Lady Molly Huggins Not 6 Nominated Pessimistic in Address By K&F Club

Lady Molly Huggins, born in Singapore married in Malaya, and wife of Sir John Huggins, former governor of Jamaica, did not answer her own propounded question of "Shall Slav, Anglo-Saxon, Latin, Oriental or African Inherit the Earth," while addressing the Salem Knife and Fork club Tuesday night at the Marion.

Nevertheless, the speaker who is a candidate for the British parliament, gave an interesting and entertaining talk concerning the countries in which she has been a resident as well as a visitor.

In contrast to previous speakers who had taken a somewhat pessimistic view of world conditions, Lady Huggins was optimistic regarding the ability of the democracies to curb the encroachments of communism. She did not say

2 Burglary Attempts Reported by Police

Two burglary attempts were reported by city police Mon-day — both apparently unsuc-cessful.

The front door of the Richfield service station at Kearney and South Commercial streets, was found sprung by an offic-er Saturday night after he saw two youths run from the area as he approached.

Some money in the cash register and a drawer was undisturbed and it was presumed that entry was not made.

A window pane over the door lock in the rear door was broken at Lehman's Seafoods store, 995 South Commercial street, sometime Saturday night, but the lock was still fastened and nothing was missidg when the broken window was discovered so it was be-lieved that entry was not made here either.
