Campus Awaits Freshman Glee; Dances Are Slated

By BARBARA JACKSON
Capital Journal Correspondent

Freshman Glee began officially on the Willamette campus during Tuesday convocation when Dave Weeks of Salem issued the challenge of the freshman class to the other classes. Vaughn Blankenship of Riverside, Calif., freshman class manager, introduced the classes, who sang last year's Glee songs. The seniors entered the gymnasium carrying a rowboat and dressed in slickers and raincoats carrying umbrellas. For the past two years this class has taken fourth place and has to swim the Mill stream as a result.

Accepting the challenge of the freshman for the senior class was George Buland of Palo Alto, Calif. Gay Weeks of Salem, accepting for the junior class, stated that his class, who has won for two consecutive years, would "win again this year." The challenge of freshman Glee was received for the sophomore class by Bob Alfred of Portland.

Songs for the event have been written and submitted by all classes. The music and words for the songs must be original, and they will be presented in the annual freshman Glee March 21.

The Associated Women Students will present a song book of Willamette Glee songs and songs of the living organizations next week. This publication will be the first of its kind since 1932. Containing 26 songs between its modernistic cover, the song book may be obtained by writing to the Associated Women Students, in care of Willamette university. Copies also will be available at Freshman Glee. Sheila Schuerman of Portland is in charge of compilation. Janet Strachan, also of Portland, is in charge of art, and Nancy Hanson of Ketchikan, Alaska, is handling publicity.

Pi Beta Phi will give its house dance Saturday night from 9 to 12 o'clock in the chapter house. The theme of the affair is "Paradise in Plaid," and the motif will be carried out in pastel decorations.

Jane Gray of Portland is in charge of the event, and Mary Campbell of Salem is arranging refreshments. Alice Girod of Salem has designed the guest book, and decorations have been handled by Jane Notson of Portland.

Betty Coed and Joe College will be chosen at the Associated Women Students' dance, to be Friday night at Baxter hall from 8:30 until 12 o'clock. Candidates nominated for Betty Coed are Maxine Brown of Bend, nominated by Phi Delta Theta; Kay Kremer of Corvallis, Sigma Chi; Pat Sundstrom of Montesano, Wash., Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Jeanne Holmes of San Carlos, Calif., Beta Theta Pi; Joyce Karn of Tillamook, Baxter hall; and Charmalee Allen of Salem, Willamette independent town students. Joe College nominees are Dick Moore of Bend, chosen by Lausanne hall; Dave Finlay of Silverton, Delta Gamma; Bob Alfred of Portland, Pi Beta Phi; Bob Miller of Vancouver, Wash.; Alpha Chi Omega; Mike Tavenner of Salem, Willamette independent town students; Jim Wood of Salem, Bishop house; and Bill Briggs of San Carlos, Calif., Chi Omega.

"Thirteenth Night" is theme of the dance, carrying out the Friday, the 13th, motif. Decorations will include murals, ladders, cracked mirrors, and other suitable superstitious objects. Gail Updike of Portland is in charge of the event.

Young Republicans will travel to the coast March 28 and 29 for their convention with the Oregon college league of Young Republicans. Bob Packwood of Portland, president of the group, has arranged for the trip.

This summer Dr. Daniel Schulze will conduct tours to Europe for the students international travel association. He will sail on the Queen Elizabeth June 17.
