

Italian Student Is Speaker

Miss Giulia Caccia of Milan, Italy, AAUW International grant recipient, spoke for the members of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women, at their luncheon Saturday at the American Legion club. Miss Caccia is studying English literature and drama at the University of Washington and hopes to teach in this field upon her return to Italy.

The speaker compared various aspects of the Italian educational system with that she has observed in regard to the physical plant and teaching methods. Miss Caccia is a member of the Italian Federation of University Women, an equivalent of AAUW, and pointed out this organization being of a non-religious and non-political nature suffered at the hands of the Fascists for several years. In Italy the state provides free education for children until they are 14 years old. If they then wish to continue into high school years, the student may go into trade schools, scientific high school or the classical high school. The last is the most popular and of course stresses work in Latin, Greek and other classics. The Lyceum follows and then the university where only one degree, the doctorate, is granted. There are few jobs, poorly paid, and often a teacher must hold two or more positions at once to make a livable wage.

Mrs. Floyd L. Utter, AAUW state fellowship chairman for Oregon, introduced the speaker. She pointed out that at the present time AAUW is sponsoring 54 international fellowship grants.

The luncheon was also an occasion to honor past presidents of the Salem branch and those present were Dr. Helen Pearce, Miss Lella Johnson, Miss Olive Dahl, Miss Beryl Holt, Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, Mrs. Floyd L. Utter, Mrs. Milo Rasmussen, Mrs. John Burcham, Miss Elise Schroeder, Mrs. Ervin W. Potter and Miss Mildred Christenson.

During the business meeting Mrs. Thomas W. Churchhill announced Miss Mildred Christenson, Mrs. Russel Beutler and Mrs. Gordon Carl as the nominating committee for next year's AAUW officers. She also gave April 23, 24, 25 as dates for the state meeting to be at Klamath Falls.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. F. A. deLeopinasse, Mrs. J. A. Jelderks and Miss Carol Sherman. Gay and attractive decorations in the Easter motif were arranged by Mrs. Kenneth Bush and Mrs. Paul Frost.

Members of the AAUW executive board and their husbands met Saturday evening for a no-host supper at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Utter to honor Miss Caccia. Miss Caccia has been the house guest of the Utters this week-end.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sprague showed slides of Yosemite.

BPW Club Heeds Mayor of Woodburn

Woodburn—A social meeting of the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club was an event of last week at the library club rooms. Mayor Elmer Mattson was the guest speaker. He gave an interesting talk on civic affairs, and the coming special election to be held March 27. Mr. and Mrs. Mattson showed colored slides taken while they were in Europe last summer and gave a travelogue on the various countries visited. During the refreshment hour Mayor Mattson answered questions, and gave out literature on Europe.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Walter Taylor, chairman, Mrs. Ray Equall, Miss Marie Thompson, Mrs. O. J. Adkinson and Mrs. Leon Graham.

Next meeting will be a business meeting on April 2 at the home of Miss Gladys Adams, when new officers will be elected.

Garden Group Meets

Lebanon — At a recent executive meeting of Santiam district in Corvallis, Mrs. Bryon Bradshaw, vice president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, announced that federation members may attend state convention meetings at McMinnville, June 10-12. No registration fee is required and delegates will stay on the college campus and will eat their meals there.

The executive meeting was called by Mrs. D. E. Branson, chairman, to plan reports for the district meeting in May. Club chairmen are reminded to contact district chairmen by April 15.

VISITORS at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies through Friday were their granddaughters, Mrs. William Judvine of Weiser, Idaho, and Mrs. Fred Brock and her son, Gary, of Portland.

Some Notations ..

By M. L. F.

Brunette Anita Albrich, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Albrich, Salem, has been chosen to represent University of Portland as a typical college co-ed. Miss Albrich is a freshman at Portland, graduating last year from Sacred Heart academy here.

At Linfield college, one of the three finalists for the title of Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity is Nadine Gillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milan H. Gillman of Salem. The Dream Girl will be named at an all-school social on April 11. State Senator Eugene Marab, McMinnville, president of the state senate, and an alumnus of the fraternity at the University of Oregon chapter, is to choose the winner.

From Washington, D.C. come clippings about the recent brunch for the Congressional club in mid-March when the group celebrated its 45th founding anniversary and honored 75 new members. Cabinet wives welcomed and receiving corsages included Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of the Secretary of the Interior.

Other clippings also tell about the recent reception given at the Korean Embassy, honoring General and Mrs. James A. Van Fleet, the event highlighting "Van Fleet Week" in the capital. Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Douglas McKay are mentioned in the write-up among those attending and they were in the group remaining for the supper, others in the group being Attorney General and Mrs. Herbert Brownell, Postmaster General and Mrs. Arthur Summerfield. Mrs. McKay was described as wearing a coral dinner dress with a matching camellia in her hair.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs has news releases out to all affiliated groups announcing its support of President Eisenhower's proposal to place commissions of education, health and welfare under the Federal Security Agency with cabinet rank.

Federation resolutions seeking cabinet status for health or education departments were passed by the GFWC in 1904, 1910, 1920, 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925 and 1926.

"The establishment of a department of education, health and welfare is entirely consistent with the thinking of club women for the last 49 years. Such a department can supply both information and leadership in fields that are of particular interest to women," states Mrs. Oscar A. Ahlgren, president of the GFWC.

For Golden Weds

Lebanon — Observing their golden wedding anniversary last Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. William A. Springer. At an open house in their home, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Springer, presented them with a wedding cake decorated in gold leaves. Only relatives attended the party.

In the evening, Mr. Springer's sister, Mrs. Jennie Klampe and her son Velmer, his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Springer, all of Salem, joined the family group.

The couple was married in Ellendorf, Iowa, moving to Oregon in 1913. They have lived in Lebanon a year. Their son, William H. Springer, is a member of the Lebanon police force, and they have one granddaughter, Miss Hope Elaine Springer.

Today's Menu

FAMILY LUNCH
Spinach Ring filled with Creamed Eggs
Lettuce and Beet Salad
Bread and Butter
Cookies Beverage

Spinach Ring
Ingredients: 1 cup boiling water, 1 teaspoon salt, one 14-ounce package frozen chopped spinach, pepper, ¼ teaspoon finely grated onion (juice and pulp), 1 egg, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted).

Method: Add ½ teaspoon of the salt and frozen spinach to boiling water. Bring rapidly to boil again; reduce heat and boil gently, stirring as necessary to break up spinach, just until tender—about 3 minutes. Drain; there should be about 1½ cups drained spinach. (Reserve cooking liquid to use in soup.) Stir into spinach remaining ½ teaspoon salt, pepper (to taste) and onion. Beat egg just until yolk and white are combined; stir gradually and vigorously into spinach; stir in melted butter. Turn into small (2-cup) well buttered ring mold. Place mold in 8-inch square baking pan; fill pan with hot water so that water reaches about two-thirds way up mold. Bake in moderate (375 deg.) oven 25 to 30 minutes or until firm. Loosen edges of spinach ring with spatula; unmold on serving plate. Fill center with creamed eggs; put some of the eggs around outside of spinach ring if too much for center. Makes 4 servings.
