

Presbyterian Church Will Keep Location

The First Presbyterian church in Salem will remain in its present location and be permitted to expand along Winter street to Center as the result of a unanimous decision reached Friday by members of the capitol planning commission and the state board of control.

"Lies for God" Sermon Subject

Evangelist Don Hiatt Spillman announced his sermon subject for Sunday night as "Telling Lies for God." Stating that he will reveal many of the strange predictions of the Bible foretelling its misuse, he said, "Probably few of these startling predictions have ever been read to an audience in Salem before. That they are directly fulfilled today will be evident to every listener in the audience Sunday night."

The Spillman-Lyman meetings in Crystal Gardens are now in their 18th week with excellent interest continuing. Also featured beginning at 8:45 will be the sound film, "Paul's Second Missionary Journey" and during the song service, from 7:20, Sharon Spillman will be presented in a piano solo. Crystal Gardens is located at the corner of Liberty and Ferry streets. Every service closes by 9 o'clock or earlier.
