Miss Baxter Wed Friday In Salem

The marriage of Miss Lola Maxine Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Baxter, Marion, to William Wolfe, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfe, Jefferson, was solemnized Friday, March 13, in the Salem Englewood Evangelical United Brethren church. The Rev. Lloyd Uecker officiated at the 8 o'clock service.

The setting was pink and white. Bouquets of pink blossoms and white gladioluses and chrysanthemums decorated the church.

Mrs. Lloyd Uecker sang, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Lola Murray.

Ralph Kramer and Morris Wolfe lighted the tapers.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white satin dress with seed pearls outlining the yoke; long sleeves and tiny buttons down the back. The full skirt fell into a train. The fingertip veil edged in lace was arranged from a tiara trimmed with seed pearls.

The bride carried a bouquet of pink roses and small white blooms centered with a large purple orchid.

Mrs. Ralph Kramer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Jack DeBow and Miss Joyce Baxter, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Loren Newkirk were bridesmaids. They wore pastel colored dresses and garlands, and carried nosegays of pink and white flowers.

Dwayne Wolfe, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Orval and Morris Wolfe, brothers of the bridegroom, Ralph Kramer, Jack DeBow and Loren Newkirk.

Junior attendants were Miss Evelyn Baxter, sister of the bride and Gary Smith.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue two-piece dress with navy accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of navy with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception for the guests immediately followed the ceremony and was in the church social rooms. The bride's table was centered with a large three-tiered wedding cake. Spring flowers and candles decorated the table. Pink camellias and Japanese plum were used to decorate the room. Miss Linda Smith was in charge of the guest book.

Myra Burch cut the cake. Mrs. Dwayne Wolfe and Mrs. Earl Hedges poured. Mrs. Ray Will, Mrs. Morris Wolfe, Mrs. Raymond Tomlinson and Mrs. Cap Smith were in charge of the gifts.

Easter Hats and Favors Made by Club

Welcome Wagon club met for luncheon Wednesday in the Cherrian room of the Senator hotel with 41 members present. Mrs. Walter Crane presided. The meeting opened with community singing led by Mrs. H. K. Gottfried.

After luncheon some of the group made flowered hats for Easter, with Mrs. Eugene Kokko in charge. She was assisted by Mrs. Floyd Baker, Mrs. LaVerne Fulton, Mrs. James Webb, Mrs. Warren Lund and Mrs. R. N. Chase.

Those not wishing to make hats worked under the direction of Mrs. A. Kenneth Smith on Easter favors for patients who are ill at Fairview home. Easter centerpieces were also made for two cottages at Fairview home.

Plans were made for a plant sale to be April 15 in the basement of the Woman's club with Mrs. Everett Day in charge.

New members for the month are Mrs. Warren Lund, Mrs. E. C. Engvall and Mrs. W. J. Peterson.
