

The Dalles with 24-0 Mark Leads Oregon Hoop Poll

(By The Associated Press) Undelected, The Dalles, with 24 victories, continues to top the Associated Press Oregon high school basketball poll this week.

But Marshfield, which has been second to The Dalles since the poll started, picked up two first-place votes and narrowed the margin. The Dalles got eight first-place votes.

Medford was third choice of the sportswriters and sportscasters who vote in the poll. Eugene, tied with Medford last week, dropped to fifth.

Hillsboro retained No. 5 spot, while Cleveland, the new Portland league champion, replaced Jefferson of Portland in sixth position.

Gresham jumped from No. 8 to No. 7, replacing Redmond, which dropped from the top 10. Albany rose from 10th to No. 8, while Jefferson slumped to ninth.

Clatskanie and Salem, which tied for tenth, made their first appearance in the top group.

The poll is next to the last one before the state tournament at Eugene March 17-21.

The Dalles, Marshfield, Medford, Hillsboro, Salem, Cleveland and Clatskanie all have won places in the tournament.

The others in the top group are favored to win tourney berths.

The poll, with season record for each team:

1. The Dalles (24-0)	106
2. Marshfield (23-2)	77
3. Medford (21-3)	77
4. Eugene (19-5)	69
5. Hillsboro (18-6)	68
6. Cleveland (16-8)	44
7. Gresham (15-4)	44
8. Albany (13-5)	34
9. Jefferson (14-8)	34
10. Clatskanie (12-3)	34
11. Salem (14-11)	25

Others: Ontario 12, Astoria 8, Milwaukie 8, Roseburg 7, Clifton 6, Astoria and Lakeview 5 each, Dallas and Redmond 3 each.

Idaho State, Seattle Play For Right to Enter NCAA

Seattle (AP) — Either Idaho State or Seattle university comes to the end of the season's basketball trail Tuesday night, while the winner gets a chance at further glory in the NCAA western regionals at Corvallis, Ore., this week-end.

But the glory road may be short, because the survivor faces the tough job of getting by the Pacific Coast Conference champions from Washington in the opening night of the Corvallis playoffs Friday.

Even the thought, though, is raw meat for the hungry Chiefs, who've been beating in vain for years on the Washington door in an effort to arrange a game.

Idaho State and Coach Steve

Belko, meanwhile, kept tight-lipped silence and weren't conceding anything to the favored Chiefs and their one-two punch of All-America Johnny O'Brien and his twin brother, Eddie.

The Bengals from Pocatello, Idaho, winners of the Rocky Mountain Conference, have a young starting lineup of three sophomores and two juniors, led by 6-foot Les Roh and his 16.5 game average. By contrast, the Chiefs' Johnny-O, the nation's leading major college scorer, has averaged 28.24 for the season.

Seattle has a 27-3 season's record, Idaho State 18-5.

Olympic Downs PST in Junior College Finals

Bremerton, Wash. (AP)—Olympic of Bremerton led all the way Monday night in defeating Portland State, 71-63, for the Region 3 junior college basketball championship.

Ken Fuhrer was high for the winners with 28 points and was named the region's most valuable player. Jim McLean led Portland State with 20.

Olympic, as regional winner, would have been eligible for the National Jaycee championships at Hutchinson, Kan., except for a rule adopted this season by the Washington J. C. Conference barring post-season games.

Portland State said it might make the Hutchinson trip if finances could be arranged.

Lyons Town Team Ends Season With 114-103 Victory

Lyons—The Lyons town team ended its basketball season last week with a 114-103 victory over Western Veneer of Lebanon in an overtime.

The score at the end of the third quarter favored the Lebanon club 71-64. Lyons scored 31 points in the fourth period to tie the score at 95-95 at the end of regular playing time. Lyons scored 19 points in the five-minute overtime.

Top scorer for the season for the Lyons team was Don Carey, who had 383 points, averaging 22.9 per game. He had 33 against Lebanon. Ollie Muise led Lyons' win with 40.

Hillsboro Earns Way to Tourney; Play Viks Wed.

(By The Associated Press) Two more teams won entry Monday into the state high school basketball tournament at Eugene, March 17-21. They will play each other in opening-round play Wednesday.

Hillsboro, No. 5 in the Associated Press poll, won the District 9 championship by defeating Beaverton 55-40. Salem, tied with Clatskanie for the No. 10 spot, won the District 11 title by smothering Stayton 57-37.

That leaves only four more tournament vacancies and they are to be filled this week.

Three titles are to be decided Tuesday night when Milwaukie and Molalla meet for the District 12 berth, Central Catholic and Sandy clash for the District 13 title, and Roosevelt and Jefferson of Portland clash for the District 16 championship.

Oakridge and Eugene will play Wednesday night and if Eugene wins it will complete the lineup with the District 6 title.

The district champions to date include: District 1, Ontario; 2, The Dalles; 3, Lakeview; 4, Medford; 5, Marshfield; 7, Albany; 8, Dallas; 9, Hillsboro; 10, Astoria; 11, Salem; 14, Clatskanie; 15, Cleveland.
