Why Sylvia Was FRIGID

SYLVIA: "I'm not the only problem in our family - even if I did try to commit suicide."
EVERETT: "I thought she loved me, but then the whole truth came out. There are other women who don't look on me unfavorably."
Read the surprising truth - and the solution - as revealed by a marriage counselor's notebook. Here is a true case history. Get your copy of the April Ladies' Home Journal today and read "Can This Marriage Be Saved?"

Dinner for Two Groups On Thursday

The Optimist club and the Opti-Mrs. group will gather for a joint dinner on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the Pine Inn.

Dinner Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller are chairmen for a no-host dinner for Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star, on Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Their committee includes Mrs. Arthur Bailey, Mrs. Marc Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Giles Smith, Mel Grub and Mrs. Dora Wallace. Decorations will be arranged by Mrs. George Edwards, chairman, Mrs. Mark Wilbur and Mrs. Don Crenshaw. A meeting will follow the dinner at 8 p.m.

MOSTS to their bridge group on Friday evening for dinner and cards will be Mr. and Mrs. Glade Pollis.

IN PORTLAND at the end of the week were Mr. and Mrs. Harris Lietz, visiting Mr. and Mrs. William C. Smith, former Salem residents. Mr. Smith, who has been ill for some time, is reported much improved.

Today's Menu

LENTEN LUNCH
Baked Eggs in Tomato Sauce
Salad Bowl, Bread and Butter
Fruit Beverage
Baked Eggs in Tomato Sauce
Ingredients: One 11-ounce can meatless tomato sauce, 8 eggs, 1/4 cup grated cheddar cheese (lightly packed).
Method: Divide tomato sauce among 4 individual heat-resistant glass pie plates or shirred egg dishes. Break eggs, one at a time, into a saucer and slide 2 eggs on top of tomato sauce in each of the pie plates or shirred egg dishes. Sprinkle with grated cheese, covering as much of the egg yolks as possible. Bake in a slow (325 deg.) oven until eggs are firm through - about 25 minutes. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Some Notations

By M. L. F.

One of the first children to be baptized in the new St. Joseph's Catholic church was Shannon Mary Brubeck, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brubeck. The christening was Sunday. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Logan of Eugene, the Logans having been attendants at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Brubeck. Also attending the baptism was Donald Brubeck, brother of Shannon Mary. Following the baptism, an informal reception was given at the Brubeck home. The Logans and their children, Robin and Frank, were here for the day to visit the Brubecks.

Dorothy F. Cooney, graduate of Salem senior high school, is listed among 235 students at New York university's Washington Square college of arts and sciences named to the dean's list for outstanding scholarship during the fall semester. The list of honor students represents about six per cent of the college's day and evening enrollment. To be eligible for the dean's roll, students must have an average of 90 or above in all courses. Miss Cooney is a sophomore at the school.

Leaders in the Santiam area, Girl Scouts, are striving to see that every girl who can get an equal opportunity to attend the Smith Creek summer camp. The group's campership program is under way, organizations being contacted to donate to the campership fund. The camp season opens June 28. Campership applications are acceptable now and may be sent to Mrs. G. B. Wynkoop, Smith Creek camp committee, 122 West First avenue, Albany. Each year, many Salem organizations donate camperships, Salem district having a large group of girls in the Santiam area, offices for which are in Albany.

REGULAR monthly luncheon for Salem Alumnae Panhellenic will be Friday noon in the Camella room at the Senator hotel.

Through Friday and Saturday, the annual Easter Lily sale of the group is to be staged, girls from the sororities on the Willamette university campus assisting. Proceeds go to the Oregon Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

PLANNING to spend the week-end in Seattle are Mrs. William F. Johnson and Mrs. James Zweschka.

VISITOR in the capital, arriving late Tuesday, is Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett of Klammath Falls. Mrs. Cornett is republican national committee-woman from Oregon.

Peg in Washington

BY ALENE (PEG) PHILLIPS

Washington, D.C., March 23. Dear Marian: When I wrote you yesterday, the Secretary and Mrs. Douglas McKay had not returned from their trip to the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico. They arrived by plane last night, and virtually on time, after a bad experience a week ago in taking off nine hours late in a day of heavy rain and thunder and lightning storms.

Mrs. McKay reports that the only relaxation the Secretary had in the week was a 15-minute swim at St. John, where he was told that he could "have" 15 minutes for the dip in the warm waters of the bay. The Virgin Islands, especially the one on which St. Croix is situated, is an island of great contrasts. Very primitive living conditions, with schools and hospitals about what one might expect in the interior of Africa, it was reported. More than 90 per cent of the residents are Negroes and one of the problems of interior is to improve conditions on the islands. At Government House, where the McKays stayed, there was no warm water available during their overnight visit. Water is pumped by the navy from the ocean and is not heated for general use. By contrast in the hall where the reception is held is the restored furniture and equipment provided by the Danish government as replacement for that taken by the Danes when they gave up the islands. Beautiful mirrored columns, with three branch candelabras on each column, gold leather stools reflected in the mirror - a great long corridor with the elegance of a Danish palace. And just upstairs where the McKays' rooms were located, badly marred woodwork and a very run-down structure.

Tours of the several islands were made by the McKays, inspection of sugar plants, schools, hospitals and homes. Howard Wall of Portland, has a beautiful home on St. Croix, and Mrs. McKay had tea with Mrs. Wall one afternoon while the secretary was busy with conferences. The Walls have restored an old home with lovely gardens and a comfortable and attractive house. They spend several weeks every year in the islands. The Ward Canaday home where the McKays were entertained with a large reception and dinner party is built in the round stone foundations of an old sugar mill, a unique and beautifully furnished home.

A republican meeting was held one evening in St. Thomas at Bluebeards Castle, a hotel which has become the property of the Interior Department and which is leased to an operator. The secretary found that the opportunity for a first hand view of conditions on the islands and for discussions with local groups and individuals on problems of the residents made the trip necessary and worthwhile. The social functions were an adjunct but also made long days for him, as even during evening receptions, he was being buttonholed by local people for serious discussions.

At Puerto Rico, the McKays were guests of the governor at the rebuilt fort, La Fortaleza, which is more than 400 years old. Outside the lovely gardens add enchantment to the scene which includes the beautiful blue, green waters of the ocean as a background. Inside solid mahogany furniture, magnificent staircases, massive canopied beds with step stools, and more flowers provide an attractive setting for the entertainment of visitors, the McKays reported.

The secretary was back in the office today and at luncheon greeted Frank Begirano, Jr., of Portland, and Stephen Chadwick of Seattle, both well-known in Salem and excellent friends of Mr. McKay. Another visitor today was Major Howard Van Cleave, who has farms near Silverton, and who has been at Fort Belvoir near here for an intensive course with the air
