

SELECTED BIBLE PASSAGES BY SALEM AREA PASTORS

Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.—PSALM 25:4-5.

When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn. PROVERBS 29:2.

DISCUSS THE "HIGH POINTS"

We never learn... In religious education, certain truths are grasped immediately; others are stored away in the mind to be understood later; and some are promptly forgotten.

When your child comes home from Church School each Sunday he has grasped a few "high points" of the lesson. You can encourage him by talking them over.

He also brings home each Sunday certain impressions. He cannot express or understand them. But they are seeds which, if nourished in a Christian home, will blossom into moral and spiritual character.

But your child leaves behind him many truths which are essential to a mature soul. These "lost" ideas will be re-learned in future experiences at Church. That's why religious training must be continuous.

Wise parents study their faith with their children. In our local churches there are classes for young and old.

THE BIBLE

The Church is the building... It is a storehouse... strong Church... can survive. Then every person should support the Church in his own way. (2) For his own sake of his community and for the sake of the Church itself, which needs material support. Plan to go to church and read your Bible daily.
