Now What? John Wright (No. 12), Jefferson high school forward, has just taken a rebound off the backboard, and while flanked by two Knappa players he looks around in an effort to find a teammate to whom he may pass the ball. No. 21 for Knappa is Mike Barendse. Looking over Wright's shoulder is John Vlastelica of Knappa. Jefferson won the game 64-40, and will play in the semi-finals tonight.

All First Round Games Won by Big Margins

ECHO 58, DRAIN 42
Oregon's class B high school basketball tournament swings into its semi-final round at Willamette university tonight, with Echo, Chiloquin, Elgin and Jefferson still in contention for the state championship.

Those four teams won games in opening-round play yesterday, all of them by substantial margins. Echo thumped Drain 58-42, Chiloquin rolled over Heppner 60-46, Elgin eliminated Brownsville 56-39 and Jefferson jarred Knappa 64-40.

In semi-final games tonight, Echo meets Chiloquin at 7:30 and Elgin tangles with the host team Jefferson, at 9 o'clock. The two winners will meet at 9 p.m. Saturday to decide the state championship for schools with less than 150 enrollment.

The consolation round was to get underway at 2:30 this afternoon with a game between Drain and Heppner. Brownsville and Knappa meet at 4 o'clock in another consolation contest. One tournament record was established on opening day. Don Amson of Elgin scored nine free throws against Brownsville, bettering the old record of eight, held jointly by Larry Pryse of Prairie City (1950) and Art Weatherford of Willowa (1952).

the first period and 28-19 for Chiloquin at halftime. Heppner got back in the ball game momentarily when Bill Hughes and Sumner hit field goals at the outset of the second half, to cut Chiloquin's lead to five points, 28-23, but Chiloquin pulled ahead from there to take a 43-29 lead by the time the third period ended. The fourth quarter was a loosely-played affair, with most of the action devoted to parading up and down the floor toward the free throw lines.

ELGIN 56, BROWNSVILLE 39
Brownsville appeared to have the game in the bag at halftime. The Indians were leading 23-16, and had limited Elgin to a mere four field goals in the first half. But the tide changed quickly in the third quarter. Elgin scored 11 points to Brownsville's one to move into a 27-25 lead midway in the period. Elgin added to its lead steadily after that. It was 34-29 when the third quarter ended.

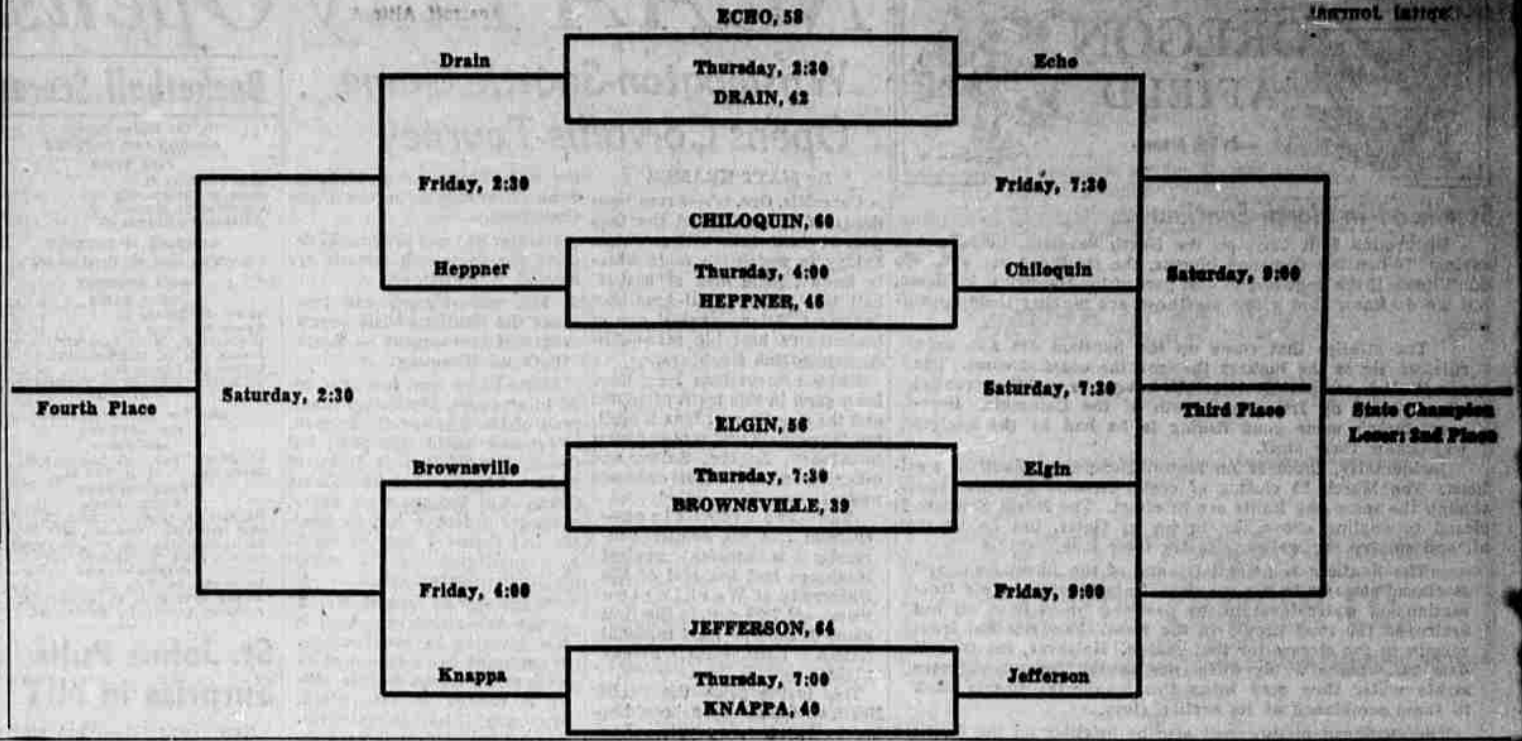

Good backboard work by Elgin's "front line" of Elwyn Hug, Don Amson and Morton Gordon, and some sweet defensive work by guards Edwin Hug (twin of Elwyn) and Larry Fitzgerald, proved to be big items in Elgin's comeback. Amson added five field goals to his record-breaking nine free throws, giving him a night's total of 19, high for the game.

Rudy Herr led Brownsville with 14, despite the fact he was playing at an unfamiliar position. Herr, regular forward, was switched to guard position because one of the starting guards, Dave Ward, was hospitalized just hours before the game with appendicitis. Ted Moehnke was moved into the starting lineup in Herr's regular position, and failed to score. Ward's absence from Brownsville's lineup was obviously painful to coach Harold Schuttpelz's club.

JEFFERSON 64, KNAFFA 40
Jim Blackwell, Jefferson forward, tallied 21 points, highest of the entire day's play in the tournament. He scored seven field goals in the second half—half of the Lions' second-half field goal total—to salt the game away for coach Fred Graham's Jeffers. John Wright and Dale Wattenbarger, whose backboard work was a standout for Jefferson in last week's district 2-B title, were up to their old tricks last night—and the large delegation of Jefferson fans on hand for the game loved every minute of it. Lee Cameron, southpaw Lion guard, added spice to the evening with his uncanny set shots. Cameron swished six of them from 20 and 25 feet out. The game started out close, with the score tied at 5-5 after two minutes of play. Cameron then swished two straight shots
