

Presbyterian Mission Series

"Christ's Call to Mission and to Unity" is the theme for a series of meetings to be held at the First Presbyterian church each Wednesday night during the next few weeks. The program has the backing of the National Council of Churches.

Wednesday night, April 1, Dr. Herman N. Morse, moderator of the general assembly, will speak. He is now completing a national tour of the church and will fly to Salem from Alaska.

Other services will include: April 8: Motion picture "Challenge to Africa," dealing with missions in Africa. April 15: Dr. Ralph C. Lewis, long time Chinese missionary. April 22: Korea will be the subject, with Dr. Harry A. Rhodes of the Korean mission since 1908 as the speaker. April 29: Motion picture entitled "African Panorama."

Combined Choirs To Sing Cantata

John Steiner's cantata "The Crucifixion" will be sung during Holy Week by the combined choirs of Central Lutheran and Grace Lutheran churches under the direction of Raymond W. Dahlen, Central Lutheran choir director.

The first presentation of the cantata will be at the Grace Lutheran church on Sunnyview and Lansing Avenues Palm Sunday evening at 8:00 o'clock. The invocation and benediction will be given by the Rev. G. B. Rundstrom, Central Lutheran pastor. The accompanist will be Miss Mable Foss. The second concert will be given at Central Lutheran at N. Capitol and Gaines on Thursday, April 2 at 8:00 p.m.

Soloists include Thomas Mommson, Eiling Halverson, Diane King, Mrs. Paul Bramble and Raymond Dahlen.

Christ Lutheran Sunday Festival

Holy Week services at Christ Lutheran church will open with the Palm Sunday Festival on Sunday with double services and reception of members. The pastor, Rev. T. M. Gebhard will deliver the first of the series of Holy Week sermons under the theme, "Christ My All" and conduct the Sacrament of Baptism for children.

On Thursday, the candlelight service of Holy Communion will be celebrated for the entire parish at 7:45 p.m.

The Litany Service will be used on Good Friday at a special service at 7:45 p.m. with the choir participating under the direction of Mrs. Lyle Glazler, director and Mr. Wilson, organist.

Quarterly Meeting At Free Methodist

Rev. R. T. Fine, the Oregon conference superintendent of the Free Methodist churches, will conduct quarterly meeting services this Sabbath at the Salem Free Methodist church, of Market and Winter. He will speak at the 11:00 o'clock morning worship hour and at the 7:30 evening service. The morning message will be followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's supper.

Babies Dedicated Alliance Church

Palm Sunday at the Christian and Missionary Alliance church will be observed with several special features. At the 11:00 o'clock morning worship service Communion will be observed. This is an annual observance when all Alliance churches around the world in 20 mission fields observe Communion on the same Sunday morning. Also, featured in the morning service will be the dedication of babies. The Palm Sunday sermon, "Jesus, Prophet, Priest, and King," will be preached by the pastor, Rev. Paul W. Gunther. At the 7:30 p.m. service the day will be observed with a service of water baptism.

Easter Rites at Lebanon Drive-in

Lebanon—County-wide sunrise services Easter morning are scheduled at the Motor Vu drive in theater at Lebanon commencing at 6:30 a.m. The service this season will be under the direction of Our Saviour's Lutheran church with Rev. M. E. Neese delivering the address.

Residents are invited from every city and rural area in the county, theater owner Tadd Nelson stated.

A staff of ushers will meet arriving autos at the gate, escort them to parking and place an individual speaker in each car.

Our Saviour's choir will present the Easter music. Rev. Neese's topic will be "Dawn of a New Day."

Nazarene Services To Be Continued

The series of evangelistic services which started last Wednesday at the First Church of the Nazarene will continue each night through Easter. Rev. and Mrs. C. William Fisher, evangelists from Kansas City, Missouri, are in charge. Rev. Mr. Fisher has spoken in most of the states of the union. A world tour in 1945 took him to 17 foreign countries. Mrs. Fisher assists in the music and in giving readings.

A duck-billed platypus in captivity will eat 800 angleworms a day besides other food.

Youth to Hold Easter Service

Silverton—Members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, of which Nancy Foote is president, will conduct the annual sunrise service for members and friends of the Silverton Methodist church, Easter morning at 7 a.m.

The service will be held in the new church sanctuary. Youth will conduct the entire service of worship.

This is an annual observance that has been conducted by the Methodist youth for more than 20 years.

Sharon Deale is worship chairman of the group and is in charge of details for the service.

Special music has been planned.
