

Hot Dutch Lima Salad

If you like old-fashioned hot potato salad, you'll certainly go for this "Hot Dutch Lima Salad." It has just the right blend of vinegar and onion to contrast with the bland, creamy flavor of the large dry limas. Topped with hot frankfurters it makes a spicy and complete main dish.

Hot Dutch Lima Salad
 4 slices bacon
 1/4 cup diced onion
 1/4 cup vinegar
 2 tablespoon water
 2 teaspoons granulated sugar
 3 cups hot cooked large dry limas
 Salt
 Pepper
 2 tablespoon chopped green sweet pepper or parsley.

Dice bacon and fry slowly until crisp. Add onion to pan and cook until golden in color. Stir in vinegar, water and sugar. Heat to boiling and pour over drained lima beans. Mix well and season to taste with salt and pepper. Sprinkle green pepper or parsley over the top. Serve hot. Top with hot frankfurters for a full meal.
 Serves 4.

Try This Neptune Salmon Bisque—Good

A thick creamy soup that's pretty enough to compliment your treasured soup tureen or chafing dish is Neptune Salmon Bisque. It's filling and nutritious and may be served as the focal point of a light meal or in small serving preceding a simple or elegant dinner.

Neptune Salmon Bisque
 1 pound can salmon
 3/4 cup butter or margarine
 1/2 cup chopped celery
 1 tablespoon chopped onion
 2 tablespoons flour
 1 quart milk
 1 teaspoon salt
 dash of pepper
 lemon slices
 chopped parsley

Drain salmon, saving liquid; remove skin and mash salmon to smooth paste. Melt butter in heavy saucepan; add celery and onion and simmer until both are soft and yellow. Stir in flour; add milk and stir until mixture thickens slightly. Add salmon, salmon liquid, and seasonings. Heat thoroughly, stirring constantly. Serve steaming hot. Garnish each serving with a thin slice of lemon that has been sprinkled with chopped parsley. Serves 8 to 8.

Salad Sandwich

Thin slices of raisin or prune nut bread are well-known accompaniments for fruit salad, but did you ever think of this combination? Cut a thick slice of the fruit bread and place it on a lettuce-garnished salad plate. Cover with a layer of cottage cheese and finally top with a large canned peach half. You have a pretty open-faced salad-sandwich.
