

12 Schools Now Signed To See Movie of Derby

By VIC FRYER

Hey, Kids, have you seen the Derby movie yet? Probably only a few of you have, but don't give up hope. Dick Rogers tells me he has more than 12 schools signed up to see the show this week and next and that probably others will still be able to sign up or see it later in the month when it is scheduled to come back Salem way again.

Already it has been shown to the Soap Box Derby association, the Chamber of Commerce, the Optimist club, South Salem Lions, and Lincoln, Keizer and Richmond schools.

Thursday evening it will be shown at Albany, Friday at Leslie junior high and at Corvallis. Next week about 12 schools in the Salem area will see the movie, in addition to the junior Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis club and groups of Sweet Home and Dallas fans. Some of the schools will show it two or more times. A number of other showings may be scheduled. Dick says he also hopes to get the film back here about the first of May for some more showings.

Say kids, if your dad hasn't had a chance to see the Derby movie yet, tell him he can see it this weekend at the Isak Walton league sports show at the league clubhouse. Dick Rogers called just before press time to say that Walter Morse of Klasic Photo shop has asked to show "Where the SON Shines" along with other sport films and the Oregon vacation film, "You'll Remember Oregon." The films will be shown all during the two-day show.

So you can see the movie is really making the rounds and those who have already seen it, say it's really great.

The name of the movie, "Where the SON Shines," means just what it says. This is the big event where the son is an onlooker. Of course, the dads can have a lot of fun too, giving advice on building the racer, helping with inspections, working on Derby committees and so forth, but the two big days, Saturday and Sunday, July 11 and 12, belong to you boys. And believe me, it's going to be a lot bigger two days this year than it was last year.

When you see the movie, you will see how one town in America started its Derby—just like Salem did last year. It shows the boys building their racing bugs and racing them in the home town Derby. It shows champs from all over the nation arriving in Akron for the All-American Derby and then the race itself as it is won by little Joe Lunn with his taped up "rambling wreck from Georgia."

Doug Adams, Salem's champ, gets in on the show as he admires a huge hunk of beef at the big barbecue for the champs. The Capital Journal also gets in on the act with a picture of Pressman Chester Duncan taking a copy of the paper with the Derby announcement from the press.

Two Boys Lose Lives in Fire

Troy, N.Y. (AP)—Two boys were burned to death early Thursday as they stood helplessly at their bedroom window amid flames that razed their farm home. Eight persons were injured.

The parents, two brothers, a sister and three half-brothers of the dead children escaped with minor cuts or burns. All were brought to a hospital here.

Donald Clickner, 10, and his brother Lawrence, 9, were trapped upstairs by the fire in the two-story frame dwelling 18 miles southeast of Troy.

The fire apparently started in the kitchen, but the cause was not determined.

The stepfather, Robert Warner, a machinist, and a half-brother, Warren Clickner, 17, were driven back by the flames when they tried to rescue Donald and Lawrence.

Clickner, an air force man home on leave from his station at Portland, Ore., said.

Church Women Commend Senators

The executive board of the Salem Council of Church Women, meeting this week to hear committee reports, directed that a letter be sent to the Oregon senate commending the members for their "outstanding work" in regard to passage of the civil rights bill.

The communication was sent at the request of Mrs. Dennis Patch.

Mrs. Cecil Wickline gave a report of work at the state hospital which is sponsored by the church women.

The annual state meeting of the Oregon Council of Church Women, held in Forest Grove Wednesday, was attended by Mrs. L. H. Randle, Mrs. E. F. Goulder, Mrs. E. A. Collier and Mrs. Cecil Wickline, all of Salem.

May Fellowship day will be observed May 1 with a meeting to be held at St. Mark Lutheran church with Mrs. Willis Dallas as chairman.

MAY GET BONNEVILLE JOB

Portland (AP)—The Oregon Journal reported today that Dr. William A. Pearl, assistant to the president at Washington State college, was under consideration for the post of Bonneville power administrator.
