Ten Big Races On TV Schedule

Ten of the richest horse races in the east will be telecast coast-to-coast on NBC's cavalcade of sports this season, the series starting April 18 with the initial running of the $30,000 Gotham Stakes at Jamaica (N. Y.) racetrack. The Gotham, which was instituted this year as a prep for the $100,000 Wood Memorial a week later, will bring together some of the foremost candidates for three-year-old classics. Among these are Alfred Gwynn Vanderbilt's unbeaten gray colt, Native Dancer, and Green-tree Stable's Straight Face, a Count Fleet gelding which proved a sensation in Florida this winter. The Gotham will be contested over a mile-and-a-sixteenth course, and the Wood over a mile-and-an-eighth. Fred Capossela, veteran public address announcer at New York tracks, will call the races, with Win Elliott and ex-jockey Sammy Renick describing the color and conducting interviews in the paddock and winner's circle. With the exception of the $25,000 Kent Stakes at Delaware Park on June 13, all of the telecasts in the series will emanate from New York tracks—Belmont, Jamaica and Aqueduct.

Auburn Mothers Review 'New School Building Plan'

East Salem—General school problems of the Auburn school community were discussed by superintendent of Salem schools, Walter Snyder, with members of the Mothers club meeting at the schoolhouse, Thursday night.

Just when a new building for the school may be built cannot be decided at this time as there are other commitments of the board for building and this new project will have to wait until there is money available, Snyder said.

For the school year 1953-54 the fifth and sixth grades of Auburn will be transferred to Heaver school, so there will be only one grade in each of the four rooms at Auburn, and

East Salem

East Salem—Special business for East Salem Cub Pack meetings for March and April are plans for the annual circus in Salem.

Hoover Cub Pack, meeting at the school house Friday night, had as one of their speakers, James Kerns of the Salem area office, who talked to the boys about the coming circus.

Two new assistants for the pack were named: Warren C. Pahl was appointed as assistant cub master and Don Sebern as institutional representative.

Awards given by Cub master Robert Heard were a new bobcat pin to Tom Eastham; wolf gold and silver arrows to Don Heard, and Don Nash of the northwest commission, presented to Douglas Ritchie the Webelos award.

The members of den four, Mrs. Dennis Stevenson, den mother, presented a skit.

There were costumes and scenes from the everyday life of people on the islands. The attendance award was given to members of den three, whose den mother is Mrs. James Calvert.

Lansing Neighbors Garden club met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. O. Anderson on Doris Ave. Guest speaker was Henry Hartwig, who spoke on "Peonies."

Mr. Hartwig has a display garden planted just last fall, and many varieties of the two, tree and bush types, in his bulb garden.

The Salem council report was given by Mrs. Robert Ballard. Mrs. Ben Rathjen was appointed as secretary to replace Mrs. Berwyn Maxwell, who resigned.

Attending were Mrs. Milton Blackman, Mrs. Rathjen, Mrs. Ralph Hein, Mrs. Ballard, Mrs. Carl Stettler, Mrs. Lloyd Kleen, Mrs. Clarence Blundell, Mrs. William Hartley and the hostess.

Plans were made for the club's annual spring plant sale the last of April.

Members of the Kooky Kut-up 4-H club surprised their leader with a birthday party when they met for their meeting the past week. Attending the party were Sharon Suran, Jackie Smalley, Marietta Pendergast, Darlene Clark, Patty Stubfield, Eileen Smalley, Sharon Mullins, Mrs. Albert Suran, Mrs. Don Maus and daughter and Bonnie Suran and Mrs. Smalley.

Many Japanese feel that Buddhism and Shinto are two forms of the same religion and so accept both faiths.

Role of Queen Sought by 9

Lebanon — Nine girls will compete for queen of the 41st Strawberry Festival and the button sale to aid in financing the queen's court activities will start April 3. The annual dinner for the queen candidates, their mothers and sponsors will be an event of early April. The Jaycees are in charge.

General chairman of the June 4-6 festival is L. E. Arnold. Reporting on plans for the junior court was Mrs. Curt Wilbur. Each school will be represented by one boy and one girl.

Site of festival activities is shifted this year to Park St. Shimanek's bakery will again produce the 5,000-pound shortcake, which is capable of serving 12,000 persons. As is the custom, the shortcake is free.

The grand parade, which will precede the cutting of the cake on Friday morning, is in charge of Kenneth Mayer. He is placing special emphasis on a larger industrial division this year.

Auburn Rabbit 4-H club held the March meeting at the home of their leader, Mrs. George Starr. Flag salutes were led by Mary Feskens. Last year's record books were given back to members, health leaflets given out and discussed and plans made to participate in the spring 4-H show at Stayton. There was practice in rabbit judging. Attending were David Steiner, Gregory Steiner, Maribel Starr, Pat Miller, Mary Feskens, the leader, and guests, Miss Joy Freier of Gladstone and Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Sample of Falls City.

Mrs. Paul Gilmer entertained the Monroe Ave. Sewing club Wednesday. Present were Mrs. Donald Griswold, Mrs. Donald Roloffsen, Mrs. Donald Townsend, Mrs. Wilfred Willer, Mrs. Loren Richey, Mrs. Stuart Johns and the hostess.

Auburn Red Cross workers for next week's work on the drive will be Mrs. Melvin Brumfield, Mrs. Melvin Harper, Mrs. Loren Richey and Mrs. Stuart Johns.

Walter Bates Has Plan for Buildings

Walter E. Bates announces that an office building he plans to build at the southeast corner of Fairgrounds Road and Shipping street will be the first of several possible small office buildings in strategic business locations, if his plans are carried through.

The building already planned will be two stories and built to suit tenants. Suggested tenants are doctors, dentists or others who like locations outside the critical car parking districts.

John Grimmer Groom is the architect.
