

Miss Covert Is Wed at Stayton

Stayton — The Church of Christ was the setting for the wedding of Miss Jessie Jean Covert, daughter of William W. Covert, and Stanford S. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Smith, Sr., on Saturday, March 14. The 8 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Glenn Vernon.

The church was decorated with greenery, daffodils and forsythia, and white candelabras. Lighting the candles were Miss Dorothy Poole and Miss Helen Ware. They wore identical dresses of light green designed with lace bodice and full length skirt. In their hair they wore half-crownets of spring flowers.

Miss Sharron Poole sang, accompanied by William Covert, Jr., brother of the bride, who also played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of white satin with train, the shirred bodice being topped with a net yoke. A lace crown dotted with seed pearls held the fingertip veil in place. The bride's bouquet was a nosegay of mixed flowers with a large purple orchid in the center.

Honor attendant was Miss Colleen Hales who wore a blue net frock with lace bodice, and matching mitts. Bridesmaids were Miss Gay Lesley and Miss Florence Davis, cousin of the bride. They wore yellow dresses identical to the honor maid's and all the attendants carried nosegays. Junior attendant was Linda Jones, a small daughter of the Courtney Joneses. She wore a dress of light blue with a white organdy over-skirt.

Best man was Darwin Fehlen and the ushers were Clarence Hinrichs and Edward Neilson.

Mrs. Smith, the bridegroom's mother, wore a navy and Mrs. Fred Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Eby, Mrs. Floyd Thompson, Mrs. Winifred Herick, Miss Frances Byram, Miss Lelia Johnson and C. L. Blodgett.

taffeta dress with a white hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

A reception for 200 guests took place in the church parlors. Cutting the cake were two aunts of the bride, Mrs. Jessie Van Boening and Mrs. Vern Davis. Pouring was Mrs. Dale Crabtree and at the punch bowl was Mrs. Robert Reinke, sister of the bridegroom. Serving were the Misses Cheryl Morgan, Sandra Davis, Janet Hufman and Marge Micheals, cousin of the bride. Passing the guest book was Miss Mary Howe. Opening the gifts were the Misses Sherry Spaniol, Sally Studneck and Sherley Minten. Assisting were Mrs. Della Keithley, Miss Mary Basl and Mrs. Amanda Gavette.

For traveling the bride wore a cocoa brown suit with pin striped jacket and brown accessories. After a wedding trip, the couple will be at home in the Killian apartments in Stayton.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith attended Stayton schools, Mr. Smith graduating with the class of 1952. Mrs. Smith is a senior this year.

Osborn-Morrow Wedding in Corvallis

Lebanon — At a candlelight service Saturday, March 7, Miss Rayda Jo Morrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Morrow of Corvallis, was wed to Wesley Glenn Osborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Glenn Osborn of Lebanon. Hugh Webb officiated at the 8 o'clock service in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Corvallis.

White stock and candelabras against a background of palms provided the altar setting. Mrs. Harold Harper played the wedding marches and accompanied Gladys Postalweight, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin with lace-edged veil and carried a white prayer book on which lay a white orchid.

Her attendants were her sister, Mrs. Delmar Bryant, Miss Nancy Assum, Miss Shirley Lugenbell and Miss Ruth Harvey.

Best man was David McGregor, and ushers were Loren Gardner, Ellwood Tracy and Delmar Bryant. All are Oregon State college fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

The reception was in the church recreation room. For traveling, Mrs. Osborn wore a navy blue suit with pink accessories. The couple left for San Francisco and San Diego, where the bridegroom has served with the navy as electronics engineer for the past two years. He is a graduate of Lebanon high school.

Johnson, worthy matron, and George Huffman, worthy patron, presiding. Visitors were presented from Salem chapter and Cedar chapter of Seio. A friendship ceremony was conducted by officers of the local chapter and Doris Sheythe sang a medley of Irish songs for entertainment.

Mrs. Johnson was honored with a handkerchief shower in observance of her birthday anniversary.

The St. Patrick's day theme was used in the decorations. Serving during the refreshment hour were Helen Johnson, Garnet Bassett and Gladys Cowdrey.
