is still in the General hospital in McMinnville, and recovering satisfactorily.

Stephen Reed will report for Army service in Portland March 10. He and Mrs. Reed are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Reed in Hopewell.

Mrs. R. P. Horning was called to North Bend to her daughter, Mrs. Joe Lasser, who is to undergo surgery.

Mrs. Buford Brown, who has been in the hospital for surgery, is home and is getting along very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Horning drove to Portland Sunday. They visited their son Albert and family and then went to Vancouver to visit another son, Harry and family. Before they returned home they visited their daughter, Mrs. Albert Gray and family, also of Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Andres visited at the George Rush home last Sunday evening.

Gates

Gates—Work to complete the Gates fire hall was started this week. The building was started several months ago by the Rural Fire district and left uncompleted, due to lack of funds.

An appeal was made to the city council. A deed to the property on which the building stands was secured from the owner, Mayor Floyd Volke, by the city and the contract for the erection of one story of the building given to Ray Lord.

It is planned to enlarge the hall at a later date, when a recreation hall will be added.

W. R. Hutcheson, Gates realtor, reports the sale of acreage to George Humphreys of Mill City, formerly part of the property belonging to Miss Georgia Shaine of Salem. The land is located on the Linn county side of the river, across from the high school.

The saw mill, which formerly was operated by Shields Reimne and has been closed down for the past year has been leased from the present owners and it is reported will resume operation in a short time. A crew of men has been working the past week to put the mill in running order. The name of the lessee was not obtainable.

Mrs. Martha Bowes was surprised last Thursday afternoon when a group of her neighbors gathered at her home to compliment her on her birthday anniversary. The ladies brought a birthday cake and each presented Mrs. Bowes with a handkerchief.

Those attending were Mrs. Merle Devine, Mrs. Mary Eggestrom, Mrs. Charles Rush, Mrs. Burrell Cole, Mrs. Clarence Rush and Mrs. Glen Henness.

The Gates Girl Scouts, troop 52, are selling cookies to raise funds for some of their projects. They hope to sell six cases before March 8.

A large crowd attended the opening at the Pedee store Friday evening. The grand prize, a waffle iron and griddle, was won by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rhodes; the electric clock by Mrs. S. C. Singler.

Mrs. C. L. Burbank and Mrs. W. T. Turner received word that their cousin, Wesley Womer and wife of Topeka, Kan., were lost in the plane that went down in the Gulf of Mexico on Feb. 14. Mr. and Mrs. Womer visited here the past summer. I. D. Blankenbaker, of Monmouth is also a cousin.

Sixteen members of the Women's club and eight children met Wednesday for a no-host dinner at the club hall. Sam Yates of Salem, Mrs. Jim Price and Mrs. Harry Pinneo of Kings Valley were guests. Mrs. Pinneo showed her collection of crocheted hot dish holders and told how they were collected from nearly every state in the union.

One was from Canada and one from Australia, also a crocheted dolly from Greece.

Mrs. Amos conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Troy Turner won the attendance prize.

The county health nurse and Dr. E. B. Bosatti, county health officer of Dallas, gave immunization shots at school Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neal drove to Hood River Saturday and spent the week end with relatives.

The 4-H Needle club met at the home of their leader, Mrs. E. M. Cates. The first year girls are making needle cases, and the second year girls are making tea towels and tray clothes. Mrs. Kenneth Swingle is also a leader of this group.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ronco and small son, Braddy, and Mrs. C. L. Burbank spent Tuesday with the Albert Ronco family at Newberg.

Mrs. Maud Burbank received word of a son born to Mr. and Mrs. Vern Daniels at Toledo Friday, Feb. 27. This is her first great grandchild.

The five generations are Mrs. Burbank, Mrs. Matt Johnson, great grandmother, Newport, Mrs. Harry Lawson, grandmother, Newport; Mrs. Daniel and baby son. Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Burbank of Monmouth are great grandparents. Mrs. Daniel made her home with them since a small child.
