LDS Church for Woodburn Soon

Woodburn — A ground-breaking ceremony was held recently and work will begin soon on the erection of a $55,000 building of the Woodburn Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints, on Bryan St.

The new church will be "L" shape and will face east on Bryan St. in the Johnson addition. A 50 by 28-foot chapel will run east and west with a 45 by 28-foot recreation room and the kitchen at the rear. Running to the north will be a 38 by 31-foot wing for classrooms. A full basement will be under the classroom wing.

The building will be one story, constructed of brick-colored "brickcrete" and will have a steeple. A 65 by 114-foot parking lot is planned south of the building.

Participating in the ground-breaking ceremony were T. L. Workman, branch president and his assistant, Ralph DuRette, Ben Workman, district president, and his assistants, Don Iverson and Sam Smith.

The basement for the church has already been dug and it is hoped to have all but the finishing-work completed before next winter. A considerable amount of volunteer labor will be used in the work. The church now has temporary quarters in the old Belle Passi school building.
