Processors Fight Back At the Dieting Craze

By SAM DAWSON

New York (AP) — That slim swells figure which so many Americans yearn for after they've lost it — is causing the sales of some foodstuffs to drop. And now some food processors are fighting back.

Some tout the health values of their products and view malnutrition with alarm. Both butter and margarine producers fall into this class. And there is talk that they may become strange bedfellows in a campaign to get Americans to use the spreading knife more freely.

Other food processors — alarmed at the inroads on sales made by America's changing food habits — advertise that their products are no more fattening than some other foods that the dieting public has turned to.

A big sugar refiner has come to defense of the sweet, for example, with the contention that three teaspoons full of its brand of sugar contain no more calories than a half grapefruit. But, of course, still others are cashing in by bringing out non-fattening food lines catering to those who diet. They're eating hours to dropping a pound or so here and there — mostly there.

Every dieter has his favorites. New diet habits have changed the food picture considerably since the war. Average annual consumption of sugar in 1935 through 1939 was 96.2 pounds per capita, the Agricultural Department says. This year consumption is estimated to be between 92 and 95 pounds per capita.

Joseph F. Abbott, president of American Sugar Refining Co., is urging his salesmen to campaign to get the dieting public to watch the total intake of all foods instead of just reaching for a cigaret instead of a sweet.

At the same time a bear company's advertising campaign stresses that a bottle of its brand contains less unfermented sugar than can be put on the proverbial head of a pin.

Thompson-Hansen Wedding March 20

Woodburn — Miss Lois Ann Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hansen, was wed to Sherwood Thompson, son of Theodore S. Thompson, on Friday, March 20, at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. J. William Carlson, pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran church, read the single ring ceremony which was witnessed by about 30 friends and relatives.

The bride wore a petal-pink butcher linen dress with a corsage of pink-throated white orchids. Miss Wilma Jean Hensen, maid of honor for her sister, wore a pale blue embroidered organdy dress with a red rosebud corsage.

Don Thompson served as best man for his brother. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hansen wore a gown of gold taffeta with a red rosebud corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony with the wedding cake and blue and white tapers centering the lace covered table. Mrs. Ray, Dryden, cousin of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Iva Twitvo poured coffee and another cousin, Mrs. Jean Hove, served punch.

After a wedding trip to North Dakota where they will visit relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will live in Woodburn. Mrs. Thompson is a senior at Woodburn high school where Mr. Thompson graduated with the class of 1952.

Mrs. Morse Stewart, assisted by Mesdames L. J. Stewart, John Wood, Russell Krueger, R. L. Tower and V. Huff. The afternoon was spent playing bridge and canasta. Mrs. Maude Sieber and Mrs. S. A. Wheatley were guests.
