Latest dope on the local appearance of Lawrence Harvey is that the gentleman will not visit our village until March 15-16-17. So all local townfolk wishing to see Salem's Television King will again wait.

Reliving news headlines! The Big Story, KPTV at 9:00 p.m. . . bringing you America, its sound and its fury, its joy and its sorrow as faithfully reported by the men and women of the American press. The greatest ring controversy in the recent history of boxing should be settled finally on Friday, March 6, at 7:00 p.m. on KPTV, when Billy Graham clashes for the third time with Joe Giardello in the 12-round main event in Madison Square Garden.

The controversy stems from their last fight in which Giardello was awarded a split win over Graham. It was neither popular with the fans nor New York Boxing Commissioner Bob Christenberry. Christenberry made the now famous decision to change one of the judge's score at ring-side, reversing the verdict in favor of Graham.

Giardello and his managers sued. On February 17, Judge Bernard Botwin, of the New York Supreme Court, reversed the reversal.

Jo Stafford, popular singing star of KOIN Radio's Monday thru Friday "Jo Stafford Show," has been voted the nation's Number One Female Vocalist in a national disc jockey poll conducted by Billboard magazine.
