

Fellowship to Miss Hollenbeck

Miss Irene Hollenbeck, biology teacher at Salem high school, has been selected for the Ford Foundation fellowship which will give her a full year of travel and study.

The fellowship pays the equivalent of the teacher's salary, and in addition the expense of travel and tuition.

Miss Amanda Anderson, teacher of speech, was chosen alternate.

A local committee selected Miss Hollenbeck, mainly on the basis of her own plans for a year of work. The Foundation requires that the year of work apply to extending the liberal education rather than to specialization.

Miss Hollenbeck's plans include: Observing sugaring time in Vermont; shrimp fleet operations in New Orleans; attendance at University of Michigan's summer science camp at Lake Douglas; visit to industrial laboratories in the east; the Jackson laboratory for cancer and genetics research in Maine; Yale radiocarbon laboratory; visit to United Nations; visits to International House in New York; study of plant life in Puerto Rico.

In the Middle Ages and early modern times, storms caused several floods in the Netherlands, each of which took some 100,000 lives.

Photographs Bomb Just Before It Kills Him

Tokyo (AP)—A young navy cameraman captured on film the last seconds of a wild bomb which skidded toward him down a carrier flight deck. Then he was killed as the bomb exploded.

The navy released the story today. Hot fragments and flames killed another man and wounded 15 more when the bomb blew up on the deck of the fast U.S. carrier Oriskany off Korea's east coast last Friday.

The navy said six of the wounded still are in serious definite improvement.
