

Swegle PTA Prepares for Benefit Carnival March 13

East Salem—The first major benefit project sponsored by the members of Swegle Parent Teachers association this year has been planned for Friday night, March 13, in the auditorium of the schoolhouse.

It is to be a "Spring Festival," carnival type, with the public invited. Mrs. Alldon Sockwell is general chairman.

There will be a large number of awards and all concessions of this type program, including foods will make up the evening program.

A special assembly was given at Swegle school Friday afternoon by members of the second grade and their teacher, Miss Alice Trowsky.

The announcer was Gary Lee Bivans. Program opened with rhythm band numbers. The numbers were a poem by Dean Graham; a play, "Patsy and a Birthday," with Sharon Fisher, Linda Bates, Lynn De Lapp, and Mrs. Good the storekeeper, who was Judy Jones taking parts; a poem by Jimmy Scott, a song by Lynn De Lapp, Shirley Se Rine, Ruth Masters, Sharon Fisher, Connie Otjen, Larry Weigart, Michael England, Bobby Wright, Curtis Smith, Jimmie Scott and Nell Gilman who acted as the teacher.

A dance was presented by Linda Bates, Douglas Hoiler, Sharon Fisher and Dick Nopp. Ruth Masters, Larry Nash, Shirley Se Rine, Stanley Se Rine, Stanley Gilman, Mary Ellen Olson and Curtis Smith.

A song, Larry Weigart, Michael England and Mike Stark, Lynn De Lapp, Judy Jones, Larry Nash and Nell Gilman sang. A poem by Tommy Branter and a carousel dance closed the program.

Connie Otjen reported on how this grade had used the money awarded to them by PTA for attendance was used.

Announcers for the Swegle school broadcast last week were Johnny Jones, Kathie Lee Gardner, Judy Jones, Benny Jones, Pamela Jipp, Billy Lock, Monte Perry.

The only new officers announced were for the third grade; president, Roger Focht; vice-president, Ronald Tipton; secretary, Diane La Due and treasurer, Robin May.

The sixth grade reported their special project as the making of posters for the spring festival.

New equipment for the sixth grade, which brings the room up to modern standards, are a sink and water fountain.

Swegle Community Builders held their regular March business meeting Monday night in the home of Mrs. Verle Klampe on Weathers road.

Attending were Mrs. Conrad Hofsted, Mrs. R. Jipp, Mrs. Fred Smalley, Mrs. John Zwempke, Mrs. Melvin La Due, Mrs. Richard Highberger, Mrs. George Shull, Mrs. Theodore Stark, Mrs. Hed Blackburn, Mrs. E. F. Rowland, Mrs. Arthur Masters, and the hostess. Only general business was considered.

Adlai Visits Wounded In Tokyo Hospital

Tokyo (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson conferred at length with Gen. Mark Clark Wednesday and received a top-level briefing on the Korean War.

The unsuccessful U. S. presidential candidate spent much of the afternoon at Tokyo Army hospital talking with war wounded a dother casualties, some of them from his home state of Illinois.

The former Illinois governor also was introduced to soldiers from Kentucky. An Army officer explained that hospital authorities mistakenly thought Stevenson originally came from Kentucky.

He arrived Tuesday for his first visit to the Orient and will leave Saturday for a five-day tour of Korea.

Queen Honors Lad of 16 For Bravery

London (AP)—A timid, slight lad of 16 led a glittering line of admirals, generals and air officers who passed before Queen Elizabeth II Tuesday at an investiture in Buckingham Palace.

Jack Bamford, an apprentice miner from Giltbrook, received from the Queen's hand the George Cross — Britain's highest civilian decoration for bravery. He is the youngest person ever to win the award.

He was honored for rescuing his two brothers, Brian, 6, and Roy, 4, from their blazing home last October. All of the burns Jack received then have not completely healed.

The Queen also decorated 50 officers and men for gallantry in Malaya and Korea.

Couple Sentenced for Kansas Bank Robbery
