Central Howell

Central Howell — The ladies auxiliary of the Farmers Union met at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Hamner for their last meeting. Reports on the last food and bedding taken to a needy family were given and other routine business taken care of.

A no-host luncheon was served at noon to the following: Mrs. Frank Way, Mrs. Cleo Keppinger, Mrs. Henry Torveng, Mrs. George Plane, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Silas Torveng, Mrs. Frank Beutler, Mrs. Leon Flux and two children, Mrs. DeSart, Mrs. Milo Wilcox, Mrs. Hammer and her daughter, Mrs. Esther Wilson and daughter.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Frank Way, on March 20.

Felicitations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Roth on the birth of their third son, James Bryan. The older boys are Allen and Richard.

The new baby is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roth of this community and of Mrs. and Mrs. Tribbet of Dayton.

Barbara and Kay Lichty were co-hostesses to the 4-H Sewing group at their home recently.

A program was arranged by Daris Berry and Patty Scherer, Muriel Rickard, president of the group, presided during the business session.

The Central Howell Extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Alec Lichty, Tuesday for their regular meeting.

Mrs. Dan Steffen, Mrs. K. S. Arrell and Mrs. Gilbert Hauray were co-hostesses with Mrs. Lichty.

Mrs. L. T. Arrell called the meeting to order and the morning session was given over to the demonstrators, Mrs. Martin Rehm and Mrs. Clarence Simmons, Jr., who explained the uses of various herbs used for seasoning.

The several dishes prepared by them were used as part of the noon no-host luncheon.

Mrs. Arrell conducted the business meeting in the afternoon, assisted by Mrs. Roy Rutchman, secretary. Reports from the committee on the festival were given by Mrs. Earl Schar, the only member who attended the training meeting.

Appointed with her were Mrs. Dan Steffen and Mrs. Frank Way. This unit will have as their exhibit, "Gifts from Cloth."

Other business was taken up by the group. Visitors for this meeting were Mrs. Bugles, a member of the Marion County Home Extension committee, and Mrs. Lena Clark.

Present were Mrs. L. T. Arrell, Mrs. Roy Rutchman, Mrs. Earl Schar, Mrs. Alpha Schar, Mrs. Earl DeSart, Mrs. Ray Meyers, Mrs. Cleo Miller, Mrs. Harvey Lively, Mrs. Maurice Hynes, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Dan Steffen, Mrs. Gilbert Hauray, Mrs. K. S. Arrell, Mrs. Martin Rehm, Mrs. Clarence Simmons, Jr., Mrs. Grover Lichty, Mrs. Alec Lichty, and the two guests, Mrs. Ruggles and Mrs. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hynes and son, Tommy, of this community left last week for a trip to Florida. They plan to stop in California enroute to visit relatives, and then to go down into the southern states. D. L. Hynes of Portland accompanied them.

Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hig of Brooks, are staying in their home looking after things during their absence. The Higs formerly lived in the Beaverton area.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Graf of Akron, Ohio, were house guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. Will Lichty. During their visit, Mr. and Mrs. John Techantz and Charles Meyer were additional dinner guests when a family dinner was enjoyed. Mr. Techantz, Mr. Meyer and Mrs. Lichty are cousins. The Grats have been visiting in California and were on their way home.

Unionvale
Honoring Mrs. Ersel Guber of Unionvale, her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lorenzen, entertained with a family birthday dinner at their Neck district home Monday.

Other guests were her husband, Ersel Guber, Mrs. Jo Ann Guber, her son, Danny, and daughter, Rene.

E. M. Coats is remodeling his residence recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Norris Dixon and family, who moved to Amity.

Mrs. E. M. Coats is ill with a severe cold.

Mrs. Ernest Shelburne of

Woodburn

Woodburn — The spring term of the Woodburn kindergarten opened Tuesday at the Lincoln school with 35 children registered. Two classes were organized, one from 9 till 11:15 a.m., and the second from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m., Tuesdays through Fridays.

Mrs. L. H. Hildebrandt, chairman, states that a few more children who will be starting to school next fall can be taken. Mrs. T. M. Baxter is again instructor.

Rev. Luis V. Bove of Sutherland will be guest pastor at the Woodburn Methodist church for the United Evangelistic mission, March 8 to 13. This will be a part of the series of services being held in the Methodist churches in this part of Oregon. Rev. Bove has lived in Cuba where he was a member of the Cuban conference of the Methodist church.

Dr. Fred Schwartz, widely known as one of the best informed non-communists in the world on the basic communist texts, will speak at the Four-square church in Woodburn Monday, March 9, at 7:45 p.m. His topic will be "The Heart, Mind and Soul of Communism."

Dr. Schwartz is an Australian physician and surgeon and is now on his second world tour in two weeks, speaking on the dangers of communism. His Woodburn appearance will be the only one in this area and the public is invited to attend.

Lafayette
Lafayette—Mrs. Ken Beasley and two sons, Billy and Eldon, left for California last week to meet Mr. Beasley, who has been sent home from the Far East. He has served in the armed forces for the last 18 months.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ames that their son, Oakes Kay Ames, RDSN, has undergone major surgery in a naval hospital in Japan. He will remain in the hospital for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Terry have moved into the Raines residence in Lafayette.

Royce Clemmens returned home from the hospital where he was confined with pneumonia, but has not been well enough to return to school.

Influenza has hit the Lafayette school. Two of the teachers have been sick this week. They are Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Cate. Mr. Ames was confined to his home with it last week.

Reza Sharp has been home for some time, called here from Army duty in Korea by the serious illness of his father.

Pleasantdale
Miss Esther Nichols is at home after spending about 3 months in California, at San Francisco, San Diego and Lindsay, visiting her brother, Ambrose R. Nichols, and his children, Ambrose Jr., Ward and Louise, and their respective families. Ambrose Jr. is affiliated with the school system in San Diego, and Ward has a like position in San Francisco. Mrs. Guy Freshour has as recent callers Mrs. Art Pearson and Mrs. Floyd Lyman of Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bus Hadley and children went to Hillsboro Sunday and had dinner with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hadley.

Mr. and Mrs. Bus Hadley entertained Monday evening, March 2, with a dinner honoring his father, R. G. Hadley on his birthday. A birthday cake centered the table decorated with pink and yellow spring flowers. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hadley, Kenneth Hadley and his children, Kenny and Sandra, all of McMinnville; Rev. and Mrs. Harry Ryan of Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Nichols and Miss Esther Nichols went to Portland Sunday to visit Mrs. Nichols father, William Moerke, in the General hospital there, following an accident. Also visiting Mr. Moerke were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rutchman, who later called on her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Coats.

Driving to Seaside Sunday for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McFarlane and Betty of Pleasantdale and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Carlson and Debbie, of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Freshour had as Sunday afternoon callers, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loop, of Hopedale.

Calling on Mr. and Mrs. Merle Reichstein Sunday afternoon were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Senn, Kenny and Gregory, of Millwaukie.

Mrs. Fred Reichstein is improving after being quite ill for several days.

Independence
Independence — A special service for reception of members in the First Baptist church was held Wednesday evening at the time of the mid-week church night.

At that time Pastor Paul E. Boomer presented a class of more than a dozen who were to be received on confession of faith and baptism.

A service of Christian Baptism will be conducted on the coming Sunday evening during the regular evening meeting.

The Independence-Monmouth Methodist church is announcing that at the regular morning worship service, nursery facilities will be provided as usual for children through the age of nine years. At 9:45 a.m. the

Detroit

Detroit — Revealed to a large audience at Detroit school Tuesday evening was the mysterious "aebennette" promised in "Dr. Quack's Medicine Show."

Seven eighth grade boys in black-face composed the "aebennette" to sing, dance and joke with other students of the class through an hour of comedy in colorful costumes.

"Dr. Quack" played by Michael Moore was assisted by Donald Watkins in presenting the show talent.

Students taking part included Brad Humphrey, Leonard Snyder, Michael Howland, Larry Vickers, Bruce Gordon, Roger Fleming, Danny Bowers, Danny Gescher, Donald Jackson, Gene Ruddy and John Wall.

The church school is in session for all ages.

At 3 p.m., there will be the commissioning of visitation team members.

At 5:30 p.m. there will be a Wesley Foundation supper meeting.

At the 7:30 p.m. evening worship service, Rev. Kenneth Peterson will preach. These services begin the United Evangelistic mission which combines lay visitation with evening preaching services.

Services will be held Sunday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evening at 7:30 in the sanctuary, with Rev. Peterson preaching.

ACORNS FROM THE Oak Rooms
WITH DEL MILNE
Have you ever noticed how some people's voice is soft and hardly discernible while others are audible for three blocks, or almost anywhere. Brother I'm all for the latter. There was one of those ladies on the lobby phone yesterday and was doing a swell job for the Oak Room.

"Hi Pannie, did you enjoy that swell dinner in the Oak Room last night? Sure I know, well Harry ordered a big 14 ounce steak but realized he's a man—why sure he can eat a lot but you are smart Pannie. Wish I'd ordered an 8 or 10 ounce tenderloin. It was just your size and only $2.00. Sure, that's what I say—but why buy more than you can eat. Yes, but you're not a man, not all you go to Europe anyway. Next time I'm going to try one of those Prime Rib sandwiches they make with about half a loaf of French bread—'em just crazy about French bread," etc., etc., etc.
