Child Behavior Topic at PTA

Woodburn—At the meeting of the Woodburn Parent-Teachers association Tuesday night at the Washington school, Mrs. Mae Engle, treasurer of the carnival held last Friday night, reported approximately $400 net proceeds for the PTA treasury. Mrs. Ralph Pickering presided in the absence of Robert Hurst.

Speaker of the evening was Dr. W. G. Burrows of Salem, psychiatry consultant for the Marion county health department and member of the staff of the Oregon state hospital. Mrs. Harmon Year of the health department spoke briefly and introduced Dr. Burrows who spoke on the subject of abnormal behavior of children.

Dean Bishoprick, chairman of the school board, discussed the problem of the hot lunch program for the Woodburn schools which cannot be set up at present due to the cost.

Mrs. Irma Redding of the seventh grade room won the traveling mirror for the highest percentage of parents present.

A nominating committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. Lyman, Seely, Mrs. Ursal Livingston, Mrs. Charles Tyler, with Mrs. Harry VanArsdale as scribe, in preparation for the annual election of officers to be held at the next meeting, April 28. The program will be by the Washington school band.

Mrs. Pickering announced the executive board meeting to be held April 8 at the home of Mrs. Mae Engle, 509 South Front street.
