

Chamberlain-Shepard Wedding Here on Tuesday

Miss Leona Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shepard, and David Lee Chamberlain, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Chamberlain, exchanged their marriage vows at a ceremony in the First Christian church, Tuesday evening. The Rev. Dudley Strain read the service at 7:30 o'clock. White carnations and snapdragons and candles decorated the church for the service.

Vern Esch was soloist, Mrs. J. M. Cracraft playing the organ. Misses Norma Canfield and Donna Pearson lighted the candles, both wearing ankle length orchid net frocks.

In White Satin
Mr. Shepard gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white slipper satin wedding dress, seed pearls outlining the sweetheart neckline and the dress designed with long sleeves and train. The fingertip length veil of net was arranged from a brimmed cap. The bride carried a Prayer book with a white orchid on it.

Miss Helen Shepard was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a light pink net frock with halter top and worn with net stole. Her flowers were orchid carnations.

Mrs. Ellis Sanders, sister of the bridegroom and Mrs. Orville Hern were bridesmaids. They wore orchid net dresses styled identically to that of the honor attendant and their flowers were pale pink carnations. Cheryl Weisner was flower girl. She wore a white organdy and lace frock and carried a basket of deep pink carnations.

Lawrence Chamberlain was best man for his brother. Ushering were Alton L. Chamberlain, another brother of the bridegroom; Donald Jones, Gerald McReal, Wade Carter and Delwyn Kleen.

At Reception
For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a gray ensemble with pink accessories and pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a light gray and rose ensemble with white accessories and corsage of white carnations.

The reception following was in the church parlors. The decorations were in white, snapdragons and carnations arranged in a bouquet with candles. White Looms encircled the bride's cake. Mrs. Nels Nelson and Mrs. Tom Wolgast cut the cake. Mrs. Fred Blum and Miss Lena Blum poured. Miss Gwen Fry, Miss Betty Smith, Miss Greta Ann Schreengast, Miss LaVerne Shepard, Mrs. Delwyn Kleen, Miss Shirley Karsten assisted.

For traveling the bride wore a champagne silk suit with navy and pink accessories, pink coat and corsage of white orchids.

Following a trip to California the couple will be at home in Salem.

Wed in February — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wesley Graves (Bernice Kremer) were married on Valentine's day. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kremer of Marion and Mr. Graves is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graves of Turner. (McEwan studio picture.)

German Student Guest at CDA

Mt. Angel — Miss Ingeborg Spies of Weese, Germany, a high school senior exchange student studying at Mount Angel academy, was the speaker at the Catholic Daughters of America meeting Monday evening.

She gave an interesting talk on education and schools in Germany and described phases of her trip. Miss Spies, who came here last July, is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Hammer during her year's stay here.

The court will again participate in the Girls State program, and members voted to sponsor a Mount Angel academy junior to attend this year's session.

The grand regent, Mrs. Steven Sprauer, and Mrs. Louis A. LeDoux were elected as delegates to the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women convention at Marylhurst college in Portland, March 14 and 15. A large group from here plan to attend the sessions. Mrs. Edward A. Hammer was introduced as the newly elected vice president of the Oregon City deanery, A.C.C.W.

The program and dates were announced for the 14th biennial state conference of the Oregon courts, CDofA, to be April 25 and 26 at Astoria. The state court and the host court Columbia No. 151, Astoria, will arrange the program.

Members are making contributions for the erection of a large Blessed Virgin statue to be erected on the grounds of the St. Mary's Boys home at Beaverton, a gift from the Oregon Catholic Daughters.

Miss Patricia Connell, poetry contest chairman, reported that a great deal of interest is being taken in the contest by the students of the local grade and high schools. The contest closes March 15, and winners in the local contest will be present at the April court meeting to read their winning entries and to receive their awards.

Mrs. Victor Hoffer, chairman of the annual library book tea at the Mount Angel Library February 17, reported on the success of the tea.

Mrs. Al Lulay, president of the Mount Angel Community Chest, told of a tour being conducted on Tuesday to visit places and institutions receiving support from the Chest.

Mrs. Alois Keber, war relief, Mrs. Val Eberle, sick committee, and Mrs. Edward A. Hammer, parent and family conference committee, gave reports at the meeting.

The court voted a donation to the Red Cross drive. Mrs. Vincent Smith, Junior CDofA chairman, gave a report on the work of the Juniors during the past month. On March 1, the Juniors held their first initiation ceremony, when 12 new members were received into the organization, with the
