ACORNS FROM THE Oak Rooms WITH DEL MILNE

"Sure, Marge, The Oak Room is the place to go for dinner. Just lots of Lenten dishes and gads the 'atmosphere.' Broiled Oregon fresh-caught salmon with some kind of special sauce their chef uses that makes it just yum-yum. Mary had French-fried prawns and Jack had a crab louie that had more crab than lettuce, if you can imagine that in this town. Well, what of it, they still have their barbecued steaks and she can eat steak 'til the cows come home. Sure, she can have the big T-bone or an 8-ounce butterflied tenderloin and we can have our fish. Oh, sure, we can have more fun—there's just something about the Oak Room that adds immeasurably to the dinner."
