

In the Valley

Edited by MIKE FORBES

Independence

Independence—Rev. Paul E. Boomer, Herman Chappell, and Mrs. James Drew, attended the annual convention of the Conservative Baptist Association of Oregon, on March 9, 10, and 11. This convention was held at the Calvary Baptist church in Baker, Ore., with the Rev. Ed Stauffer as host pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gowen, Vernon, Jr., and Chester were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Nyberg of Salem.

Rev. Walter Nyberg is announcing activities of the Methodist church for the coming week. Regular services will be held on Sunday, with Rev. Nyberg speaking on "The Man Who Could Not Be Moved." The sacrament of infant baptism will also be observed during the worship hour.

Tuesday at 8 p.m. the Irma Health circle will meet.

On Wednesday, the Mary Smiley circle meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Reed. At 7 p.m. the Youth Fellowship will meet and at the same hour, choir rehearsal. At 8 p.m., there will be a meeting of the church school teachers.

Friday evening at 4 p.m. the pastor will hold a preparatory membership class.

The annual flower show of the Independence Garden club will be held Friday and Saturday, March 20 and 21. This show will be held at the M. & F. store. The club has chosen the "Parade of Flowers" as the theme of the show.

The show will be divided into two parts. Division I will be arrangements and Division II will be Horticulture.

All entries must be in on Friday morning between 9:30 and 12 o'clock noon, and must be removed by 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

In connection with the flower show, the Garden club will hold a cooked food sale.

The American Legion will celebrate its 35th birthday at the Legion hall Wednesday, March 18, at 7 o'clock, when a ham dinner will be served.

Mrs. Eva Humphries, president of district No. 2 and department officers of the American Legion will be present. The post presidents' team of the Monmouth American Legion auxiliary will initiate new members.

Members of the Legion will bring their families, and as this will be a no-host dinner, are requested to bring a salad or vegetable dish.

Mr. and Mrs. Hersel Peyree and family, and Mr. and Mrs. William Peyree, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Green of Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Green are the parents of Mrs. Hersel Peyree.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills have been First Lieut. Bernard A. Smith and his family from Camp Roberts, Calif. The Smiths are visiting friends in Portland for a few days, but will stop in Independence before returning to Camp Roberts.

Rev. Daniel B. Wessler, who is now completing a two-year post-graduate course at the St. Mary's university in Scotland, has been chosen by the congregation of the Calvary Presbyterian church, to fill the pulpit this coming October.

Rev. Wessler, who is 29 years old, is married and has two daughters. He was graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles, with a B.S. degree in law. He attended the

OLD TIME DANCE OVER WESTERN AUTO
Adm. 60c Tax Inc.
Dick Johnson's Orch.
239 Court St.

AUMSVILLE PAVILION DANCE
Every Saturday Night
10 Mi. Southeast of Salem
Music by
LYLE AND HIS WESTERNERS
Broadcast KSLM
7:30-8:00 P. M.

FREE! DANCE LESSONS
8 TIL 9 SAT. NITE
(Prior to our regular dance)

CRYSTAL GARDENS
Professional instruction by Mr. Triplett and staff of specially trained teachers from the
JON MARR STAFF
Plus Gala Floor Show
Modern and Old Time
74c

Scio

Scio — Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thurston and Donna Le Bard attended the music contest in Corvallis Saturday. Several from the high school participated in the solo contests.

Rev. Elvin Fast and Mrs. Fast, Mrs. John Hatfield, Mrs. Harold Fynch and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thurston left Monday for Baker to attend the annual Conservative convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Merritt and son, Allan, and Mrs. Walt Massie of The Dalles were recent Scio visitors.

Two dinners were given in their honor. One was at the Johnny Merritt home and one was given by Christine Benes.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Greenly of California are visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sims visited Sunday at the Floyd Johnson home in Salem.

Charles Christiansen is now home following his recent appendectomy.

Robert Davis has been ill with pneumonia.

The Tumbling Aces, three little girls, Sandra Pierce, Mary Miller and Marilyn Walker, from the fifth grade, will represent Scio at the talent show in Albany Friday night.

Robert Nave and Gene and John Gabrielsen were home recently from their school work in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shimanek have received word that their son, Laverne, was injured in an accident off the coast Arabia where he was an ambassador's bodyguard.

He is in a hospital on the island of Cyprus and has a compound leg fracture, broken foot and a broken nose.

No details concerning the accident were given.

James Ruby's Holstein herd set a new high record for annual production for Linn county in 1952 for both butterfat and milk production of 15,916 lbs. average per cow, which was also the highest in the state of Oregon.

March 27 is the date chosen by the high school to present the romantic musical comedy "The Gypsy Rover."

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bilyeu are visiting relatives at Fort Bragg, Calif. They left for California Saturday.

Four local boys have recently been inducted into the army and are now at Camp Roberts. They are Dean Music, Richard Quigley, Ben Moore and Jack Martin.

Carl Zurluh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Zurluh, is visiting his parents here on leave from the navy.

Amity — Miss Mary Gladys Turner of Madera, Calif., was a week-end guest of her parents at Bethel, Polk county. She arrived on the Shasta Friday evening and returned Sunday.

The junior class of Amity high school, has secured the Capital room at the Senator hotel, Salem, for the junior-senior prom.

A banquet and dancing is planned. The date is April 3. All juniors and seniors are expected to attend.

Casablanca is believed to be the fastest growing city in North Africa.

HARD TIMES Benefit Dance
Macleay Grange—Sat., March 14
Music by Eddie's Silverstaring Rangers
Sponsored by American Legion Post No. 175 of Aumsville
DANCING 9 TO 12:30
1.50 PER COUPLE
50c Ladies—Refreshments

Amity

Amity — Miss Mary Gladys Turner of Madera, Calif., was a week-end guest of her parents at Bethel, Polk county. She arrived on the Shasta Friday evening and returned Sunday.

The junior class of Amity high school, has secured the Capital room at the Senator hotel, Salem, for the junior-senior prom.

A banquet and dancing is planned. The date is April 3. All juniors and seniors are expected to attend.

Casablanca is believed to be the fastest growing city in North Africa.

HARD TIMES Benefit Dance
Macleay Grange—Sat., March 14
Music by Eddie's Silverstaring Rangers
Sponsored by American Legion Post No. 175 of Aumsville
DANCING 9 TO 12:30
1.50 PER COUPLE
50c Ladies—Refreshments

Hopewell

The Hopewell Missionary society held an open meeting at the church Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Wakeman of Amity, a former missionary to Africa, as the guest speaker.

Sunday, March 22, is Gideon day at the Hopewell EUB church with Elmer Widmer, of Albany, brother of Rev. H. E. Widmer, as guest speaker. Widmer is a Gideon, and will take part in the Gideon rally in McMinnville the same day, with dinner at noon and an afternoon meeting.

The prayer meeting this week will be held at the Tom Kirkwood home. Mr. Kirkwood has been in Portland visiting his brother, John, for a couple of weeks.

Delbert Smith was in charge of the Youth Fellowship of the Hopewell EUB church Sunday evening.

Mrs. H. E. Widmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Evers of Veneta, Ore., near Eugene, celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary, March 8, with a reception for their family, friends and neighbors. They have made their home in Veneta for 50 years.

A large wedding cake was presented to them, as well as an electric coffee percolator, many potted plants and cards of congratulation.

They are the parents of six children, and have 46 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

The Hopewell Community club held its March meeting March 5, with Mrs. Art Reed, president, in charge of the business meeting. There was a report by the fire district committee, and a vote to have a picnic following the one-act play to be presented April 2, with a candy sale also. Colored pictures were shown by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephens of Gettysburg, N.C., Florida and New Orleans. Solos by Dean Brown and Jack Larson, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Withee, Jr., were much enjoyed by all present.

The Hopewell Home Extension meeting for March will be held at the home of Mrs. Stephen Tarter, March 25, with a lesson on frozen foods by Mrs. Thelma McKenney and Mrs. Tartar. A potluck dinner will be served at noon, and the business meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Chas. Van Dorn.

Mrs. George Polvi was surprised on the afternoon of March 5 when a group of ladies came to celebrate her birthday with her. Mrs. Carl Pajala made a cake with candles.

Those who enjoyed the party were: Mrs. Anna Snellman, Mrs. Amanda Niskinen, Mrs. Carl Pajala, Mrs. David Olke, Mrs. John Ojua, Mrs. Rose Setala, Mrs. Mae Polvi, Mrs. James McKenney, Mrs. Mary Loop, Mrs. Carl Loop and daughter, Judy, of Bethel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Terrill had as Sunday visitors, Mrs. Avie Condra and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Condra of Salem, mother and brother of Mrs. Terrill, and Mrs. Lena Jack of Portland, aunt of Mrs. Terrill. George Sutton of John Day, Ore., was a houseguest for several days. He is Mrs. Terrill's son.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Imiah, Jr., are the parents of a son, John Lawrence, born March 3 at Salem Memorial hospital, weighing 9 lbs. ½ oz. Mrs. Imiah and son returned to their home Friday. Mrs. L. G. Williams of Los Angeles, mother of Mrs. Imiah, has been with the family for several weeks.

Mrs. Harry Felzer of Portland was a house guest of Mrs. May Lembke on Walnut Hill for several days last week.

Lt. James Gilkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gilkey, who has been stationed in Lanisberg, Germany, for two years, docked at New York Sunday, March 8, and will drive his own car home.

Mrs. John Geisler, Mrs. Stephen Tarter and Mrs. James McKenney are the Hopewell Red Cross representatives, and report good success.

Mrs. Arthur Warnock, Mrs. George McKinley, Mrs. Stephen Tarter, Mrs. Ross Rogers and Mrs. Howard Stephens were among the Hopewell and Fairview residents who attended Dr. Stolte's lecture on Health at the Methodist church in Amity on Friday afternoon.

Arthur Warnock is working in Longview, Wash., on the new St. Johns hospital.

Mrs. Cal Schiador reports that a trillium is blooming in her yard and that a shrub of the Scotch broom variety is also flowering, indicating unusually mild weather for the Detroit area.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kettleson will spend next week in Salem where they will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Beard.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Moore and family will entertain forest service friends from Medford this week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Verus Dahlin and their four children.

James Stock, former minister of the Detroit Christian church, will return to this Sunday in an exchange with Richard Hake.

Mrs. Roy Jones is chairman of this committee.

The Fruitland group will be the cleanup committee after the festival this year.

Nominating committee for new officers is Bernice Strawn, Addie Cooter, Josephine Lucas. Mrs. Martin Langan has invited this unit for the next meeting.

Mrs. Roy Grette showed textile painting and a class was organized. Mrs. Grette will teach the painting they will have the first meeting, March 23, at the home of Mrs. Larry Wagner at 7:30 p.m.

Present for this meeting were Mrs. Larry Wagner, Mrs. E. C. Cootes, Mrs. Arthur Dalke, Mrs. Antheil Riney, Mrs. Rosie Knapp, Betty Shamberger, Dorothy Rieckman, Elsie Verburg, Clara Fischer, Mrs. Melvin Klampe, Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, Bernice Strawn, Mrs. Mike Lucas, Mrs. M. J. Langan, Ada Karr, Phyllis Newell, Flora Strawn, Gladys Cockren, Pearl Jones, Lena Kleen and the hostess, Elsie Van Norman. Gydeson has received word of the serious illness of his mother in Nebraska and has gone to visit her.

Alan Harman, who spent several weeks visiting relatives in California, has arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Harmon, in Fruitland.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kearns and children and Mr. Kearns' father of Lakeside were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Kearns' mother, Mrs. Rosie Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones are chairman of this committee.

The Fruitland group will be the cleanup committee after the festival this year.

Nominating committee for new officers is Bernice Strawn, Addie Cooter, Josephine Lucas. Mrs. Martin Langan has invited this unit for the next meeting.

Mrs. Roy Grette showed textile painting and a class was organized. Mrs. Grette will teach the painting they will have the first meeting, March 23, at the home of Mrs. Larry Wagner at 7:30 p.m.

Present for this meeting were Mrs. Larry Wagner, Mrs. E. C. Cootes, Mrs. Arthur Dalke, Mrs. Antheil Riney, Mrs. Rosie Knapp, Betty Shamberger, Dorothy Rieckman, Elsie Verburg, Clara Fischer, Mrs. Melvin Klampe, Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, Bernice Strawn, Mrs. Mike Lucas, Mrs. M. J. Langan, Ada Karr, Phyllis Newell, Flora Strawn, Gladys Cockren, Pearl Jones, Lena Kleen and the hostess, Elsie Van Norman. Gydeson has received word of the serious illness of his mother in Nebraska and has gone to visit her.

Alan Harman, who spent several weeks visiting relatives in California, has arrived at the

Fruitland

Mrs. Harry Felzer of Portland was a house guest of Mrs. May Lembke on Walnut Hill for several days last week.

Lt. James Gilkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gilkey, who has been stationed in Lanisberg, Germany, for two years, docked at New York Sunday, March 8, and will drive his own car home.

Mrs. John Geisler, Mrs. Stephen Tarter and Mrs. James McKenney are the Hopewell Red Cross representatives, and report good success.

Mrs. Arthur Warnock, Mrs. George McKinley, Mrs. Stephen Tarter, Mrs. Ross Rogers and Mrs. Howard Stephens were among the Hopewell and Fairview residents who attended Dr. Stolte's lecture on Health at the Methodist church in Amity on Friday afternoon.

Arthur Warnock is working in Longview, Wash., on the new St. Johns hospital.

Mrs. Cal Schiador reports that a trillium is blooming in her yard and that a shrub of the Scotch broom variety is also flowering, indicating unusually mild weather for the Detroit area.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kettleson will spend next week in Salem where they will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Beard.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Moore and family will entertain forest service friends from Medford this week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Verus Dahlin and their four children.

James Stock, former minister of the Detroit Christian church, will return to this Sunday in an exchange with Richard Hake.

Mrs. Roy Jones is chairman of this committee.

The Fruitland group will be the cleanup committee after the festival this year.

Nominating committee for new officers is Bernice Strawn, Addie Cooter, Josephine Lucas. Mrs. Martin Langan has invited this unit for the next meeting.

Mrs. Roy Grette showed textile painting and a class was organized. Mrs. Grette will teach the painting they will have the first meeting, March 23, at the home of Mrs. Larry Wagner at 7:30 p.m.

Present for this meeting were Mrs. Larry Wagner, Mrs. E. C. Cootes, Mrs. Arthur Dalke, Mrs. Antheil Riney, Mrs. Rosie Knapp, Betty Shamberger, Dorothy Rieckman, Elsie Verburg, Clara Fischer, Mrs. Melvin Klampe, Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, Bernice Strawn, Mrs. Mike Lucas, Mrs. M. J. Langan, Ada Karr, Phyllis Newell, Flora Strawn, Gladys Cockren, Pearl Jones, Lena Kleen and the hostess, Elsie Van Norman. Gydeson has received word of the serious illness of his mother in Nebraska and has gone to visit her.

Alan Harman, who spent several weeks visiting relatives in California, has arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Harmon, in Fruitland.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kearns and children and Mr. Kearns' father of Lakeside were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Kearns' mother, Mrs. Rosie Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones are chairman of this committee.

The Fruitland group will be the cleanup committee after the festival this year.

Nominating committee for new officers is Bernice Strawn, Addie Cooter, Josephine Lucas. Mrs. Martin Langan has invited this unit for the next meeting.

Mrs. Roy Grette showed textile painting and a class was organized. Mrs. Grette will teach the painting they will have the first meeting, March 23, at the home of Mrs. Larry Wagner at 7:30 p.m.

Present for this meeting were Mrs. Larry Wagner, Mrs. E. C. Cootes, Mrs. Arthur Dalke, Mrs. Antheil Riney, Mrs. Rosie Knapp, Betty Shamberger, Dorothy Rieckman, Elsie Verburg, Clara Fischer, Mrs. Melvin Klampe, Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, Bernice Strawn, Mrs. Mike Lucas, Mrs. M. J. Langan, Ada Karr, Phyllis Newell, Flora Strawn, Gladys Cockren, Pearl Jones, Lena Kleen and the hostess, Elsie Van Norman. Gydeson has received word of the serious illness of his mother in Nebraska and has gone to visit her.

Alan Harman, who spent several weeks visiting relatives in California, has arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Harmon, in Fruitland.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kearns and children and Mr. Kearns' father of Lakeside were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Kearns' mother, Mrs. Rosie Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones are chairman of this committee.

The Fruitland group will be the cleanup committee after the festival this year.

Nominating committee for new officers is Bernice Strawn, Addie Cooter, Josephine Lucas. Mrs. Martin Langan has invited this unit for the next meeting.

Mrs. Roy Grette showed textile painting and a class was organized. Mrs. Grette will teach the painting they will have the first meeting, March 23, at the home of Mrs. Larry Wagner at 7:30 p.m.

Present for this meeting were Mrs. Larry Wagner, Mrs. E. C. Cootes, Mrs. Arthur Dalke, Mrs. Antheil Riney, Mrs. Rosie Knapp, Betty Shamberger, Dorothy Rieckman, Elsie Verburg, Clara Fischer, Mrs. Melvin Klampe, Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, Bernice Strawn, Mrs. Mike Lucas, Mrs. M. J. Langan, Ada Karr, Phyllis Newell, Flora Strawn, Gladys Cockren, Pearl Jones, Lena Kleen and the hostess, Elsie Van Norman. Gydeson has received word of the serious illness of his mother in Nebraska and has gone to visit her.

Alan Harman, who spent several weeks visiting relatives in California, has arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Harmon, in Fruitland.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kearns and children and Mr. Kearns' father of Lakeside were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Kearns' mother, Mrs. Rosie Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones are chairman of this committee.

The Fruitland group will be the cleanup committee after the festival this year.

Nominating committee for new officers is Bernice Strawn, Addie Cooter, Josephine Lucas. Mrs. Martin Langan has invited this unit for the next meeting.

Detroit

The Detroit Women's Civic club re-elected three officers in the recent election, including Mrs. Opal White, president; Mrs. Spencer Moore, vice president; and Mrs. Earl Layman, treasurer. Mrs. Gordon Skidmore was elected secretary.

Plans were discussed for the pre-Easter dinner scheduled for April 3. Mrs. Raymond Sophy, chairman, will announce committees later.

Mrs. Gordon Skidmore reviewed the book, "The Silver Chalice" after the meeting adjourned.

Hostesses were Mrs. Otis White and Mrs. Ray Johnson.

Mrs. Frank Moore has returned home with her infant daughter, Elizabeth, who is reported to be doing very well after spending several days in the Corvallis hospital for observation.

Mrs. Roy Jones is chairman of this committee.

The Fruitland group will be the cleanup committee after the festival this year.

Nominating committee for new officers is Bernice Strawn, Addie Cooter, Josephine Lucas. Mrs. Martin Langan has invited this unit for the next meeting.

Mrs. Roy Grette showed textile painting and a class was organized. Mrs. Grette will teach the painting they will have the first meeting, March 23, at the home of Mrs. Larry Wagner at 7:30 p.m.

Present for this meeting were Mrs. Larry Wagner, Mrs. E. C. Cootes, Mrs. Arthur Dalke, Mrs. Antheil Riney, Mrs. Rosie Knapp, Betty Shamberger, Dorothy Rieckman, Elsie Verburg, Clara Fischer, Mrs. Melvin Klampe, Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, Bernice Strawn, Mrs. Mike Lucas, Mrs. M. J. Langan, Ada Karr, Phyllis Newell, Flora Strawn, Gladys Cockren, Pearl Jones, Lena Kleen and the hostess, Elsie Van Norman. Gydeson has received word of the serious illness of his mother in Nebraska and has gone to visit her.

Alan Harman, who spent several weeks visiting relatives in California, has arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Harmon, in Fruitland.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kearns and children and Mr. Kearns' father of Lakeside were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Kearns' mother, Mrs. Rosie Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones are chairman of this committee.

The Fruitland group will be the cleanup committee after the festival this year.

Nominating committee for new officers is Bernice Strawn, Addie Cooter, Josephine Lucas. Mrs. Martin Langan has invited this unit for the next meeting.

Mrs. Roy Grette showed textile painting and a class was organized. Mrs. Grette will teach the painting they will have the first meeting, March 23, at the home of Mrs. Larry Wagner at 7:30 p.m.

Present for this meeting were Mrs. Larry Wagner, Mrs. E. C. Cootes, Mrs. Arthur Dalke, Mrs. Antheil Riney, Mrs. Rosie Knapp, Betty Shamberger, Dorothy Rieckman, Elsie Verburg, Clara Fischer, Mrs. Melvin Klampe, Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, Bernice Strawn, Mrs. Mike Lucas, Mrs. M. J. Langan, Ada Karr, Phyllis Newell, Flora Strawn, Gladys Cockren, Pearl Jones, Lena Kleen and the hostess, Elsie Van Norman. Gydeson has received word of the serious illness of his mother in Nebraska and has gone to visit her.

Alan Harman, who spent several weeks visiting relatives in California, has arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Harmon, in Fruitland.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kearns and children and Mr. Kearns' father of Lakeside were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Kearns' mother, Mrs. Rosie Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones are chairman of this committee.

The Fruitland group will be the cleanup committee after the festival this year.

Nominating committee for new officers is Bernice Strawn, Addie Cooter, Josephine Lucas. Mrs. Martin Langan has invited this unit for the next meeting.

Mrs. Roy Grette showed textile painting and a class was organized. Mrs. Grette will teach the painting they will have the first meeting, March 23, at the home of Mrs. Larry Wagner at 7:30 p.m.

Present for this meeting were Mrs. Larry Wagner, Mrs. E. C. Cootes, Mrs. Arthur Dalke, Mrs. Antheil Riney, Mrs. Rosie Knapp, Betty Shamberger, Dorothy Rieckman, Elsie Verburg, Clara Fischer, Mrs. Melvin Klampe, Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, Bernice Strawn, Mrs. Mike Lucas, Mrs. M. J. Langan, Ada Karr, Phyllis Newell, Flora Strawn, Gladys Cockren, Pearl Jones, Lena Kleen and the hostess, Elsie Van Norman. Gydeson has received word of the serious illness of his mother in Nebraska and has gone to visit her.

Alan Harman, who spent several weeks visiting relatives in California, has arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Harmon, in Fruitland.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kearns and children and Mr. Kearns' father of Lakeside were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Kearns' mother, Mrs. Rosie Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones are chairman of this committee.

The Fruitland group will be the cleanup committee after the festival this year.

Nominating committee for new officers is Bernice Strawn, Addie Cooter, Josephine Lucas. Mrs. Martin Langan has invited this unit for the next meeting.

Mrs. Roy Grette showed textile painting and a class was organized. Mrs. Grette will teach the painting they will have the first meeting, March 23, at the home of Mrs. Larry Wagner at 7:30 p.m.

Present for this meeting were Mrs. Larry Wagner, Mrs. E. C. Cootes, Mrs. Arthur Dalke, Mrs. Antheil Riney, Mrs. Rosie Knapp, Betty Shamberger, Dorothy Rieckman, Elsie Verburg, Clara Fischer, Mrs. Melvin Klampe, Mrs. Cecil E. Miller, Bernice Strawn, Mrs. Mike Lucas, Mrs. M. J. Langan, Ada Karr, Phyllis Newell, Flora Strawn, Gladys Cockren, Pearl Jones, Lena Kleen and the hostess, Elsie Van Norman. Gydeson has received word of the serious illness of his mother in Nebraska and has gone to visit her.

Alan Harman, who spent several weeks visiting relatives in California, has arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Harmon, in Fruitland.

Mill City Theatre

SUNDAY AND MONDAY
Betsy Drake "Room for One More"
Kada Yevlakh — Jane Haver
"LOVE NESS"
Plus — "ROSE OF CIMARRON"

ENDS TODAY (Sat.)
"OUTPOST MALAYA"
& "FARGO"

MATINEE DAILY FROM 1 P. M.

Starts Tomorrow!

Crushed lips don't talk!

ALFRED HITCHCOCK'S

"Confess!"

IF YOU KNEW WHAT HE KNEW -- WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

ALFRED HITCHCOCK'S

"Confess!"

ALFRED HITCHCOCK'S

<