he would enroll at the University of Oregon next fall.

The all-state center, who broke both the single game and tournament scoring records in the 1953 Washington state high school tourney, today told Webfoot Coach Bill Borcher he planned to attend Oregon, Mrs.
Ann Reed, Nelson's aunt, said.
She said the 18-year-old pivot man planned to take up coaching, but would enroll in the school of business administration.

He still had not made up his mind definitely, she added.
Nelson has been sought by Kansas, Seattle university and the University of Washington, as well as by many other schools.

Mrs. Reed said "he hasn't had a minute to himself since this whole thing started. I hope this relieves the pressure a liftile bit so he can get back to his school work."
