

Price of Coffee Moves Upward

It will probably not be long before that pound of coffee you buy will be costing you several cents more than you have been paying.

Wholesale prices in Salem now have gone up to 93 cents a pound, the price at which some brands of coffee have been selling retail. Previously the wholesale price had been 84 1/2 cents per pound.

Portland W.P.—Retail coffee prices were expected to rise soon in Portland following a wholesale increase to 93 cents a pound on some brands. Latest price hike yesterday added as much as 6 1/2 cents a pound to recent prices.

Sharp spurts in green coffee prices and lifting of price controls are blamed for the boost. Retailers pointed out that at the present wholesale price they could have charged as much as $1.03 a pound under former OPS regulations.

WSCS Prepares Easter Feast

Woodburn — Mrs. Leota Porter was hostess for the regular meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at her home with Mrs. Arthur Burt and Mrs. Myrtle Hall as assisting hostesses.

The business meeting opened at 10:30 a.m. with Mr. Clifford Applegate presiding. The kitchen committee reported new cabinets completed in the church kitchen, ready for painting, and new linoleum laid. Plans were discussed to serve an Easter breakfast for the young people of the church.

Mrs. James Livesey, Mrs. John Coleman and Mrs. Leota Porter were appointed as a nominating committee to report at the next meeting, April 21, when new officers will be elected.

A group of members plan to attend the district WSCS meeting at Beaverton March 24. Mrs. James Livesey is district recording secretary and Mrs. Lowell Moore is district secretary of supplies.

Members were reminded of the birthday anniversary of Charles L. Ogle on March 24. Mr. Ogle, one of the oldest members of the church, is now in Los Angeles at 1224 West 9th street, Los Angeles (44).

A sack lunch was served at noon with coffee and dessert furnished by the hostesses. Mrs. W. M. Burke and Mrs. Lowell Moore were in charge of the afternoon program "In Remembrance" pertaining to Easter, with 12 members taking part, including Scripture, worship service and group singing. The missionary lesson was given by Mrs. D. Lester Fields.

The next meeting on April 4 will be at the home of Mrs. L. LaBarr with Mrs. N. F. Tyler as assisting hostess.

Shedd Has Quota in Red Cross Drive

Albany — The first Linn county community to go over the top in the current Red Cross fund drive is Shedd, Ken Edick, county chairman said Tuesday. Reports from Mrs. Ruth Holzappel, Shedd chairman, showed that residents of the area had contributed $650 to the drive, even though the community's quota was only $500. The fund drive there was handled by the Priscilla club, a woman's social and civic organization.

Lebanon was the first town in the county to meet its quota, turning over $6500 — its exact quota — to Edick in recent ceremonies at Lebanon. Albany reached the half-way mark Tuesday with solicitors turning over $5,842.92. The city's quota is $10,500.
