Stock Market (4)—With unusual quiet-ness, the stock market Friday made modest programs.

The advance was almost entirely con-fined to fractions with an occasional issue pushing up between 1 and 2 points. Losses were fractional.

Trading came to an estimated 1,500, 500 shares, sharply confrasting with Thursday's two million share total.

End Session

Juneau Alaska (B)—Senate

adjourned at 9 a.m., today ended the 21st session of the Alaska (B)—Senate inight session.

The house adjourned a half-hour earlier, but the senate delayed the final gavel until 21-rival of outgoing Gov. Gruening to receive notification personally.

House approval of senate revisions in a 23½ million dollar agreement on membership of territorial government and agreement on membership of territorial government and boards came shortly before adjournment.

Adjour session of the houses refused to confirm any of the apointments submitted by Gov. Gruening for various boards and commissions.

This permits the new republican Governor J. Frank Heintaleman, to make interim appointments after he takes of fice.
