Egg Hunt for Mt. Angel Tots

Mt. Angel — American Legion Auxiliary members met at a business session Tuesday evening in the Memorial Hall to complete plans for their annual Easter Egg Hunt and a bake sale, both scheduled for April 4, Saturday before Easter.

The Easter Egg Hunt will be held in the afternoon on the lawn of President Mrs. Gene Hoffer. Members are asked to donate colored eggs for the hunt, and all members' children, six years and younger, are invited to attend.

Mrs. Peter Gores was named chairman of the bake sale, which will be held at the Stiff's Furniture Store, starting at 9 a.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Mae Heggie, Mrs. Ernest Crowder and Mrs. Ira Herriford were appointed by the president to serve on the nominating committee. The unit voted to send a copy of the Mt. Angel News to the Veterans Hospital in Portland. Mrs. Fred Lucit gave a report on the banquet in honor of the national president held in Salem last Saturday.

Poppy poster chairman, Mrs. Fred Lucht, announced she had contacted the Monitor and Mt. Angel schools in regard to the poppy poster contest. It was voted to order 80 window posters for display before Memorial Day.

A copy of the new book, "The Vatican and the Kremlin," dedicated to all the American Veterans by the local unit, will be presented to Mount Angel Women's college at the time the awards for the American Essay contest are made. The unit also voted to purchase five copies of the book, "Key to Peace" to present to the city library and to the various school libraries in Mount Angel and Monitor.

Hubbard

Hubbard — Members of Thalia Rebekah lodge voted to help with part of an IOOF float in the Rose Parade, Tuesday evening. A cakewalk will be held at the next meeting, April 14, to raise the lodge's share for the project.

Announced were the dates of the Rebekah assembly in Portland, May 19, 20 and 21. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Vredenburg and Mrs. Harry Reed. The tables featured spring bouquets with tall red tapers and small baskets filled with Easter eggs.

Members of the Ladies' aid of the Hubbard community church will clean the church March 31. They met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. L. Murphy.

Devotionals for the day were led by Mrs. John Morrison, assisted by Mrs. Glen Hunter. Mrs. George Leffler and Mrs. W. T. Lord reported on chapters from "These Rights We Hold."

Jamboree Draws 9 Lebanon Scouts

Lebanon — Nine Boy Scouts of this area have announced that they will attend the national jamboree July 17-23 at Irvine Ranch, Calif. Total cost of the trip is $195 each, and the nine youths are seeking work to aid in meeting the expense.

Scout officials are appealing to residents for jobs for these boys which will include weeding, spading and other small chores. Money for such tasks is not to be paid to the boys, but is turned over directly to Howard Berger at the Bank of Lebanon, who keeps it in a fund for payment of the trip costs.

A community wide court of honor for Scout troops and Explorer Scout post will be held at Green Acres school Tuesday, April 7 at 7:30 p.m. Among troops and post to be represented will be four from Lebanon and single troops from Salt Lake, Waterloo and Liberty districts.

Merit badges will be awarded at that time, said William Baldwin, scouting official.

Mardi Gras for Cubs at Dallas

Dallas — "Here Comes the Mardi Gras" was the theme Friday night at the Lyle school when the Cub Scouts of Dallas held their annual parade and circus.

Following a parade in which all Cub Scouts participated, the attending group was addressed by Cub Master Gerald Zahnle, who presented prizes for the winning costumes and awards earned during the past year by Dallas Cub Scouts.

Zahnle stressed the fact that in order to carry out the Cub Scouting program in Dallas during the following year it will be necessary for five or six mothers of Cubs to accept posts as den mothers.

It was also announced by Zahnle that a cub master will be needed for the coming year. Zahnle, who has led the pack for the past two years, will be forced by other obligations to give up his post for one year, and then resume his activity at a later date.
