Woodburn FFA, Parents, Feast

Woodburn — More than 150 members, parents and guests were present for the annual parent-son banquet of the Future Farmers of America of Woodburn high school Thursday night at the high school gym.

The banquet was served at 7:30 p.m. by the FFA girls under the direction of their instructor, Mrs. Al Ringo. Several members and their instructor, Al Ringo, of Gervais FFA, were among the guests.

The regular opening ceremony was put on by the FFA boys, the address of welcome was given by Stanley Johnson, president of the local group, and Rev. Arthur Gobie gave the invocation.

Entertainment was furnished by Glen and Henry Kramer in instrumental and vocal selections and by the high school sextet, Misses Marilee Parker, Alice Chamberlain, Sue Paulson, Karen Magnuson, Barbara Baumann and Marcia LaBarr, with Miss Dolie Cummings as accompanist. Parents and guests were introduced.

A financial report was given by Robert Gregory and chapter achievements by Philip LaBarr.

Speaker of the evening was Robin McKinley of Gervais, district president of FFA. Honorary memberships were presented to Dave Dryden and Miss Leona Hopkins.

Albert Scholack, instructor in vocational agriculture, presented the better farmer award to Bob Dryden, sponsored by the Oregon Kiwanis and the farm mechanic award to Robert Meininger, sponsored by the national foundation. Tom Rice of Salem, representing Safeway stores, presented initial progress awards to Glen McLaughlin and Ronald Garner.

A corsage was presented to Mrs. Al Ringo and a gift to the FFA girls who served. The closing ceremonies were put on by the FFA officers.

Butteville

Butteville — The flower arrangement class of the Country-side Gardeners club met for their seventh lesson Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vernon Eilers.

Mrs. Jack Bartlett of Brooks is the instructor.

Color and color combinations are used in flower arrangements and color effects of backgrounds were discussed.

Arrangements were made from home-grown flowers — daffodils and flowering shrubs predominating.

The hostess, Ruth Eilers, was surprised at the end of the lesson with two birthday cakes.

Those present were Mrs. Vernon Eilers, Mrs. Dan Clark, Mrs. Loren Giesy, Mrs. J. W. McClure, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. John Rasmussen, Mrs. Claude Shaffer, Mrs. George Eilers, Mrs. Henry Moore, Mrs. Jack Bartlett, Mrs. Beryl Breithaupt, Mrs. Jennie Adkins.

Mrs. Edward Jones has been ill with flu for several days. Her twin sister, Mrs. Glen Yergen, has been assisting by caring for the children.

Vernon Eilers is recuperating from painful leg injury received while working a power lawn mower. First aid included 14 stitches. The bone was not injured, so he will soon be "on his feet" again.

Mrs. Jennie Adkins, who will be 90 years old in July, is packing her bags for a trip to Calgary, Alberta, to visit her son. She is now at her daughter's, Mrs. Vernon Eilers.

Though she thinks she could manage the whole trip alone, Mr. and Mrs. Eilers plan to take her to Vancouver, B. C., and let her go by train from there.

Mrs. Karl Engleman and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Newberg were on duty at the Daughters of the American Revolution Memorial Pioneer Mothers cabin in Champoug park recently.

In the morning they supervised the replanting of the collection of old pioneer roses, and a spring cleanup of the grounds.

The cabin is opened by appointment for schools or other interested groups at any time. Beginning on Decoration day and continuing through the summer months, the cabin will be open every Sunday after 10:30 a.m. with hostesses on duty being supplied by different DAR chapters in turn.

Mrs. Karl Engleman returned home Tuesday night from Klamath Falls, where she had been to attend the state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

She attended as a delegate of the local chapter and also as a member of the board of governors of the DAR Pioneer Mothers Cabin Memorial in Champoug park.

The regent of the Belle Passi chapter of the DAR, Mrs. Lester Keller of Hubbard, accompanied Mrs. Engleman on the trip, which they made by train.

A PLEASANT FORM OF TREATMENT FOR THE OVERWEIGHT PROBLEM

"MELOZETS"

WAFERS

NOW YOU CAN EAT AND REDUCE 8-oz. pkg. $1.35

MELOZETS offer an effective mechanical means of satisfying the feeling of hunger and emptiness... because one wafer taken 30 minutes before meals—with adequate water—expands eight times the size of the wafer, producing a feeling of fullness.
