Kaer-Cooley Wedding at Church Sunday Afternoon; Reception at Sorority

Miss Elizabeth Adele Cooley, daughter of Mrs. Robert W. Prentiss, was married Sunday afternoon to William Edward Kaer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kaer of Olympia, Wash., the 4 o'clock service being solemnized in the First Presbyterian church with Dr. Paul N. Poling officiating. A large group of friends and relatives attended the wedding and reception.

Candles and white snapdragons decorated the church for the service. Miss Lois Ann Peck of Portland was soloist, Mrs. Ralph H. Dobbs playing the organ.

Miss Joan Hobart of Portland, Miss Alice Girod, Miss Gwendolyn Fry and Mrs. James Swaschka were the candlelighters. All wore pastel colored dresses.

The bridal dress was a floor length one of white bengaline, fashioned with panniers down the skirt, long sleeves and a round neckline. A half-Juliette cap, decorated in seed pearls, held in place the waistlength veil. The veil was the one worn by the bride's mother and aunt. For her flowers, the bride carried an arrangement of white orchids. The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Robert W. Prentiss.

Attendants in Blue
Miss Anne Forristel was honor attendant. She wore an embroidered powder blue organza over blue taffeta dress. She carried a fan of pink net with blue hyacinths and pink rosebuds on it.
Miss Karen Kaer and Miss Katherine Kaer, Olympia, both sisters of the bridegroom, were the bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in embroidered blue organza over light blue taffeta frocks and their fans of pink net had the blue hyacinths.

Sharon Lee of Portland, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Henry Becker, Jr., Portland, cousin of the bride, and Douglas Kaer of Olympia, brother of the bridegroom, were the ring bearers.

Elizabethan Styled Satin Dress Worn at Wedding

Wed Saturday evening in an impressive ceremony in the First Methodist church at Corvallis were Miss Virginia Ruth Johnson and Earl Winfield McFarlan of Sweet Home. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy W. Johnson of Corvallis and Mr. McFarlan is the son of Mrs. Charles R. McFarlan of Forest Grove. Dr. Daniel W. Walker read the vows at the 8 o'clock candlelight service.

It was an all-white wedding except for the touches of spring colors in the bouquets and headresses of the bride's attendants. Clusters of white stock decorated many sets of candelabras at the church. Palms were at the background. Down the aisle was a white cloth. The altar was covered with a satin cloth and at the base was a fan bouquet of the white stock.

Nancy Allworth of Corvallis was soloist, Mrs. Albert Marsh the organist.

Mrs. Kenneth J. Lenaburg and Mrs. James Armson, both of Salem, were candlelighters. They wore simple white robes and carried candles decorated with a single gardenia each.

The titian haired bride wore an Elizabethan styled wedding dress of white heavy slipper satin. The bodice was spanned with a wide satin bertha gathered in scallop effect. A stiff satin cowl collar rose from the bertha at the shoulders to frame the neckline. The sculptured bodice was styled with a low waistline and was fastened down the back with self-covered buttons. The long fitted sleeves, pointed over the wrists, also were fastened with the buttons. The full gathered skirt terminated in a court-length train. A coronation note was the stiffened Belgium rose point lace crown from which cascaded the fingertip veil of imported silk illusion. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of Eucharis lilies and white hyacinth blossoms. Mr. Johnson gave his daughter in marriage.

Sister Honor Attendant
Miss Barbara Drake Johnson was her sister's honor attendant. The four bridesmaids were Misses Gayle Juve, Beverly Hofstetter, and Merle Rhoten, all of Salem, and Miss Bette Gathercoal of Corvallis and Albany.

All five attendants wore identical frocks of white billowy nylon net over taffeta. The dresses were fashioned with scalloped cup-like bodice tops in decolletage effect and were strapless. The scooped out necklines were filled with soft folds of net. The net stole-collars were attached to either side of the bodices, giving a stiff cowl collar effect. The bridesmaids wore white strand pearl necklaces. Their headresses were Swiss made wrist length gloves and single straw caps of open scroll design. The honor attendant's cap was in Saguine blue. Miss Gathercoal and Miss Juve both wore pink caps and Miss Hofstetter and Miss Rhoten, both lavender ones. All attendants carried colonial nosegays of orchid and pink sweetpeas, the frills around the nosegays and the ribbons matching the headresses of the five.

James M. Gleeson was the ring bearer.

Wendle Gronso of Lebanon was best man and ushering were Burton H. Amos, Robert Brandt and Daniel Poling, all of Sweet Home, Robert Hollis of Salem, Dale McFarlan of Forest Grove, brother of the bridegroom, and Fred Gleeson of Corvallis.

The bride's mother wore a periwinkle blue dress with rhinestone trim, elbow length white gloves, a white hat of Italian straw, and a corsage of pink phalaenopsis orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose colored dress with beige hat and white gloves and a corsage of white phalaenopsis orchids.

Reception Follows
The reception following was in Wesley hall at the church, pink being accented in the white theme for the decorations. The bride's table was a round one, covered with a white damask cloth that was caught up with pink sweet peas. The cake centered the table and was encircled with flowers. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Homer I. Sands of Eugene, aunt of the bride, Mrs. George Gleeson, Mrs. Fred M. Shideler and Mrs. E. E. Seibert, all of Corvallis; Mrs. H. R. Sinnard, Mrs. Herbert N. Nelson, Miss Eva Seem, Miss Adelaide Lake, Mrs. James J. Gathercoal, all of Corvallis; Mrs. Wayne R. Hamilton of Richland, Wash.; Mrs. James Bunnage of Portland, Mrs. Robert Northrup of Portland, Misses Patricia Jones, Flora Schuster, Marlene Kott, Carol Severson, Lorna Bryant, Bette Perin, Mrs. Mikal Mikelsen, all of Corvallis, Miss Mary Sue McNabb of Klamath Falls, Miss Ann Hedlund of Racine, Wis., Miss Janet McCracken of Roseburg, Miss Charlotte Nicolson of Portland.

Following a trip south the couple will be at home at 1020 A street, Sweet Home, after April 12. For her going away costume, the bride wore a navy blue tailored dress of paper silk shantung with pleated coat, a Milan straw pleated hat and navy accessories, and a corsage of white orchids.

The bride was assistant last year in the woman's department at the Capital Journal.
