Frosh Glee at Week-End Big Campus News Now

By BARBARA JACKSON
Capital Journal Correspondent

Groups of freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors have been seen congregating at 9 o'clock in the morning at a week, as the Willamette campus prepares for Freshman Glee. The song fest will take place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the gymnasium.

The seniors will make their final appearance in Glee singing "Willamette, Our Alma Mater." Words for the song were written by Amaryllis Lillis and Eleanor Oakes of Portland, and the music was written by Beverly Rands, also of Portland. Accompanists for the class will be Harriet Aller of Yakima, Wash., and Jane Foose of San Leandro, Calif. In the three years that they have sung in Glee the seniors have a second and two fourth places to their credit.

"Willamette, Alma Mater" will be presented by the Junior class, who has won Glee both years that they have participated. Elizabeth Shields of Castletford, Idaho, and Carol Emerson of Corbett composed the music and also will be accompanists, and words were written by Margie Leonard of Silverton and Maryjane Stewart of Portland.

Keith Mirick of Medford wrote "Hail to Thee, Willamette," the sophomore song. Words were written by Julie Mellor of Portland and Barbara Jackson of Rochester, N.Y. Mirick and Dorothea Church of Lake Grove will be the accompanists. The sophomores placed second last year.

The challenging freshmen's song, "Willamette, Our Guiding Light," was written by Paul Ackerman of Oak Grove. Words were written by Helen Callaghan of Salem and Dale Gustafson of Harrisburg. Accompanists will be Amy Girod of Salem and Ron Hershberger of Klamath Falls.

Practices have been held for song and formation this week for the 45th annual Glee classic, three and four times a day. Saturday, each class will have a practice in the gymnasium in preparation for the presentation of their song Saturday night.

After Glee is over and the winners have been announced,

Barrow-White

Lyons—Miss Lois White, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank White of Mehama, was wed to Douglas Barrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barrow of Mehama, in a recent ceremony at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Lyons. The Rev. Father Bernard officiated at the 9 o'clock service.

The bride wore a white satin dress with net overskirt, a crown of pearls and rhinestones, and carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid.

Miss Shirley Weider, maid of honor, wore a pale green frock and carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums centered with iris.

David Zolkoske was best man for Mr. Barrow. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. White wore a two-piece gray dress, and Mrs. Barrow, the bridegroom's mother, wore a black and white dress. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. After a short wedding trip the young couple will be at the home of his parents until he leaves for the service the last of the month.
