WU Students 'Pygmalion' to Be Repeated

People who like good entertainment, and who were not fortunate enough to see Willamette students present George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion" last night, will have two more opportunities. The play will be repeated Friday and Saturday nights at Waller hall.

Two freshmen, both of Salem, played the leads, Teddy Ruth Gordon as Eliza Doolittle the flower girl, and John Bone as Mr. Higgins the professor.

Other strong parts were played by Jim Chittick as Colonel Pickering, Kent Lawrence as Alfred Doolittle, father of Eliza, and Jean Thomas as Mrs. Higgins.

The remainder of the cast is Mrs. Pearce, played by Margaret Conklin; Mrs. Eynsford-Hill, by Lollie Coffey; Miss Eynsford-Hill, by Liz Winship; Freddy Eynsford Hill, by Dewey Hagen; the parlor maid, by Johanna Beckham; and bystanders, by Dee Miller, Bob Kaufman and Bill Hagmeyer.

Although the rhinoceros was once found in most parts of the world and had many species, it is found at present in very limited areas and only five species remain, some of which are represented by less than 100 animals, says the National Geographic Society.

Frederick Goes To California

Rev. Walter S. Frederick, pastor of Evangelistic Temple Assembly of God, Market and Park, for more than eight years, will preach his final sermons here next Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederick and son Gary will leave shortly thereafter for California where he will resume his church work. No successor has been named here. A daughter, Edith, will remain in Salem until June when she will graduate from the senior high school.

During Rev. Frederick's pastorate a new church has been built with an investment of approximately $175,000 and the congregation has been greatly enlarged.

Rev. Frederick's sermon subjects Sunday will be "This Is My Church," and "The Will of God." The motion picture "I Was a Witch Doctor," will be shown at the night service; when baptisms will also be given. New members will be received during the morning service.
