Miss Hennies Is Wed on Saturday

An event of Saturday, March 21, was the wedding of Miss Shirley Hennies and Ronald D. Rentfrow at the First Christian church. The Rev. Dudley Strain officiated at the 8 o'clock ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hennies of Turner and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Rentfrow of Tigard.

Mrs. Jack Smith was the soloist and Mrs. Joseph Crockett played the wedding music. Pink snapdragons, white stock and blue iris decorated the altar. Lighting the tapers were Miss Sonia Nohlgren and Miss Clela Martin. The bride wore a white satin dress fashioned with a mandarin collar, long sleeves ending in points over the wrists, and a full skirt with train. Two rhinestone clips, worn by her mother and sister, Mrs. Rex Ostrem, at their weddings, adorned her dress and she wore a pearl bracelet and choker. The finger tip veil was arranged from a tiara trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, pink rosebuds and stephanotis. Miss Hennies was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Launa Watson was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Janie McCollam and Mrs. Robert Claussen. All of the attendants wore dresses in shades of blue and carried nosegays of spring flowers. Jeanne Graves was flower girl and Bill Hennies, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Best man was Franklin Blank, Jr. Robert Dyer and James Bradshaw were groomsmen and ushers were Jerry Wipper and Dick Burson.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue lace dress with pink accessories and a corsage of elf roses. Mrs. Rentfrow, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of roses.
