Miss Caccia of Italy to Speak For AAUW Luncheon Saturday

Miss Giulia Caccia of Italy, graduate student at University of Washington on an international study grant of the American Association of University Women, will be in Salem next Saturday to speak for the Salem branch of the AAUW.

The local group has a luncheon arranged at the American Legion club at 1 o'clock that day, Miss Caccia speaking following the luncheon.

Miss Caccia is studying in the departments of American literature and drama. Her background includes study at Berchet Classical Lyceum, Bocconi university in Milano, the American seminar in Salzburg and work in the British museum in England where she collected material for a dissertation on the Jacobean playwright, John Ford. She received a degree in English language and literature, maxims cum laude, from the University of Milano and became an assistant for English on that faculty of modern languages at that university. Because comparatively few young European students come this distance to continue their education, the visit of Miss Caccia to Salem is anticipated with interest.

Past presidents of the Salem branch of AAUW also will be honored at the Saturday luncheon.

Hostesses will include Miss Carol Sherman, Mrs. J. A. Jelderks and Mrs. A. F. deLapinsse. Decorations will be provided by Mrs. Kenneth Bush and Mrs. Paul Frost.

Members who have not been contacted about reservations may call Mrs. J. B. Beck by Thursday evening.

MEETING next Thursday, March 18, will be the Willamette university Faculty Women's club, at the home of Mrs. John Lewis at 2:30 o'clock.

On the committee are Mrs. Ralph H. Dobbs as chairman; Mrs. Herman Clark, Mrs. Roy Lockenour, Mrs. W. E. Moore, Mrs. Phyllis Goakey, Mrs. Robert M. Haley, Mrs. Carl Hall, Mrs. Robert C. Hartman, Mrs. John Rademaker, Mrs. Ernest Richards, Mrs. Charles Sherman.

Dinner meeting of Insurance Women's association of Salem will be at 6:15 p.m. in the Marine room of the Marion hotel on Thursday, Don Baldwin of Portland will be the speaker, his subject being the functions of the Oregon Insurance Rating Bureau. A question and answer period will follow.

Mrs. Amy Seidler will review business and social activities of the regional convention at Long Beach last month which she attended as a representative of the Salem group.

At a recent board meeting, a nominating committee was named. Committee members who will select names for election at the April meeting to be in Albany are Miss Nila Chuetz, Mrs. Amy Seidler, Mrs. Walter Westrelin, Mrs. Opal Lewis and Miss June Davis.

Judge Joseph B. Felton will speak about "Juvenile Delinquents" at the St. Joseph's Mothers club meeting on Wednesday evening. The meeting will be in the basement of the school.
