OREGON HIGH SCHOOL CLASS 'A' TOURNAMENT PROGRESS

Thursday

Salem, Dallas Win First Games In State Basketball Tournamen

Viks Meet Eugene, Dallas Faces Cleveland Tonight

Salem, displaying strong strength after four members of its starting lineup had fouled out, defeated Hillsboro, 59-38 in an afternoon game. Dallas pulled a minor upset in squeezing out Astoria 44-41 in the final game of the opening round last night.

soon after the start of the toria's chances from the free throw line.

This game was the most though contested, minute for alay-up that put Dallas out front 59-38 in an afternoon game. Dallas pulled a minor upset in squeezing out Astoria 44-41 in squeezing out Astoria 44-41 in the final game of the opening round last night. ing round last night.

Other first-round games played here Tuesday saw The Dalles win its 25th straight game over a stubborn Ontario team 63-61, Albany defeat Medford 70-58, Eugene down Milwaukie 68-49 and Cleveland down Lakeview 52-44.

Bishop and Pickens were taking the advantage momentarily. Astoria was on top 14-13 as the first quarter end-fioor, hitting-21 out of 59 attempts for a .356 average.

Coach Gordy Kunke's Dra-Willisboro had only a .164 gons didn't manage to catch up in the second period, but they tied the score at 15-15.

Salem and Eugene, two of the most ancient rivals in Oregon high school athletic circles, clash head-on in a quarterfinal game at 7:30 e'clock Thursday night. Dallas meets Cleveland at 8:45.

ment were scheduled for action in a busy eight-team slate Thursday. Marshfield meets Central Catholic at 3 p.m. and The Dallar for Aller Central Catholic at 3 p.m. and The Dalles faces Albany at 4:15 in quarterfinal contests Consolation games played this morning and coals this morning and coals this morning and early this afternoon pitted Clatskanie against Roosevelt, Ontario versus throw, tossed calmly through Born, the six-foot, nine-inch THE DALLES 68, Medford, Hillsboro opposite the hoop with only 27 seconds sophomore who took over for ONTARIO 61 Milwaukie and Lakeview against Astoria.

A total of 13,564 fans witnessed the three tournament chalked up by veteran Bob sessions Wednesday, bringing Leonard, brought Indiana its she total for the first round to 18,764. This is about 4,000 less than the total attendance for the first round last year, when 7,150 fans turned out to "just one more miracle." see seven-foot Swede Hal-brook play 10r Lincoln during

SALEM 59. HILLSBORO 38

Salem Coach Harold Hauk used his reserves - through necessity—in the fourth quar-ter. The Viking substitutes salted the game away with an amazing performance of accurate shooting, ball hawking and defensive play. Salem held a 38-32 lead as the fourth quarter got underway. Jim Knapp and Dave Johnson had already left the The Jayhawks had climbed game on fouls. And before the fourth period was half over, Jack Bishop and Tom at center and Jim Rice and Herb Triplett at forwards.

combination worked beautifully. Salem outscored Hillsboro 17-4 after the fourth Vik starter had fouled out. Hillsboro was limited to only one field goal in the

The game was close through the first half, with long shots inch Don Schlundt on the All-by Domogalla and Pickens and Tournament team. Completing The game was close through slick bell-hawking by Bishop the squad were Dean Kelley to play, that told the tale game.

The mighty one - pointer,

second NCAA hasketball cham.

pion last night with a 69-68 triumph. And it smashed the hopes of Cinderella Kansas for Kansas, the team that was supposed to be merely a ruin after losing four members of the team that won the national title last year had confounded the experts by driving to a ties score, the 15th tie of the game,

Indiana's playmaker, got the biggest point in the history of this tourney to put the hot-shot

Hoosiers ahead. Kansas got the ball, drove down-court for one last shot-a line-drive by to that moment on a ladder of "miracles"—winning the Big Seven title, the Manhat-pionship and were named the Nation's No. 1 team by the United Press Board of Coaches, recaptured the NCAA crown they

The writers honored the Hoosiers by picking Leonard wore back in 1940.

season when they won their the title has be first undisputed Big Ten cham-single marker.

with a minute to go.

Then Leonard, the six-foot, another three inche ace who usually is throws.

hit four out of 13 shots, Pick-ens connected with five out taking the advantage momen-aged to preserve their posi-

Bishop and Pickens were they tied the score at 15-15, standouts under the back17-17 and 21-21 as Harold boards for Salem. Bishop grabbed 18 rebounds and Pickens 17. As far as teams led 25-23 at halftime.

were concerned, rebounding In the third period the score was about equal, Salem snar- was tied at 25, 27 and 31, but with 20.

"most valuable" player.

Schlundt rolled up a mag-nificent 30 points in the big game, although he played the entire second half burdened kies' ace in the opening round. The title game was played at tourney's 16 year history that the title has been settled by a

Exhibition Baseball

Kansas City, Mo. (U.P.—In and B. H. Born of Kansas, and the end it was a single free Bob Houbregs of Washington.

the lead. It was 31-all when quarter.

the third period ended.

Soon after the start of the The fabulous shooting of fourth quarter, Herb Brandli hit a field goal from in close thou on 11 tries, was probably the big single faction in the Brandle first time the Polk county attempts for a .305 figure. McArthur Court, University and Johnson providing the of Oregon, Eugene — Salem spark for the Vikings.

The score was tied four times, at 2-2, 6-6, 8-8 and 10-2 to in the Dragon triumph.

The score was tied four times, at 2-2, 6-6, 8-8 and 10-2 to in the Dragon triumph.

Dallas' clean play was another tremendously important item. The Dragons committed a total of only five personal fours. The bragons committed a total of only five personal fours. That limited Asson after the start of the score again, this time a field goal from in close to give Dallas a 33-31 lead, the first time the Polk county crew had been ahead since the first quarter. Hugh Seppa, who led Astoria in scoring with 13 points, hit a field goal from in close to give Dallas a 33-31 lead, the first time the Polk county crew had been ahead since the first quarter. Hugh Seppa, who led Astoria in scoring with 13 points, hit a field goal from in close to give Dallas a 33-31 lead, the first time the Polk county crew had been ahead since the first quarter. Hugh Seppa, who led a total of only five personal fours. That limited Asson after the start of the time the polk county to give Dallas a 33-31 lead, the first time the Polk county crew had been ahead since the first quarter. Hugh Seppa, with 13 points, hit a field goal from in close to give Dallas a 33-31 lead, the first time the Polk county crew had been ahead since the first quarter. Hugh Seppa, with 13 points, hit a field goal from in close to give Dallas a 33-31 lead, the first time the Polk county crew had been ahead since the first quarter. Hugh Seppa, with 13 points, hit a field goal from in close to give Dallas a 33-31 lead, the first time the Polk county crew had been ahead since the first quarter. Hugh Seppa, with 13 points, hit a field goal from in close to give Dallas a 33-31 lead, the first time the Polk county crew had been ahead the first quarter. Hugh Seppa, with 13 points, hit a field goal from in close to give Dallas a 33-31 lead, the first time the Polk county and the first quarter. H run to put Dallas into a 37-35 tions after that.

The biggest lead of the ball game was when Dallas lead 44-39 in the final few seconds of play. Dallas played keepaway during the final two minutes, and succeeded in drawing enough fouls from desperate Astoria defensemen to score their five points from the free throw line in two minutes—as many free throws as Astoria had scored all

Ron Smart, Astoria's highly-rated center, had a bad night trying to find the hoop, hitting only five out of 23 shots. But he stood out on the boards, snaring 17 re-bounds, more than twice as many as anybody on the Dal-the graduated Clyde Lovellette. the "story book" basketball capped a brilliant season by be-game. ing named the tournament's The Dalles 27-20, but lost the game on free throws. The difference in the number of personal fouls called against each team told the story. Ontario was charged with 22 personal fouls, while the whis-tle was tooted for The Dalles infractions on only 12 occa-

with three personal fouls, Born racked up 26 until he fouled out at 4:24 of the fi-nal period, Allen Kelley was next high man for Kansas Ontario was ahead until the with 20.
Indiana wound up breaking fourth period. The Tigers led 17-13 at the end of the first two tournament scoring rec-ords—the four-game total with 49-46 when the third period 310 and the four-game free throw with 108. Schlundt set tario's starters, Bill Stoner another by sinking 49 free and Vance Savage, benched throws. Washington had cracked the outscored Ontario 17-12 in the previous total point record when it ran its sum to 307 by final period.

Savage's loss was particu when it ran its sum to 307 by Savage's loss was particu-beating Louisiana State in the consolation game, 88-69, as fad soored 16 points before Houbregs tallied 42 points. That was three short of the tourney record set by the Hus-led his team with 16. Charlie larly painful to Ontario. He led his team with 16. Charlie Garcia of Ontario also had 16.

over, Jack Bishop and Tom Pickens also were whistled to the bench.

That left only Guard Gordy Domogalla from the starting lineup on the floor. Hauk used Larry Springer at the other guard slot, Bob Miller and other guard slot, Bob Miller are not formed and the national crows.

Thus did the Hoosiers, in the title game was played at a furious pace as Allen's forcawny kids" matched fire-horse Indiana in rushes down the court. At half-time it was the court. At half-time it was tied, 41-41. At the end of the third period, the Hoosiers led, tory by scoring 27 points and grapping 24 rebounds. He hit tournev's 16 year history that Dave Shelby, at 6 feet 7 inches the closest thing this tournament has to a Wade grapping 24 rebounds. He hit nine field goals on 17 at-

Albany got off to an 8-0 lead, but saw Medford come right back with an eight-point rally to tie the count at 8-all. The game was nip and tuck after that, with Albany lead-(By The Associated Press)

Cuban All-Stars 4, Pittsburgh (A) 2.
Cuncinnati (N) 4, Beston (A) 3.
Chicago (A) 12, Los Angeles (PCL) 9.
Cleveland (A) 15, New York (N) 6.
Detroit (A) 5, Milwaukee (N) 2.
Palladesiphia (N) 16, Philadesiphia (A) 4
Chicago (N) 3, St. Louis (A) 4.
Washington (A) 1, Brooklyn (N) 6.
Bt. Louis "B" (A) 4, Japanese AllBlars 2.

Scrap With Sparts Jack Bishop (No. 46), Salem floor, but that doesn't stop him from scrapping for the ball during Wednesday's state tournament game with Hillsboro. In on the action for Hillsboro are Dennis Eckert (15) and Loren Michelson (No. 21). The two Spartan players behind Bishop are unidentified. No. 26 for Salem is Tom Pickens, while wearing No. 14 is Gordy Domagolia. Salem won the game 59-35 to move into the quarter-finals tonight.

of a game, and is liable to amas Country club 22-11. hoot from any spot, scored 21 Rasor wasn't the only points.

congested quarters under the basket as he was on longrange shots from behind the key, dropped nine out of 17 shots through the McArthur court hoops. court hoops.

first quarter. Hugh Seppa, who led Astoria in scoring with 13 points, hit a two-pointer from the right corner to tie the score again, this time at 33-33.

Brandli drove in for a lay-up that put Dallas out front.

Eugene was hard pressed until the fourth quarter. The come point in the first quarter, came back to make a battle of it, and trailed Cleveland only it is and trailed Cleveland only it is an every square inch of a basket-ball court during the course.

Eugene was hard pressed until the fourth quarter. The come point in the first quarter, came back to make a battle of it, and trailed Cleveland only it is an every square inch of a basket-ball court during the course.

Eugene was hard pressed until the fourth quarter. The came back to make a battle of it, and trailed Cleveland only it is an every square inch of a basket-ball court during the course. Eugene was hard pressed coints.

Rasor, equally effective in team. The whole Axemen five points in the third period as Cleveland took a 43-31 lead. Lakeview outscored the Portlanders 13-9 in the final period, but Cleveland's lead was too much to overcome.

LAKEVIEW 44

Three Cleveland players had individual scores in the double-digit category. Ron Nenow had 18, Ron Stemple Bugene Williams led Lake-view with 16, while Robert Faria was close behind with 13.

Lakeview scored 10 free throws on 10 attempts.

Always Play Hunches

San Bruno, Calif., 49—It poured liquid gold for some lucky bettors at Tranforan race track Wednesday. Just as showers began, Liquid Gold

NOW YOU PROVE THEM! FORLYQUESELF-ON YOUR OWN CAR!

> tires whether they have gone 5 miles or 50,000 mile * Ride on LIFEWALL U.S. Royali for 18 days et them convince you they're the world's gr

★ If you are not fully estimed, we remount your old tires and tubes on your car without cost or obli-

LIMITED TIME ONLY! EASY CREDIT TERMSE

Blowout Prevention Now-All in One! Skid Protection Life Protection

LIFEWALL U.S. Royals—along with all their other superb qualities—bring you the genuine blowout prevention of the new and exclusive inner Nylon LIFEWALL! This is the finest six constants are along the finest six constants. the finest air-container over developed—doubling tire strength, in-creasing tire life, banishing blow-out possibilities! Act Now-Today!

with the Only EYERLASTING WHITEWALLS to keep the spotless beauty of your tires! with the Only CURB GUARD* PROTECTIVE RIB to end curb scuff nuisance and expense!

with the Only ROYALTEX TREAD and TRACTION —world's utmost non-skid stopping power!
and with up to TWICE AS MANY SAFE MILES

at white STATES SUBSET COMPANY Investment for years!

RECAPPING Complete Tire Service WALTER H. ZOSEL CO.

High and Chemeketa St. Opposite City Hall PHONE 23645

WHEEL BALANCING Front Wheel Alignment