Some Notations...

The beautiful home of Senator and Mrs. Frederick S. Lamport on Ben Lomond drive was the scene for a hospitable at home, Sunday evening, when the couple entertained for members of the state senate and their wives and the board of control members and their wives... and a St. Patrick's day party it was, green featuring the decor... Over the mantel in the recreation room was a spreading arrangement of caladium leaves and white stock with large shamrocks scattered among them... Robert Hug at the piano and Mary Burke, vocalist, provided the entertainment during the evening... The buffet in the dining room was centered with a large bouquet of tinted green carnations and green daffodils, green ribbons running out from the flowers to the corners of the table... The flowers were in a green St. Patrick's day hat... Green candelabras at either side of the flowers... Senator Angus Gibson, Junction City, the true Scotsman he is, wore a handsome red tartan jacket from Scotland, unconcerned with all the tribute to the Irish, however... Assisting in greeting and serving the guests were Mrs. Paul Geddes of Roseburg and Mrs. Dean H. Walker of Independence...
