Legion Groups Meet at Dallas

Dallas—The American Legion and auxiliary held their joint no host dinner Thursday to commemorate the March birthday of the legion. A large birthday cake was presented for the celebration. Hostesses for the event included: Mrs. Del Reinecker, Mrs. A. J. Kracher, Mrs. Marilyn Burbach, and Mrs. Delbert Hunter.

Following the dinner the legion members retired to adjoining rooms for their business meeting and the auxiliary proceeded with their initiation of new members. Initiated were: Mrs. Tom New and Mrs. Wendell Bunnell.

During the business meeting a report was given by Elmer Meaker who is in charge of the hospital equipment which is available to the community for loan.

The organization voted to make contributions to Red Cross and the Heart Fund and to cooperate with the Blood Recruitment Committee.

The group also voted to send two girls to the Girls State outing.

Plans were made for prizes to be given at the annual essay and Pappy Poster contests which will be under way in the schools soon. It was announced that the Key to Peace books had arrived and were being placed in the high school library.

The members of the auxiliary are at present knitting sweaters to be sent to Korea, and have been asked to participate in the cancer program in this area by stuffing envelopes which will soon be going out.

Plans were also made for the style show in which the members participate, some time in May. Costumes for the show are supplied by J. C. Penney company and Crider's Department store. Hair styling is done by a local hair stylist.

Next meeting of the auxiliary will be on April 2. The annual crab feed will be held at the home of Mrs. Betty Card on April 16.

Sheridan

Sheridan — Mr. and Mrs. Sarty Vogelvang of Riverton, Wyoming, are visiting with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Al Braske.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moore and Alan left this week for a vacation in Texas.

Jimmy Kilmer celebrated his birthday this week with a dinner given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Kilmer. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Black of Dallas, Virginia and Vicky Black and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whitney.

Lt. and Mrs. B. J. Miller and sons have moved from Sheridan to San Diego, Calif., where Lt. Miller has been stationed in the navy. The local dentist was recently called back to military duty.

Robert L. Brown has resigned as principal of Chapman grade school, to become effective at the end of the current term.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Kiese celebrated their son Jerry's birthday this week with a dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Rogers and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Severns and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurin McKinley have returned home from a three weeks vacation trip which took them to Detroit, Mich., Florida, along the gulf states to California, where they visited at Los Alamitos.

J. H. Williams of Westhope, N. D., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wade.

Guy Bradley, well known Sheridan man and a former mayor, suffered a heart attack this week. After spending several days in a McMinnville hospital, he is now recovering at home.

Local ground observation corps officials announced last week that in the future, local citizens will not be needed to man the observation post at Chapman grade school. Luther Hyde, announced that planes will be reported by Taylor Lumber sales on a 24-hour basis.

Kenneth Frack of Sheridan appeared with OSC symphony orchestra on March 3 for its annual home concert. Frack is a sophomore in pharmacy and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frack of Sheridan. He plays the tenor saxophone.

Discussion Group Will Meet Monday

Independence — The next meeting of the elementary PTA discussion group will be held Monday, March 9, at 8 p. m. in the elementary school. There will be a continuation of the discussion held on Feb. 9, at which time the talk centered on graduation and the problems of the adolescent age.

Miss Jessie Blackburn, girls' adviser of the Central high school, will lead the discussion.

Donald

Donald—Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wilson were callers in the Lin Cromwell home last week. Wilson was recently inducted into the service and is now stationed at Ft. Lewis, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Lin Cromwell entertained Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Emier of Portland Sunday afternoon and evening. Mr. Emier used to work for Mr. Cromwell some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Knisley were in Donald last week to get the balance of their furnishings. They are now living in Goldendale, Wash.

Grant Erb, Alvin Peterson and Victor Madison are building a new brick garage for Lin Cromwell in Donald. The brick building is being put up immediately behind the present building.

Cheryl Lytle, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Lytle, fell in front of the post office last Friday and cracked the bone in her right arm.

Mrs. Ben Kauffman reports that her son, Maurice, who is in an iron lung in Providence hospital in Portland, is slowly improving, but has a long way to go yet.

Gordon Hagan, grandson of Al Feller, was a Donald visitor over the week end, visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herlin, and daughter Nancy of Astoria, spent the week end with Mrs. Herlin's father, John Pelt. They brought some salted salmon for Mr. Pelt, but friends don't know whether John got any of it or not, as the fish disappeared temporarily.

Buz Yergen has returned to his duties in the navy. He was given 30 days additional leave when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyell Yergen were in an automobile accident New Year's day. His mother is home from the hospital now and is slowly improving, after having spent over a month in the hospital in Portland.

Recently members of the upper grades of the Donald school and some of the freshmen from North Marion Union High School had a skating party at Newberg. Those driving or taking cars were Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. John Orvold, Mrs. C. A. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Scroggins, Mrs. Tom Huffman and Miss Mamie Vincent.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Hendricks spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday with his brother, E. G. Hendricks of Redmond. Mr. Hendricks has just recently purchased a ranch at Redmond.

Mrs. Warren Feller is chairman of the Red Cross Drive for the Donald school district. She is being assisted by Mrs. W. H. Kruse who is covering the town of Donald, and Mrs. Sid Hendricks is covering the community around Donald.

Delbert Haener was confined to his home last week with the flu and was under the doctor's care. However, he is able to be up and about now.

Sodality Group Plans Activities

Mt. Angel—At the meeting of the Young People's Sodality held Tuesday evening, members were asked to correspond with boys and girls in the service, who are active members of the Sodality. Addresses may be obtained from the officers. Guest speaker at the meeting was the Rev. Clement Frank, O.S.B., sodality moderator.

Sodality members voted to sponsor the free showing of a religious film to which the public will be invited, once every three months, to be shown in the school auditorium following the Sunday evening holy hour service in church.

Thomas Schwab read a section of the sodality constitution, and Beth Reiter was named to read at the next meeting. Committee chairman reporting included Anita Wilde, social committee, Patricia and Lenora Platz, dance committee. Members voted to give a cash donation to the Red Cross.

During the social hour which followed, the film, "The Babe Ruth Story" was shown.

Varied Program Silverton PTA

Silverton—A varied program was presented Thursday during the monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher association. Mr. S. Wilbert Peron, publications chairman, suggested "International Night" for the general theme.

Mrs. Ralph Schmidt, president, was in charge. The Rev. Douglas Harrell gave the invocation. The flag was presented by Troop 103, Girl Scouts, troop leaders, Mrs. Allen Brown and Mrs. Jonas Byberg, directing.

Miss Hannah Olson, faculty member of the Eugene Field grades, arranged and announced the program.

Ms. Ursula Glaiser, a hospitality scholarship student at Willamette university, told of her life in Austria as a member of the family of a Methodist minister, making their home in the town of Linx.

Giving talks on Chemawa school life were Rebecca Vieille from Northern Idaho, and Barbara Davis, Navajo, from Northern California.

Egan Finger, displaced local resident, and Mrs. George Park, both from Germany, gave short talks of their native land as it is now.

Judge Alf O. Nelson, gave an account of "close to the people and their home life" in the numerous countries of Europe through which he and Mrs. Nelson made a recent educational tour.

Supplemental vocal music was furnished by the PTA Mother Singers directed by Miss Geraldine French, Mrs. John Dennison, as accompanist.

With Mrs. Lloyd Taylor as hospitality chairman, the fifth grade mothers were social hour hostesses.

Methodists Move To New Building

Sheridan — The Methodist church will have a brief deconsecration service of the old sanctuary following the morning service on March 15. After this, the congregation will move as a body into the new building, where the benediction will be pronounced. The new building has been under construction over a year.

March 22 will be the first service in the new sanctuary. There will be baptisms, both adult and babies, at the morning service. On March 29 at 11 a.m., Dr. George Roseberry, district superintendent, will be guest preacher. April 5 is Easter, and on April 12 in the evening, the Linfield college chorus will present a concert at the church.

During the past two years 64 new members have been received into the church.

General Extension Classes, Willamina

Willamina — State-wide classes of the general extension division, state system of higher education, are now being planned for the spring term. Foundations of Physical Science will begin March 9 with the third term of work in the course. The class will be held at the Willamina grade school, beginning at 7 p.m. The course provides three hours of lower division approved college credit. Anyone interested may enroll.

Present day importance of such sciences as astronomy, chemistry, geology, meteorology and physics will be traced through their developments from earliest historical beginnings by Dr. R. G. Bailey, Linfield college, who will instruct the class.

Circle B Honors Mrs. John Cerny

Dallas—Circle B of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. John Cerny Wednesday. The feature of the afternoon was a handkerchief shower given for Mrs. Verne Smith, a long time member of the group, who has sold her home in this community and is planning to move to Fort Stevens to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. William Owens.

During the afternoon the members made plans for a rummage sale. Mrs. John Cerny was in charge of the devotions.

Guests for the afternoon were Mesdames Doris Coade, Charles Zemanek, Agnes Tharp.

Members present besides the guests and hostess were Mes-

Power Utility Asks Franchise

Lebanon — The city council this week received application from the Mountain States Power company for a telephone franchise, asked for in the name of the Linn County Telephone company which was recently purchased by the power company. The franchise would be for ten years.

First and second readings of the ordinance were approved with final reading held up until April 7, as the city charter provides for advertising of the franchise at least twice before it can be granted.

Under its provisions the city would collect two per cent of the gross local exchange re-
